The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

It is said that the losses of the Cincinnati Dramatic Festival will not fall short of $35,000.

It is said that Gov. Waller, of Connecticut, is to become a partner in a New York law firm.

Senator Harrison, of Indiana, assures a New York interviewer that Blaine will head the ticket.

King Alfonso, of Spain, shows consumptive symptoms and is receiving special medical treatment.

Mrs. Mary E. Pillow, the widow of General Gideon J. Pillow, has written a life of her husband and will publish the book shortly at Memphis, Tenn.

Lisa's health is such that he will not again venture even a voyage to England, and his eyesight has been much impaired by overwork in writing music.

Henry Starke, H. A. Wheeler and Joseph Adams are the only survivors of the old Fort Dearborn garrison, who occupied the spot where Chicago has since sprung up.

A five-year old girl fell from a third-story window in Cincinnati on Friday afternoon, but a gentleman passing by saw her coming, caught her in his arms and saved her from any harm.

Miss Hu King Eog is a picturesque visitor at the sessions of the Philadelphia Methodist Conference. She is a Chinese lady, eighteen years of age and is to go back to her country as a medical missionary.

Charles Read did not make all his fortune by writing. He was successful in several speculations, and is believed to have left a much larger sum than the sum commonly named. One estimate places his fortune at $500,000.

A leading actress who had the misfortune to break one of the bones in her ankle in Portland, Oregon, during a performance recently, went through the part of Claire the next afternoon in an invalid's rolling chair, her first successful appearance on wheels.

John Swinburn has found out that five cents doubled thirty-five times would pay the national debt. The New Bedford Standard proposed to donate the first double and the Boston Globe the second. The Norfolk Virginian is willing to contribute the third and calls upon the other thirty-two doubblers to speak out. Let us pay off the national debt.

A New Yorker, 80 years of age, has amused himself at intervals for nearly half a century by compiling statistics of the complexion of women. He finds that the genuine blonde type is gradually fading away. When he made his first observation the pure blondes numbered 47 in every 100; now they have dwindled to 23.

It is said that during her latest visit to America, Patti pieced a "crazy quilt" six feet square, composed entirely of bits of plush and velvet, of which no two were alike in color, and not one larger than one of her hands. She took it home with her "to line it with swan's down, and then give it away to be raffled off at a swell charity fair."

Mrs. Lewis, the wife of the noted Dio Lewis, figures in the New York newspapers as a heroine. A tramp, finding Mrs. Lewis alone in the dwelling, walked into the diningroom and demanded that he be served with a meal like a gentleman. Mrs. Lewis ran for a revolver, leveled the weapon, seized the tramp by the ear, and propelled him into the cold, cold world.

Up to date seventy-five speeches for or against Mr. Morrison's late bill have been printed in the Record. They vary in length from half a page to fourteen pages. The longest speech was by Mr. Wood of Indiana. These seventy-five speeches cover 300 pages of the Record, equivalent to nearly two volumes of the "American Cyclopaedia."

The Housas, 2,000 of whom are to be employed in developing the Congo country in Africa, are negroes who inhabit a fertile country south of the desert of Sahara and east of the Niger river. They are great agriculturists, are large manufacturers of leather, iron and cotton cloths, have cities containing from 7,000 to 30,000 inhabitants, possess a written language and are mostly Mohammedans.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VIII. WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, MAY 23, 1884. NO. 123

Japan has at present 155 miles of railroad—from Yohobama to Tokio, eighteen miles; Keke to Otsu, fifty-eight miles; Tsongara, in the Province of Oomi, forty-one miles, and Tokio to Koumagai, thirty-eight miles. There is beside in course of construction a road to unite Maye-bashi to Tokio, a distance of eighty-one miles.

Mr. W. W. Corcoran, the millionaire banker and philanthropist of Washington, is said to be exceedingly proud of his ancestry. He glories in the fact that his father was only a poor, honest shoemaker, and he treasures the old cobbler's shop sign-board among his choicest possessions. Mr. Corcoran's health is unusually good this Spring.

The actual revenue of the Hawaiian government is declared by the Honolulu Gazette to be only $2,319,385.42. It further says, that as the country is now administered, a deficit is created of exactly $1,025,120.

Ex-Governor Bullock became so enthusiastic at the recent newspaper reporters' walking match at Atlanta, Ga., that he proposed on the spot to get up a similar contest between the ex-governors of the State.

There was no City Court this morning.

Clarendon Council, No. 67, A. L. of Honor, will meet to-night, at 8 o'clock.

The Cornet Concert Club will hold an important business meeting to-night.

We invite the attention of our citizens to the fact that first quality shirts are being made to order at one dollar at the Wilmington Shirt Factory.

Miss E. Karrer, at Exchange Corner, is constantly in receipt of new goods, fresh invoices arriving two or three times in each week. The ladies will make a note of this.

Nor. barque August, Bush, cleared to-day for Glasgow with 1,500 casks spirits turpentine and 1,389 barrels rosin, valued at $42,530, shipped by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son.

Two colored tramps, hailing from Sumter, S. C., applied for lodgings at the guard house last night. They stated this morning that they had obtained employment at the railroad, and they were discharged and told to go to work.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Geo. N. Harris, formerly of this city, but now of the Wadesboro Times, is quite sick. He was in Raleigh a few days ago and was taken sick while there and had to return to his family at Wadesboro. We trust to hear soon of his entire recovery.

