The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation, of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

The matriculation and library fees and the price of board in the commons at the University of Virginia have been reduced.

An Italian vessel containing twenty tons of dynamite is lying at anchor at Gibraltar. She is detained on account of irregularity in her papers.

Reports from the Spanish Honduras state that owing to the blowing down of the most of the banana stalks thereby gales in December last, but little fruit is expected there this season.

The proprietor of the Paxton Hotel, at Omaha, has drilled his dining-room waiters in the use of roller skates, and they are now so skillful that waits between courses have been greatly lessened.

The continued drunkenness and bawling of Binns, the public hangman of England, has given rise to a movement in favor of some other mode of taking a murderer's life than by the gallows.

The New Haven News has forbidden its legislative reporter to accept the gift of $200 voted by the Connecticut Legislature, and says it wants no subsidy from the State for doing its duty to the public as a newspaper.

Charles Pearsall, a young man in New York, finished recently the task of eating three hundred eggs in five days.
He won a wager of twenty-five dollars, and now claims to be the champion egg eater of New York.

The survivors of the old Massachusetts Sixth Regiment, which "went through Baltimore," are to hold their reunion this year in Worcester on Saturday, 19th inst., the twenty-third anniversary of their memorable passage through the Plug Ugly city.

The New York Senate has passed the bill requiring telegraph, telephone and electric light wires and cables to be placed underground before November, 1885, in the cities of the State having more than 500,000 inhabitants; that is to say, in New York and Brooklyn.

It is noticeable that while the Republicans made gains in several of the Ohio cities at the municipal elections on Monday they lost largely in Springfield, the home of J. Warren Keifer.
This is doubtless the first instalment of that "vindication" from the unanimous conclusions of two investigating committees which the ex-Speaker is said to be expecting at the hands of his constituents.

Whatever other people may think, Mr. Logan is a firm believer in her husband. She says that although, he makes occasional lapses in syntax he really is an accomplished gentleman, with a good knowledge of French, German and Italian, and she asserts that he even speaks Greek with much fluency. And he was born before the high pressure system of education came into fashion, too.

Letters from Capt. Eads, now in London, give assurance that there is a good prospect of securing the mammoth steamer Great Eastern to bring to New Orleans the European exhibits for the great exposition there. The steamer will be used while there, during the exposition, as a hotel; and when the exposition closes will carry a return cargo to England.

John McDowell, president of the Wood Growers' Association of Pennsylvania, has issued a call for a special mass convention of the association to be held in Pittsburgh on April 17 and 18. The design is to arouse special enthusiasm in regard to the subject of wool growing throughout the state prior to the national convention to be held in Chicago on May 19.

A very remarkable man died in Baltimore on Tuesday last. It was the veteran comptroller, Joshua Vansant.
The old gentleman was celebrated for his strict integrity, but his chief fame rests upon the fact that he built the magnificent City Hall, the most attractive building in Baltimore, and kept the most inside the original estimate. Not only this, but there was a remnant of money left over from the last appropriation when the building was finished and this he returned to the treasury.
Nothing like this ever happened before or since in the United States.

Mr. Gladstone recently gave an illustration of the methods of faggot vote manufacturing in Scotland. He said:

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VIII.

WILMINGTON, N. C., MONDAY, APRIL 14, 1884.

NO. 89

"I have in my possession a photograph of a hereditament of a single structure, not very imposing in itself, occupied by a single person, and conferring one occupation franchise, but held by forty-five owners, every one of whom stands upon the register in virtue of his forty-fifth part of this building, which only qualifies a single voter." The building, it is said, is at Parson's Green in Midlothian.

Charles Reade, the novelist, died on Friday evening. He was born at Ipsden, Oxfordshire, in 1814; graduated at Magdalen College, Oxford, in 1835; was called to the bar in 1843, but soon after gave his attention wholly to literature, and in 1847 received the degree of D. C. L. from his university.
His style of writing was characterized by great terseness and vigor and by a wealth of incident which few writers have possessed, and won him a rank among the foremost novelists of the age. Among the best known of his later works are "Hard Cash," "A Terrible Temptation," "Put Yourself in His Place," and "Foul Play."

