We shall issue no more papers this month.

Business was rather quiet on Water street to-day.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 99 bales.

There was one white tramp applied for lodging at police headquarters last night.

Hotel talk seems to be the uppermost interesting theme of conversation just now.

The bill boards are bedizened with pictures of the Minstrel show which is to be here on the 7th of April.

To-morrow is "April Fool's" day, but it is not recognized as such to a great extent by sensible people.

It was cold enough for frost this morning, but the high wind of last night prevented there being any.

For Flower Pots and Hanging Baskets call at the 5 and 10 Cents Store, No. 16 South Second street.

The pavers are now working between Chestnut and Mulberry streets, and are making good progress towards the latter street.

We are pleased to note the improvement in the appearance of the Piedmont Press which comes to us this week in a new spring suit of clothes.

The next entertainment at the Opera House after Thatcher, Primrose and West's Minstrels, will be the Comic Opera of the "Queen's Lace Handkerchief" by the New York Opera Company.

Mayor Hall offers in this issue a reward of $50 for information which will lead to the conviction of the parties who attempted to fire Mr. J. Weil's residence, on last Friday night, and $25 each for the arrest of burglars. We hope that some of the scoundrels may be caught now.

For Pure White Lead & Paints, and biggest stock of Window Glass and lowest prices for good articles be sure to go to Jacob's Hardware Depot.

Attempted Burglary.

At a late hour on Saturday night a would-be burglar entered the back yard of Mrs. E. Warren, on Second, between Market and Dock streets, and managed to open the rear door of the house and enter the passage. He was heard and chase was made for him, but he escaped by running into the alley and thence into Second street, round into Market street, where he was lost among the crowd. His pursuer was near enough to the culprit to see that he was a well-dressed white man, wearing a stiff round-topped hat. Not satisfied with his first attempt, the scoundrel returned after some little time had elapsed and succeeded in getting into the rear yard a second time when he was driven off by hearing noises in the house.

Suspicious Characters.

This city contains at the present time quite a number of suspicious characters and we repeat our caution that it would be well for all to be upon their guard. Last Saturday afternoon one of these suspicious persons—and his acts entitle him to be classed as very suspicious—was seen sauntering along on the East side of North Second street, between Chestnut and Mulberry, stopping at every entrance and stepping up the steps leading to the houses and, after scrutinizing the premises a few moments, stepping down again only to proceed to the next to repeat the conduct. After examining the premises in the rear of Dr. Wood's house, he came out and proceeded towards Princess street, but soon returned and made the same kind of examinations on the West side of North Second street. He called at neither house, so that it could not have been food that he was after, as was at first imagined. He was a young white man and had the general appearance of a tramp.

Now is the time to give Smith's Worm Oil.

A Pastoral Call.

At a meeting of the Masonboro Baptist Church, held yesterday, Rev. George S. Best, of Kenansville, Duplin County, was invited by a unanimous vote to become its pastor for the ensuing year. He accepted the invitation and will preach his first sermon of the pastorate year on the second Sunday in April.

Personal.

Mr. Hugh Waddell, of Washington City, is in the city on a visit to his brother, Hon. A. M. Waddell.

Mr. S. G. Worth, of the North Carolina Fish Commission, is in the city to-day and registered at the Purcell House.

Mr. Edward Kidder, of New York, who has been in the city for about two weeks past on a visit to his father and brothers, expects to leave on Wednesday on his return North. Mr. Kidder is in business in New York, but resides in Brooklyn.

Nearing the End.

The long Lenten Fast is drawing near its end. Yesterday, the fifth Sunday in Lent, is sometimes known as "Passion Sunday," because of the especial attention drawn on it to our Lord's Passion. Next Sunday is "Palm Sunday," and the Sunday following is glorious Easter-day. From this time forth until Easter the services in the Roman Catholic and Episcopal churches bear more and more upon the sufferings and crucifixion of our Saviour. Next week, the last in Lent, is called Holy Week and the services, especially on Good Friday, will be most solemn and impressive.

Dr. Richard Oberlander, Leipsig, Germany, Ethnological Museum, F. S. U. G. A., M. G. S., author of "Foreign Nations," writes: "Having been troubled with my old, chronic neuralgic pains, I was advised to try St. Jacobs Oil, the great pain-reliever. I tried it and was entirely cured."

A Fugitive from Justice.

Wayman McKoy, colored, a fugitive from justice from Bladen county, where he stands indicted before the Superior Court for larceny, was arrested this morning at the instance of Mr. D. M. Sutton, of that county, and locked up to be held until the proper authorities of Bladen can be notified and an officer sent here to take him to that county for trial. McKoy is an old offender, and has been stealing ever since the war, but has generally worked so cunningly as to evade conviction. The crime for which he now stands indicted is for stealing some turpentine, in company with another colored man, which was brought to this city and sold. The two were arrested and had a preliminary examination before a magistrate, who put them under bonds for their appearance at the Superior Court. The companion remained, stood his trial, was convicted and sentenced to a term of years in the penitentiary, while McKoy fled the county, and had not since been seen until this morning, when Mr. Sutton saw him on the wharf, identified him at once and caused his arrest and detention.

The Consecration.

It has been found necessary to issue tickets of admission to the services at the consecration of Rev. Dr. Watson, as Bishop of the Diocese of East Carolina, which is to take place on Thursday in Easter Week, April 17th. This will be the second instance only in which a Bishop of the Episcopal Church in North Carolina has been consecrated within the limits of the State. Bishop Lyman was consecrated in Raleigh. The committee of arrangements appointed for this occasion have issued the following circular:

Any person desiring to attend the services at the consecration of the bishop-elect of East Carolina, in St. James' Church, Wilmington, N. C., on April 17, can secure return tickets, over the following railroads, at three cents per mile each way: Wilmington & Weldon, Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta, Carolina Central, Raleigh & Augusta Air-Line and Raleigh & Gaston, and on the last three named roads tickets for clergymen will be sold for one straight fare for the round trip. Though not officially notified, it is understood that the North Carolina, Western North Carolina and Atlantic & North Carolina roads will sell tickets at same rate. Visiting clergy will be received at the depots on the arrival of the trains on the evening of the 16th and morning of the 17th, and provided with hospitality, if they will notify Col. W. L. DeRosset, the Chairman of the Committee, of their intention to be present.

The Vestry of St. James', considering the occasion as of diocesan interest and not simply parochial, and in order to avoid disorder and confusion, have instructed that cards of admission shall be issued. Visitors will be supplied with such cards upon application.

Silver Plated Spoons, Forks and Knives of best quality, and at manufacturer's prices, can be found at JACOBY'S Hardware Depot.

We have saved our customers many dollars when they have taken the time and trouble to compare our goods and prices with those of our competitors. It is very gratifying to know that our trade has increased, which goes to show that, notwithstanding the new competitors we had to contend with, the people prefer rather to buy where the best goods can be had for the least money. The secret of our success is the good and honest quality of our goods and fair and upright dealing with our customers. Every garment exactly as represented or the money refunded.
