The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Mr. Vanderbilt has paid $4,000 for a box at the Abbey benefit.
Mr. Beecher thinks that the third term business was settled in 1880. Mr. Beecher is right.
President Athur has a cracker and a cup of coffee for breakfast, between nine and ten, and after that he eats scarcely anything until dinner at eight. The dinner is always good.
The New York Times says that neither party in the country commands a majority of the people. The election must, therefore, be settled by the independent men who are not in bonds to either party. But the New York Times is not infallible.
The most crushing objection thus far recorded to the scheme for converting the Sahara into a sea has just dropped from the pen of a statistician, who calculates that a canal 100 feet wide and 25 feet deep, with a flow of four miles an hour, would require several thousand years to flood the desert.

Rochester Herald: Mr. Blaine would unquestionably be defeated in the State of New York if he should become the Republican candidate for President. Two powerful elements in his own party would be arrayed against him, and it is doubtful if he would command even their votes, not to speak of their active sympathy and assistance during the campaign.
Ex-Secretary Robeson is making a strong fight for a Blaine delegation from New Jersey. Mr. Robeson wants to go as a delegate to the Chicago Convention, where he proposes to make "the greatest effort" of his life in seconding the nomination of Mr. Blaine. Should Blaine be nominated and elected, it is understood Mr. Robeson expects to secure the naval portfolio.

"Rev." W. A. T. Smith, colored, in jail at New London, Conn., awaiting trial for swindling under the pretence of being an African missionary, has made a confession, in which he said he was never authorized as a missionary, but made a good living by his many false representations. He has been in the swindling business for ten years and used all the money for himself.

Asthetic London is paying a pilgrimage to the bridal dress of the future Mrs. Oscar Wilde. The shrine where the nuptial garment is exhibited is the show-room of a fashionable French dressmaker in Regent street. The dress is saffron-hued, the color worn by Greek maidens on their marriage day, and is adorned with pale violet trimmings, which Hellenic brides would probably hardly countenance. Miss Lloyd's headgear will be of snuff-colors.
Capt. Arthur E. Spitzer, of Richmond, Va., adjutant of Robert E. Lee Camp No. 1, Confederate Veterans, arrived in Boston on Friday with Gen. James O'Brien, of New York, to secure the co-operation of Union soldiers and sailors in raising funds for a home for Confederate soldiers in Richmond. A public meeting will be held in Boston in furtherance of the plan.

The proprietor of a widely-advertised patent medicine recently made an offer to the postoffice department to pay the Government $30,000 a year for the privilege of having a small advertisement placed on the margins of the sheets of postage stamps—on the part which is torn off when the stamps are used. The offer was declined on the ground that it would be contrary to law.
Senator Sherman may as well shut up—or throw up, for they say he is deathly sick of the whole business—that Danville investigation. Senator Vance stands ready to prove that his principal witness, Sims, is a thief, as he has already proved him a liar. Yesterday John S. Wise spoke of introducing testimony to impeach Vance's character and you may be sure that there was a scene and that Vance did not mince his words. Should Wise attempt this it will be the worst job he ever handled.
Mr. W. W. Sheed, 1110 Maryland avenue, Washington, D. C., says: the effects of St. Jacobs Oil, in the cure of neuralgia, is the most wonderful that ever came under his notice. It is magical.
Interesting to Fishermen: The celebrated "Fish" Brand Gillnet thread is old only at Jacob's. He is the Importer's Agent.

After the storm of wind and rain of yesterday, this morning's sun was delightful and refreshing.
Rev. Alexander Sprunt will preach to-night at the Second Presbyterian Church, services beginning at 8 o'clock.
The maximum velocity of wind here yesterday was 28 miles per hour. It blew at about the same rate at Smithville.
The "mite party" connected with the Second Presbyterian Church will meet at 8 o'clock to-morrow night at No. 316 North Second street.
We invite the attention of our citizens to the fact that first quality shirts are being made to order at one dollar at the Wilmington Shirt Factory.

The storm signal, which was hoisted yesterday and which floated in the breeze for awhile this morning, was hauled down at about 9 o'clock this forenoon.
Two juvenile baseball clubs, the "Never Fail," Captain R. Williams, and the "Jolly Nine," Captain H. Perdue, played a match game yesterday afternoon, on Fourth street, between Red Cross and Campbell. The former was the winner in a score of 15, against 11 by the latter.
City Court.
There were two cases of disorderly conduct before the Mayor this morning which were settled.
James Bell, for an affray, was fined $3.

Military Courtesies.

The Wilmington Light Infantry will parade on Memorial Day—the 10th of May—and have invited the Smithville Guards to join them in the parade and be their guests at the Parcell House during the day when not on duty. We are glad the invitation has been extended and hope that it will be accepted as the presence of a military company from abroad will add interest to the occasion.

Exports Foreign.

Nor. barquo Frey, Halyersen, cleared to-day for Garston with 500 casks sprits turpentine and 1,673 barrels rosia, valued at $10,010, shipped by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son. Norbarque Nordenskjold, Abrahamson, cleared for Montevideo with 209,900 feet lumber and 6 boxes tobacco, valued at $3,805.43, shipped by Messrs. E. Kidder & Son, making a total of exports foreign amounting to $13,815.43.

Personal.