A minister, in Lowell, Mass. has been obliged to give up preaching on account of trouble in his throat. It is said the reverend gentleman had taken Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup he would still be found a useful member of his profession.

o'clock.

Oakdale had a deserted appearance yesterday afternoon as compared with previous Sundays, a very few having resorted there during the day.

We invite the attention of our citizens to the fact that first quality shirts are being made to order at one dollar at the Wilmington Shirt Factory.

April thus far has been a rather disagreeable month. It has been either too dry, windy and dusty for comfort or it has been so cold and damp as to be disagreeable.

There were large congregations at the First Baptist church yesterday and last night, and a lively interest in spiritual affairs is being developed. The sermon last night was forceful, logical and effective.

Some repairs are to be made to the fire alarm in the city to-morrow and the citizens are notified by Captain Myers, Chief of the Fire Department, that the ringing of the bell between the hours of 10 and 12 o'clock to-morrow must not be taken as an alarm of fire.

The Season at Smithville.

A letter from Mr. Sublett, Manager of the Hotel Brunswick, to the editor of this paper, tells us that the outlook for an excellent season at the seaside, as developed by his travels thus far, is very good. He was at Charlotte on Saturday and he writes us that there will be two grand military encampments at Smithville this Summer, one by the Marion company and the other by the Sumter Light Infantry.

Death of Mr. Fred Worth.

News was received here to-day of the death at Asheville, this morning, of Mr. Fred Worth, son of the late Dr. T. C. Worth, formerly of this city, and a near relative of the gentlemen of that name resident here now.
Mr. Worth was about 25 years of age and his death was rather sudden. He was taken sick last Thursday evening with the cramp colic and died this morning, a little more than three days after his attack.

Interesting to Fishermen: The celebrated "Fish" Brand Gilling thread is old only at JACOBS'. He is the Im-porter's Agent.

City Court.

There were four cases of disorderly conduct for the Mayor's consideration this morning, two of which were discharged, and two were fined $2 each.
We suppress names by request.

William Thomas, colored, for assault and battery upon a woman, was fined $5, in default of which he was sent below.

James Richardson, colored, charged with larceny, and David Hill, colored, charged with receiving stolen goods, had their cases continued until Monday next, the 21st inst.

Children's Choral Service.

The choral service by the children connected with the Sunday School of St.
John's Church, yesterday afternoon, was an interesting and extremely pleasant affair. For a considerable time before the hour appointed for the service to commence, citizens of both sexes and almost all ages, began to flock to the church and fill the pews reserved for the accommodation of the public, so that when the hour of 4 o'clock arrived every seat was occupied and many were constrained to stand in the aisles. At the appointed hour the teachers and children marched up the centre aisle of the church and took possession of the pews which had been reserved for them. The programme for the occasion was carried out in full and the music, under the skillful management and direction of Mrs. M. P. Taylor, assisted by Messrs. Munson and Smith, first and second violins, and Willson and Schloss, first and second cornets, was grand and beautiful. The voices of the children showed careful training, both in time and tune, and they rendered the pieces selected for the occasion with exquisite taste.

Failed to Meet.

The Charlotte Observer has this to say of the meeting which was proposed to be held in that city looking to the extension of the Carolina Central R. R. to Spartanburg, which it seems did not take place:

The proposed meeting of the Spartanburg & Laurens and Carolina Central Railroad men, which was so extensively advertised in the papers to be held in Charlotte on the 11th, was a failure.
Connection was missed somewhere.
There was not a single man in the city yesterday who even looked like he might be a railroad man, and nobody at all could tell anything about the proposed meeting. That it was the intention of those men to have met in Charlotte yesterday there can be no doubt, as it was announced in the Baltimore, Augusta, Atlanta and Charleston papers. Parties from Spartanburg and Augusta were in the city yesterday to attend the meeting, but finding there was nobody here to hold one, they left on the afternoon train. There is some mystery about the affair. Just why these railroad men announced that they were to meet in Charlotte and then failed to do so without letting any reason be known is perhaps none of our business, but then we would like to know, simply as a matter of curiosity.

