The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Artificial ice made from distilled water is the final luxury for New York cocktail drinkers. It is, of course very pure, and as clear as crystal.

The London Medical Times says that a hundred deaths have been probably caused by carelessness as to dairy drainage and water supply, for one that is traceable to adulteration.

William M. Gwin, who used to be known as Duke Gwin, and who served two terms in the United States Senate from California, ended his public life in 1861, and for some years past has lived quietly and obscurely in Washington. He is over eighty.

Another candidate, one belonging to the "dark horse" order, has loomed up on the presidential horizon. Mr. August Belmont is his godfather, his name is Roger, and he is one of the judges of the New York court of appeals. Next!

In every Northern State—or, if there is an exception we have failed to see it the last two weeks have brought about a wonderful revival in Mr. Blaine's prospects of securing the presidential nomination of his party, and have shown with increasing clearness the lack of solid substance in the Arthur "boom."

Gen. Graham, who is making a great noise in the English newspapers and is creating some slight disturbance in the Sudan, used to be a neighbor of ours. A dozen or so years ago he was in the engineer service at Montreal, an obscure Lieutenant-Colonel, and content to earn and live on his Graham bread.

Some idiot says the president will perhaps not appoint Fitz John Porter a colonel in the army, as the bill which has passed congress does not, direct, only authorizes him to do so. If the president does not like the bill, his only proper course will be to veto it when it comes before him. It is in the invariable form recognized by all presidents. It is in intent, and as always understood, a command to the president.

Some of the statements made in what has been published of Mr. Blaine's work have already been denied. A friend of President Buchanan says Blaine's account of Buchanan's relations with Judge Black is inaccurate. What the public has seen of Blaine's book, or will see before the Republican convention meets, however, will cause dissensions among Democrats, as in this case and not among Republicans.

Gen. Grant denies the reported interview in a New York paper, in which he was said to have declared that the Republican contest was between Arthur and Blaine, and that the occurrences at Danville previous to the election last Fall were like those in Copiah county, Mississippi. The General says in a letter that he has had no interviews with newspaper men while at Old Point. His Presidential choice is Logan.

There was considerable excitement on the New York Produce Exchange last Friday in consequence of one freight broker, Mr. D. C. Andrade, challenging another, Mr. E. Berlinger, to mortal combat, the challenger giving the party challenged the choice of the weapons—sata, hard gloves, bare knuckles or pistols. The challenged party, it is said, refused to accept the challenge, and talks of sending it to the police authorities.

A Washington newspaper says that Henry Irving sat down to a quiet little game of draw poker with the President and a couple of the latter's friends, a few evenings ago. He thought he knew something of the game and boasted of having played with Schenck, but his confidence in his skill was probably a good deal shaken when he arose from the table minus the profits of a week's show business. It is flattering to American pride to know that we have a President who can thus uphold the great American game.

It is said that the record of duellist Cash as a soldier was a record of cowardice. Cash was not singular in this respect, for, in a majority of instances, as old veterans can testify, the bullies and bulldozers of peace times were the most arrant cowards and bomb-proof hunters when the tug of war came. They all wanted to die, if die they must—in the last ditch—in the rear. There were exceptions, to be sure, but they served to confirm the rule. On the other hand, the most gallant soldiers were frequently members of the church and lovers of peace.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 24 bales

Mr. John D. Kerr, of Sampson County, was in the city to-day.

It is about time to start up the soda fountains and ice cream saloons.

This has been one of the most pleasant and delightful days, thus far, this season.

After the Rentz-Santley troupe, come the Primrose & West's Minstrels who will undoubtedly draw a large house.

For Flower Pots and Hanging Baskets call at the 5 and 10 Cents Store, No. 16 South Second street.

There was the dullest kind of a dullness round the city hall this morning, with not even a tramp to send off on his travels.

The city is full of people, suffering with the ill to which humanity is heir, who came here in the hope of obtaining relief from the doctor woman.

We invite the attention of our citizens to the fact that first quality shirts are being made to order at one dollar at the Wilmington Shirt Factory.

Steamboatmen report that there is an abundance of water in the Cape Fear and that the river was rising rapidly when they left yesterday morning.

The pavers extended their work to the corner of Chestnut street to-day, so that now the distance from Market to that street on North Water, is a splendid thoroughfare.

Miles Howard, formerly a well-known colored barber of this city, died at Philadelphia on the 20th inst. He was a body servant of the then President Davis during the war.

The big chariot of the doctor woman left here this morning, and there is a rumor on the street that she will leave in a few days. The services of the band have been dispensed with.

Two colored damsels who reside in the "Hollow" got into a fight last night and were taken in charge by the police, and locked up. Their cases will be disposed of to-morrow morning.

The largest and best stock of Windows, Doors, Blinds &c., and at Factory prices is at N. Jacobi's Hardware Depot.

The steamer Minnehaha, Capt. Pardee, which left here several days since for New York, got as far as Smithville, in due season, and she remains there waiting for favorable weather in which to proceed to sea.

The time for strawberry festivals and cramp colic is rapidly approaching. We notice that the berries have been shipped North quite freely within the last few days, and they will probably put in an appearance in our market before long.