Mr. John R. London, of Rock Hill, S. C., and Mrs. London arrived here this morning as the guests of Mr. F. J. Lord.

Mr. Robert Savage, second son of the late Col. Robert Savage, is in the city to-day. He is a candidate for holy orders in the Episcopal Church and will be ordained in St. James, on Sunday next.

Mr. E. J. Hale, editor of the Fayetteville Observer, is in the city, accompanied by Mrs. Hale. They are the guests of Mr. Edward Kidder.

Maj. Stedman.

We notice almost every day an endorsement from some one or another of our brethren of the State press of Maj. Chas. M. Stedman for nomination as Lieut-Governor by the next Democratic Convention. By this it would appear that Maj. Stedman stands an excellent chance of securing this nomination, should he desire it. If he should get it he will be elected, for we have an abiding faith in the triumph of the Democratic party in the next election. Maj. Stedman—and we say this in no disparagement of the claims or merits of others—would fill most admirably the position. His nomination and election would be a great compliment and benefit to the people of Wilmington and the Cape Fear section.

The Happy Bells.

Rev. Samuel Hall Chester, of Mebaneville, N. C., and Miss Susie Weir Willard, daughter of Mr. A. A. Willard, of this city, were united in marriage last night in the First Presbyterian Church, by the Pastor, Rev. Jbs. R. Wilson, D. D. The ceremony took place at 9 o'clock and it was witnessed by a very large congregation, the church having been crowded. At its conclusion the wedding party all repaired to the residence of the bride's father where a reception was held to which a great many of the friends of the happy couple repaired. The wedding presents, we understand, were both costly and numerous. Mr. Chester and his beautiful bride have gone on a tour North.

Summer Cities.

We received a hurried visit, a few days since, from our friend, Capt. John T. Patrick, State Commissioner of Immigration. While with us Capt. Patrick exhibited to us the plan of the new Summer resort which has recently been located by him near Manly, in Monroe county. It is said to be one of the most beautiful and salubrious spots to be found anywhere in the State. It is directly on the line of the R. & A. Air Line R. R., and is called "Vineland City." There are in the tract 800 acres of a moderately rolling character, and supplied liberally with pure water. It is on the top of the watershed and is at an elevation of 600 feet above the sea level, which makes it higher than either Raleigh or Wadesboro. A beautiful park has been laid out and this is to be supplied with fountains and lakes. Capt. Patrick hopes to have it peopled largely by people from the North, as a Summer residence, and already several residences have been erected.
Capt. Patrick also tells us that he proposes to lay out another Summer city on the coast, probably not far from Wilmington. This will be made attraction in the Winter as well, for those who come South to hunt and fish during that season. His plans in this respect are not yet fully developed, but soon will be.

Now is the time to give Smith's Worm Oil.

Mr. J. R. Marshall had a fine swarm of bees to-day, about 10,000, and hived them successfully. The first of the season.

Bishop Watson.

A public reception having been tendered the Rev. Dr. Watson after he shall have been consecrated Bishop of East Carolina, he will be pleased to meet all who desire to call on him at the Rooms of the Wilmington Library Association to-morrow afternoon, from 4 to 6 o'clock, and to-morrow evening from 8 to 10 o'clock. The visiting Bishops and clergy will also be present and the opportunity of meeting them may be had at the same time.

Cure for Colds.

A new prescription for colds is now being furnished by the young ladies to young gentlemen who are suffering from that malady. One gave it to a sufferer thusly: "Take a quantity of good whiskey in the palm of the hand and inhale the odor through the nostrils." She said "the cure is certain, sir—if you can succeed in getting the whiskey past your mouth."

The Quintette Club.

Our music-loving citizens will have a rich treat at the Opera House next Monday night, at which time the famous Mendelssohn Quintette Club, of Boston, will appear accompanied by Madame Cora Grese as the vocal soloist. Of this Club the Cincinnati Commercial says:

The audience is first impressed with the quiet demeanor and dignified bearing of the performers. They enter in the quietest possible manner, and commence the work before them as if moved by one pervading, harmonious and controlling spirit. Whether this lurks in the eyes of the first violin or is inborn with all, it would be difficult to say; perhaps it is the result of long years of discipline and association under the pervading idea of success which must not only be won, but maintained; but however it comes, it certainly exists, and the delighted auditor sits spell-bound by the soft enchantment.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

At a meeting of the United Society of St. George and St. Andrew, held April 14th, 1884, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:
WHEREAS, it has pleased Almighty God to remove from this world, ALEXANDER SPRUNT, late President of the St. George and St. Andrew's Society, of North Carolina, who recognized the many and devoted services rendered to their Association by their first and continuing President, mourn with unforgotten sincerity the removal of one so worthy of their respect and affection.
Resolved, That the death of Mr. Alexander Sprunt has inflicted upon us a severe loss; and in council, eminently charitable and sympathetic, he fully carried out the views of the Society in extending sympathy and succor to our distressed countrymen. A true Scot, a noble man and a true, devoted servant of his God, he has passed, full of years and honors, to that rest which remaineth for the people of God.
Resolved, That the members of this Society wear the badge of mourning on the left arm for thirty days, in memory of our late President.
ORDERED, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased; also, that they be spread upon our minutes and a blank page inscribed with his name, the dates of his birth and death and the duration of his Presidency.
