

The Daily Review.

JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor & Prop. WILMINGTON, N. C.

SATURDAY, APRIL 19, 1884.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., as second-class matter.

We yield much of our editorial space to-day to the publication in full, as extracted from the News and Observer, of the proceedings of the State Democratic Convention, in session at Raleigh on Wednesday. We call especial attention to the resolutions introduced by Mr. Galloway, which look to a repeal of the Internal Revenue system—not its modification, mind you but its absolute abolition—and these we commend to the careful and prayerful consideration of some of our neighbors. These resolutions should have been published on yesterday but were forced over until to-day.

The News and Observer furnishes us with the following very interesting sketch of the newly elected chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee. It says:

The election of Mr. Richard H. Battle to the chairmanship of the Democratic executive committee, in the place of Capt. Coke, is a fitting acknowledgment of the political services long performed by that estimable gentleman. Mr. Battle has been a member of the committee for fourteen years continuously, having been appointed in 1870, since which date he has zealously discharged every duty imposed on him by the committee or by the party. During these long years there has been no one on the committee or outside of it who has been more earnest, more constant, more true in his devotion to the cause of our party than the gentleman whose merit has been so appropriately acknowledged by the executive committee.

Mr. Battle was born at Louisburg December 31, 1835; graduated at the University of North Carolina in 1854 with first honors, and then served as tutor of mathematics and of Greek successively for four years.

In 1858 he began the practice of the law at Wadesboro, where he remained until the outbreak of the war, when he entered the army as first lieutenant Company I, 43d Regiment. Subsequently falling into bad health, he accepted an invitation to act as private secretary to Gov. Vance, who had been elected Governor in 1862. He retained this office until 1864, when he was appointed State Auditor.

Mr. Battle possesses the full confidence and esteem of the Democrats of Wake county, and though never an aspirant for office, he was nominated for the lower House in 1872; for the constitutional convention in 1875, and for the Senate in 1880. He has always entered actively and zealously into each canvass, and has invariably done his whole duty in each campaign. Quiet and unobtrusive, he is yet firm and self-reliant and he unites prudence with boldness, moderation with tenacity of opinion in a very unusual degree. He is an able lawyer, a wise counsellor and a strong party man. In a word we may say that his appointment will certainly give great satisfaction to the party in the State, and that the high trust of being at the head of our party organization could not have been more worthily or more appropriately bestowed.

STATE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE.

Pursuant to the call of the central executive committee, the State executive committee of the Democratic party met this day. At noon the chairman, Capt. O. J. Yates, called the committee to order. The following members were found to be present:

- Messrs. R. H. Battle, George H. Suow and J. J. Litchford, of the central executive committee. First district—Harry Skinner, of Pitt. Second district—A. J. Galloway, of Wayne. Third district—H. B. Short, Jr., of Columbus. Fourth district—J. S. Battle, of Nash. Fifth district—A. E. Henderson, of Caswell; M. S. Robins, of Randolph. Sixth district—J. D. Shaw, of Richmond; W. J. Yates, of Mecklenburg. Seventh district—W. B. Glenn, of Forsyth. Eighth district—Jordan Stone, proxy for R. M. Furman, of Buncombe.

Mr. R. H. Battle, of Halifax, represented as proxy S. J. Pemberton, of the sixth district. E. R. Stamps represented Mr. Charles M. Busbee of the central committee and Mr. John D. Stanford, of the third district.

St. Gov. J. L. Robinson, of Macon, and Maj. S. M. Finger, of Catawba, being in the city, were invited to seats in the meeting.

The appointments made by the central committee, of Harry Skinner of the first district and John D. Stanford of the third district, to fill vacancies were ratified and confirmed by the committee.

At this stage of the proceedings the chairman, Capt. Coke, called Mr. W. J. Yates to the chair, and in an appropriate speech tendered his resignation as chairman of this committee and then retired.

Mr. W. B. Glenn offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this committee duly and highly appreciate the able, honest and efficient services of the Hon. Octavius Coke, chairman of the State executive committee, and his resignation as such chairman be not accepted; that they fully recognize the fact that he has made efforts for the party which have been successful, and that his personal sacrifices for the party have been such as to entitle him to the gratitude of the Democratic party of the State.

militee to accept his resignation, giving the reasons that influenced him, and stating that he was ready and willing to aid in any and all legitimate ways the objects of the committee. The committee then accepted the resignation. Mr. R. H. Battle was unanimously elected to fill the vacancy and assumed the duties of the chair.

On motion, Wednesday, the 25th day of June, was fixed for the meeting of the State convention, and Raleigh designated as the place of holding the same.

The following resolutions, offered by Mr. Galloway, of Wayne, were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That individually and as a committee we heartily approve the plank in the platform of the Democratic party advocating the abolition of the internal revenue system of the general government as onerous and oppressive to the people of the State.

Resolved, That the people of North Carolina are too enlightened to be deceived by the pretended claim of the coalition and Republican parties of this State to desire a repeal of this system. They asserted in their platform and maintained upon the canvass two years ago the justice of continuing said system, and their sudden announcement of an opposite policy is a recognition of the validity and justice of the position of the Democratic party upon this great question.