There will be a cargo of ice sold by auction to-morrow morning, which will be an unusual occurrence in this city. Messrs Croslly & Morris will be the auctioneers and the sale will be on account of whom it may concern. See ad.

Princess polonaises of plain velvet are made with full pleats in the back and a pointed basque in front. This displays advantageously the front of a skirt of broche velvet, or a satin skirt that has rows of sable fur down the front. When worn in the street a sable collarette and large cuffs are added, and a band of sable trims the velvet bonnet.

The habits of children prove that occupation is a necessity with the most of them. They love to be busy, even about nothing, and still more to be usefully employed. Children should be encouraged, or, if indolently disinclined to it, should be disciplined into performing for themselves every little office relative to their toilet which they are capable of performing.

Planting.
Passengers who arrived this morning on the Carolina Central train report that the farmers in that section are busy planting their crops, although work has been considerably retarded by the long continued wet weather. They report that Sunday last was one of the rainiest days they have experienced this season, but fortunately, the rain was not accompanied with much wind.

Down the River.

His Honor, Mayor Hall, besides a good many other citizens of Wilmington, took a trip to Smithville on the Passport this morning. Many went in order to attend the obsequies of Mrs. Stewart, which took place at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, while some were drawn thither by the Superior Court, which is now in session.

Variety.

The Rentz-Santley combination is expected to arrive in the city to-morrow morning and show at the Opera House to-morrow night. The entertainment will be somewhat different from those given by this troupe when here on former occasions, but the attractions will be equal if not superior to any of their former efforts. Reserved seats are now on sale at Dyer's.

Correction.

We were in error yesterday when we stated that Messrs. Worth, Levy & Co., proprietors of Mott's Fire and Water Proof Roofing Paint, were of New York, and also in stating that Mr. C. L. Wright, the general agent for this State was from this city. Messrs. Worth, Levy & Co., are engaged in business in Petersburg, Va., and Mr. Wright, the general agent, is from the same city.

Grading.

The street brigade were at work grading Chestnut, between Fifth and Sixth streets this morning. The material used was of the very best and with a very little travel upon it will become hard and smooth. A decided improvement on the saw dust, although that was much better than the sand, through which animals have been obliged to wade ever since the place was settled.

"The Exposition News."

We have received from Mr. P. C. Ennis, publisher, Raleigh, N. C., the proprietors of a publication with the above title, which will be issued weekly commencing with the 1st of April, until the Exposition opens, on the 1st of October, when it will be published daily until the close, which will be on October 28th. It is designed to advance the interests of the Exposition and to aid in the development of the resources of the State, and will consist of an edition of 5,000 in each issue. Subscription rates: 3 months, 20 cents; 6 months, 35 cents; 7 months, including the October daily, 75 cents.

Postponement.

The entertainment which was to have been given at Germania Hall last Friday night by the Young Men's Hebrew Association of this city, but which was postponed on account of sickness, will be given at the same place next Friday night, beginning at 8 o'clock. Earnest efforts are being made by the committee having the matter in charge to make this one of the most pleasant and agreeable entertainments of the kind which has ever been held, and from our knowledge of those to whom the arrangements are confided we have no doubt that the result will be all that could be desired. There will be literary exercises and vocal and instrumental music for the occasion. Mrs. D. Kahnweiler, whose worth as a vocalist needs no praise from us, will sing and the Opera House Orchestra will give several instrumental selections.

Improvements.

The Goldsboro Messenger, of the 24th inst., comes to us in new form, new type and worked off on a new press. It is now an eight page, 56 column paper, with an excellent "make-up," interesting articles, both original and selected, and a large advertising space, which shows that the business men of Goldsboro appreciate the value of printers' ink and know how to avail themselves of its benefits. The first issue of the Messenger was in 1867, one of the most gloomy and inauspicious years in the history of the State in which to start such an enterprise as a bold, fearless, outspoken and independent Democratic newspaper. But Bro. Bonitz had no such word as failure in his dictionary, but he did have pluck, perseverance and indomitable energy, and with these and untiring industry, he has accomplished an enviable success of which—his fellow citizens and the Democratic party of North Carolina have just reasons to be proud.

The only pain we can safely make light of, is the window-pane, but the pain that racks our frame and tears our lungs is a matter of serious consequence. To alleviate the latter and effect a permanent cure, Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is relied on by all sensible people.

Now is the time to give Smith's Worm Oil.

To Leave Us.

Mr. Asa A. Brown, who has been in the city on a visit to relatives and friends for the last two months, will leave us on the Thursday night's train for New Orleans, Vera Cruz and the City of Mexico. Previous to his return here two months ago he had been absent from Wilmington about 8 years, more than half of which time was passed in the pursuit of his profession as a civil engineer on the various railroads within the Mexican Republic. He returns there to engage in the same pursuit, but is not yet certain how long he will remain absent this time. Our acquaintance with Mr. Brown has been remarkably pleasant, and we regret his departure, wishing him every success in life and a speedy return to the banks of the Cape Fear, where we hope he may conclude to settle down—a married man.

Interesting to Fishermen: The celebrated "Fish" Brand Gilling thread is old only at JACOB'S. He is the Importer's Agent.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
