BLUE AND GRAY.

There is a movement on foot to build a Home for such ex Confederate Soldiers as have been incapacitated from labor by the wounds and diseases incident to the late War, and to fu ther this most laudable object we are glad to notice that some of the Posts of the Grand Army of the Republic are contributing of their funds. It is intended to establish the Home at Richmond. Va. and Mr. John E. Lane, of that city, has just received a letter enclosing $10, the amount contributed by Edwin M. Stanton Post, G. A. R. Department of Ohio, and forwarded by Mr. James Lavery, Post Commander, In his the port added to the fact that it had comrades who had suffered by the makes it flexible and glossy. floods, Mr. Lavery says:

"We do this in the name of humanity, with the understanding that in so doing we do not lesson our conviction that the principles for which we fought were right, and those for which our friends in gray fought were wrong. We have no doubt that our Confeder ate friends thought that they were right, because no one who is not conscious that were right can fight as they fought. We recognize you, our old foes, as brave men, worthy of respect due to the bravest of the brave. We should be glad to take each one of you by the hand as a symbol of eternal friendship."

In reply Mr. Lane said: "And we would also thank you for the patriotic. fraternal tone of your letter, which we State should ever come "on to Rich- the small boy. mond," by calling at our Veteran Hall you will find the string on the outside, Post, "stands alone, but the brain and and all you will have to do is to pull conscience of the country is with him, and walk in to our camp fire, and you and the best minds of both the great will find 'we uns' from the Old Domin- parties are earnestly desirous of so ion ready to grasp each brother by the amending the Constitution as shall hand in the true spirit of fraternity, charity and loyalty. The 'Boys in Blue' and the Boys in Grey' have now a common country and a common flag. and the latter challenges the former to give more steadlast allegiance to either than they do now and will continue to

· This prompts the Columbus (Ohio) Dispatch, a Republican paper, to say in still his ambition to accomplish. language that is far above the mere partisan:

The door is wide open to every man' woman and child in the United States to send a mite to aid in the erection of this Home. There is no more appropriate way of building it, in which we can have any lot or part, than by oluntary contributions. Indeed, a generous, united effort on the part of the Blue and the Grey, and of the friends of both, to build this Home by voluntary contributions in money or articles to be exhibited and sold at the Fair to be he d in Richmond for the benefit of the movement-beginning May 1, 1884will do more toward making us what we ought to be in every fibre of our souls. one people, than anything we can think of in that connection. The hearts of true men respond nobly to acts of kind ness. No aimies ever fought better than those marshaled under the rebel commanders and we have reason to be proud of them for one thing-they were composed of American citizens. Let us, as citizens, voluntarily do what we can to brighten the last days of the old, infirm, brave men of the rebel army who may by without comfortable homes, for the sake of a better feeling are my sentiments. between the two sections among those who are to come after us. NEW YORK FOR 1884.

PRESIDENTIAL YEAR

New Proprietor! New Editors! New Life and Blood!

Six months ago THE WORLD commenced its new career. Its growth has been upprecedented. Its wonderful advance in circula tion, in advertising, in influence, in popularity, warrants the claim of a leading position in New York journalism.

No expense or effort will be spared until THE WORLD is recognized as the GREATEST as well as the BRIGHTEST and CHEAPEST PAPER in AMERICA.

THE WORLD, as the leading Democratic newspaper in the country, knows no faction and recognizes no individual ambitions or aspirations aside from the general good of the party and the Republic It seeks the triumph of principles—not men. It upholds great Dem ocratic ideas and ideals-not a faction or fraction of the party. Tuesday, April 8, 1884-167th Mouthly Draw

At the entrance of the new year the new WORLD desires to express its gratitude for the hearty welcome it has received and the magnificent success it has already achieved. Its welcome comes from the people. Its success is thei work. They have indorsed its merits by more than trebling its circulation in six months, and by doubling its advertising. For this they are entitled to our warm-thanks. No Democrat eught to be happy without