A Word to Farmers.

We would suggest that, in view of the approaching State Exposition, the farmers of New Hanover devote some attention to the culture of jute, hemp and sugar cane. The climate here is favorable and in many places the soil is peculiarly well adapted to the growth of these products. It is not yet too late to obtain the seed and plant a crop of either of them, but there is no time to lose. Duplin and Sampson counties are devoting much attention to the growth of these articles and will make a fine display, especially in sugar cane and its varied products. Jute can undoubtedly be cultivated successfully and profitably, while it was demonstrated many years ago that hemp could be grown abundantly. One of the first settlers of Duplin county (then a part of New Hanover) was Mr. Boney, who was a ropemaker and did quite an extensive business in the manufacture of rope and cordage. He owned a large tract of land upon which he raised the hemp that he manufactured. We ought to make an excellent display from this county and our farmers can do as much as any class of our citizens towards making it complete and creditable.

There was a match game of baseball played on Saturday afternoon, at what is known as "Wright's Field," between the "Pacific," Capt. Norwood J.
Smith, and "Little Star," Capt. S.
Vick, two juvenile nines of this city.
The score stood "Little Star," 41; "Pacific," 23.

Mr. Murdock Mackenzie, Highlands, Carleton county, New Brunswick, testifies that St. Jacobs Oil, the great pain-cure, completely cured him of acute rheumatism of long standing, and also his wife of face neuralgia and toothache.

The Leading Clothing House!

OF WILMINGTON!

THE CLAIM SO FREQUENTLY MADE BY US OF THE SUPERIORITY OF OUR CLOTHING and the difference in prices usually charged by other houses, is now generally conceded by our patrons and the public.

No matter what others may show or quote prices for, we will guarantee to save you money and give you better goods for the money. In other words, to make profits is not our main object, but a growing trade and a very small margin is all we ask or desire, the consumer reaping the benefits of our just method of doing business.

Death of a Good Woman.

Mrs. Sarah Grissom died at Smithville last night, aged about 65 years. In her death the citizens of that town suffer the loss of a most estimable Christian woman, whose unostentatious acts of mercy and kindness to all with whom she became associated will be long and tenderly remembered by her large circle of relatives and acquaintances. She was a consistent and conscientious member of the M. E. Church at Smithville, with which she connected herself many years ago. The deceased had been in declining health for several months, with no prospects of a recovery, and death came as a release from suffering.

Oakdale Cemetery.

We are again requested to call attention to the fact that no one, man woman or child, is allowed to pick and carry off flowers from Oakdale Cemetery. This is a stringent rule and will be enforced. There is a penalty allowed by law for its infringement. It will be well for all to remember this.
There are excellent reasons why this rule should be observed as all will see at a glance. The place is sacred, the plants contained in the lots are private property and those in the grounds are the property of the corporation, and it is wrong to remove even a blade of grass without the express permission of the owner.

Silver Plated Spoons, Forks and Knives of best quality, and at manufacturer's prices, can be found at JA-COB'S Hardware Depot.

Now is the time to give Smith's Worm Oil.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

At a called meeting of the Directors of the Wilmington Library Association, held at the Library Rooms April 12th, 1884, the following resolutions were adopted: WHEREAS, This Association has sustained a heavy loss in the death of our associate and late President, ALEXANDER SPRUNT; whose interest and untiring work in behalf of the Association have added greatly to its success, and in view of the still heavier loss sustained by those who were nearest and dearest to him; therefore be it Resolved, That it is but a just tribute to the memory of the departed to say that in regretting his removal from our midst, we mourn for one who was in every way worthy of our respect and regard; a citizen whose upright and noble life was a standard of emulation to his fellows.
Resolved, That we sincerely condole with the family of the deceased on the dispensation with which it has pleased Divine Providence to afflict them, and commend them for consolation to Him who orders all things for the best, and whose chastisements are meant in mercy.
Resolved, That this heartfelt testimonial of our sympathy and sorrow be forwarded to the family of our departed friend by the secretary of this meeting.