The resignation of Col. L. D. Stephenson, of Wake, as a member of the central executive committee, was tendered. It was accepted, and R. G. Dunn, Esq., was chosen to fill the vacancy.

The following resolution, offered by Mr. W. B. Glenn, was adopted:

Resolved, That it be recommended to the county conventions that when they meet to send delegates to the State convention they also appoint delegates to attend a congressional convention of the districts as now constituted to be held at the same time and place with the State convention, for the purpose of organization in the congressional districts, and also to elect delegates from said districts to the national convention.

It was understood and announced that the congressional conventions alluded to in the above resolution, are solely for purposes of organization and electing delegates to the national Democratic convention, and not for nominating candidates for Congress.

APRIL ANTICS.

As somewhat of an inducement to amateurs we take this method of announcing that everyone sending us a poem on "Spring" this year will receive a pound of colored tissue paper. Now is the time to get up clubs.—Chicago News.

A loving father at Clayton, N. Y., in his anxiety to marry off his daughters (fifteen in number) as quick as possible, has killed his dog, taken the locks off his doors, and hung rope ladders over his doorway in the dozen, and still his provision bill is as large as ever. Bismarck Tribune.

The pleasurable part: An Austin man, who has just got out a book of poems, met Gilboody, and the following proceedings were had: "Did you read my new book?" "On yes, I read it." "How did you like it?" "My dear sir, I assure you that I laid it aside with a great deal of pleasure." Texas Siftings.

"It you don't marry me," he exclaimed, "I'll take myself out of this hated world and I'll haunt you as long as you live!" Said she: "It will be more respectable than your present haunts. Please stand a little further off. I never could bear the smell of alcohol so soon after tea." Boston Transcript.

Rescued from Death. William J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with BLEEDING OF LUNGS followed by a severe cough. I lost my appetite and flesh, and was confined to my bed. In 1877 I was admitted to the Hospital. The doctors said I had a hole in my lungs big as a half dollar. At one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of DR. WILLIAM HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I got a bottle, when, to my surprise, I commenced to feel better, and to-day I feel better than for three years past."

Savannah, Ga. "My son was entirely cured of nervous prostration and stricture of the urethra by means of Warner's Safe Cure." A. A. WALKER, Eufaula, Ala. Times and News.

"I am a miracle to all those who "know what terrible condition I have "been in and all through the power of "Warner's Safe Cure." Mrs. M. C. LAVELL, Hempstead, Texas.

"Warner's Safe Cure is an excellent "medicine, and beyond all question has "greatly benefited my children, particularly my son." REV. W. W. PATRICK, Editor North Texas Churchman, Fort Worth, Texas.

"Twenty years ago I was discharged "from the army for consumption. I "had a wretched cough, great pains in the lungs and several hemorrhages. "My physician gave me up and I began using Warner's Safe Cure, which "to my amazement has restored me to "health. It seems almost a miracle." Enterprize, Miss. A. A. FOWLER.

"I have been a sufferer from Bright's "disease. My limbs were swollen to "an enormous size, and dropsy set in. "I passed a great amount of urine and "my life was full of misery. I went "to Hot Springs and engaged the best "of medical skill but all failing I began "the use of Warner's Safe Cure, and "after the use of 12 bottles I am a well "man." NICOLAUS MANGER, County Treasurer, New Braunfels, Texas.

"I wish I had the capacity to do just- "ice to the value of Warner's Safe "Cure. Everybody who is affected "with kidney or liver trouble or al- "most any disease flesh is heir to "should use it. It surpasses anything "ever introduced for ladies troubles. I "have taken over 70 bottles, and my "wife and daughter have been restor- "ed to health through its use." W. W. MANNING, Ocean House, Portsmouth, Va.

"My health is now excellent, but in "the summer of 1882, when I was mak- "ing a canvass for appellate clerk, my "health and strength gave way. I had "great lassitude with pain in the re- "gion of the kidneys, and it was al- "most impossible to rally after any ef- "fort. At this time my wife induced "me to use Warner's Safe Cure, and "to my great delight and marked satis- "faction, I was restored to health and "have remained so to this day. All the "difficulties I complained of have dis- "appeared and I give the credit wholly "to the Safe Cure." RICHARD T. JACOB, Ex-Lieutenant Governor, Westport, Ky.

"For nearly a year I was troubled "with extreme wakefulness, a failure "of strength, pain in the right side and "a general breaking down of my "system. I used various reme- "dies prescribed by eminent colleagues, "but experienced no relief. My trouble "being of a desperate character, with "no relief from medical sources I con- "cluded to try Warner's Safe Cure, and "am to-day as well as I have ever been "in my life. I cordially commend it "to all who suffer from kidney or blad- "der diseases." WM. S. CLINE, M. D., Tom's Brook, Va. 27th.

Loveliest Among the Lovely is she who renews or preserves the beauty of her teeth with SOZODONT, confessedly the most effective preparation for them. Volumes of evidence might be adduced in support of its claims to public confidence, as a means of invigorating the teeth and rendering them pure, glistening and strong, and not less satisfactorily proven, is its balmy influence upon the breath.
