Out on the Prairie. Concerning Something Better than Mrs. Toodles' Wheelbarrow—And the Reason Why.

When a certain Commissary General complained to the Duke of Wellington that Sir Thomas Picton had declared he would hang him if the rations for that General's division were not forthcoming at a certain hour, the Duke replied: "Ah! did he indeed go so far as that? Did he say he'd hang you?"

"A PHOTO." In the wreck of an old worn album I found this little picture— A leaf from a long-elapsed day. That face of boyish beauty Must now be lined with care; And the locks of raven whiteness Must gleam with a silver hair.

Clothespins. A New York reporter called recently on a wholesale dealer in clothespins. The storehouse where the merchant kept his stock was filled with bales and sacks. Hundreds of thousands of clothespins were there.

dangerous and wicked designs against the commonwealth. The opportunity of an extensive violation of letters, especially if they proceeded from suspected royalists, was no doubt an attractive bait.

A Sermon Cut Short. Said a German priest to a brother passenger of a worldly turn, as they gazed across the water at nothing in particular: "What! you can't read? Then you've lost a good quarter of your life. Can't you count either? Well, there's another quarter of your existence wasted. And you can't write? Well, you settle it that a good three-quarter of your life has been wasted. Just then came a crash, a rush of steam, and as the vessel sank the two found themselves struggling in the water.

Satisfactory Evidence. J. W. Graham, Wholesale Druggist, of Austin, Tex., writes:—I have been handling DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS for the past year, and have found it one of the most salable medicines I have ever had in my house for Coughs, Colds and even Consumption, always giving entire satisfaction.

That slight cold you think so little of may prove the forerunner of a complaint that may be fatal. Avoid this result by taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, the best of known remedies for colds, coughs, catarrhs, bronchitis, incipient consumption, and all other throat and lung diseases.