If you need a real good first class cooking stove, don't fail to see the Excelsior Penn., Zeb. Vance and New Emerald, besides others. They are to be found at factory prices at JACOBI'S, who is the manufacturers' agent.

Beautiful.
The large magnolia tree in rear of the McRee house, on North Second street, is now laden with magnificent flowers and presents a most attractive and beautiful appearance. In walking along North Third street, between Market and Princess, and looking West one can obtain a fine view of the tree and its lovely blossoms.

Frustrated.
Policeman Piver was coming along Front street, from the Southern portion of the city, at 3.15 o'clock this morning and when between Dawson and Wooster streets, he saw a man at work at one of the window shutters of Mrs. Wm. Hardwicke's store. After waiting a moment the policeman hailed the man and asked what he was doing, when the latter picked up a gun which was leaning against the building and started off, cocking the piece as he went. Upon this the policeman gave chase and fired three shots from his revolver at the retreating fugitive, but without effect and the would-be thief escaped. An examination of the premises showed that he had succeeded in unfastening the shutters, and had made all ready for an entrance when he was disturbed in his work. It was a colored man.

Personal.
Hon. R. R. Bridgers has so far recovered as to be able to appear at his office regularly, but he has not yet fully recovered.

Maj. J. C. Winder, General Manager of the Carolina Central R. R. and of the Raleigh roads, is in the city to-day.

Rev. Armand DeR. Meares leaves here to-night for Indiana, where he expects to take charge of a parish in that State.

Death of Dr. Lesesne.

We are greatly grieved to learn of the fatal termination of the wound received by Dr. Chas. Lesesne at the hands of Mr. A. C. Huggins, at Jacksonville, on Tuesday last. The distressing news was conveyed in a brief telegram from Dr. E. W. Ward to his brother, Mr. G. R. Ward, of this city, received here this morning. The dispatch is dated at Jacksonville at 11.45 and merely says that Dr. Lesesne is dead and that Mr. Huggins' examination is taking place.

This unfortunate termination to a truly sad affair has excited a feeling of profound sorrow here, where both gentlemen were well-known to many. The fact that both have occupied such high positions in Onslow county and that they have been so intimately related has intensified the regrets which are felt.

Serious Shooting.

At about noon to-day two men, named respectively John Stubbs and Gallagher Brickhouse, asked permission of Mr. Woodward Howell, who keeps a store near the corner of Front and Castle streets, to go into a room in the rear part of the building. Permission was given and in a moment or two a shot was heard in the room where they had gone which was immediately followed by a cry of pain from an outhouse which stood 15 or 20 yards away. Upon hastening to the outhouse it was found that Aleck Stewart, colored, had received three serious wounds in the left hip, side and groin from as many buckshot. It seems that Mr. Howell, who keeps the store, was robbed some time ago, since which time he has kept a gun, loaded with buckshot, in his rear room, and it was this gun which had been discharged and caused the wounding of Stewart. The wounded man was conveyed to his home on Market street, where surgical attendance was summoned, but with what result we have been unable to learn.

Pleasant Episodes.

Among the very many agreeable incidents which occurred while our firemen and musicians were in Charlotte, and of which they were the special participants, there were none which exceeded the graceful courtesy and liberality of Mr. L. D. Scoville, of the Seaside Park Hotel at Wrightsville, who, before their departure for home, invited them into the Buford House, where a bountiful supply of refreshments, which had been prepared by his direction, were in waiting for them. For these courtesies Hon. A. M. Waddell returned thanks, in an appropriate speech, in behalf of the Howard Relief; Mr. L. J. Otterbourg gratefully acknowledged the courtesy in behalf of the Cornet Concert Club, and the leader, Mr. James E. Willson, who was made the recipient of an elegant silk umbrella, made a neat and appropriate speech of thanks for the entirely unexpected gift.

The question has been asked, "did the Cornet Club actually get the prize of $100 which was awarded them?" to which we make answer, that the amount, immediately upon the announcement of the award, was paid to the Treasurer of the Club—$100 in five twenty-dollar gold pieces.

While the procession was on the line of march, two carriages, each containing a lady and gentleman, became entangled and one of the wheels was broken. This frightened the horse, who attempted to run, but Prof. Munson, who was playing his level best, seeing the danger, which might result in a serious accident, sprang and caught the reins and after a short struggle succeeded in subduing the animal and rescuing the occupants from their perilous situation.

The Sunday-school at Brooklyn Hall, which has heretofore convened at 3 p. m., will on next Sunday meet at 4:30 p. m., which will be the hour during summer months and until further notice.

Now is the time to give Smith's Worm Oil.

Quick Work.

During the last week in last March ground was broken on the new Gibson Branch of the Raleigh and Augusta Air Line, which runs from Hamlet to Gibson's Store, a distance of about 11 miles, and we learn from Major Winder, the General Manager, who is in the city to-day, that the grading has been completed to within two miles of Gibson's store, that the iron has been laid on seven miles of the road and that trains will run over the entire branch by June 20th, which will be within three months of the time when the work was first commenced. The work was done under the supervision of Capt. Wm. Smith, Superintendent of the Augusta Air Line. It is thought that this road will benefit Wilmington.

Another Shooting.

At about 9 o'clock last night James E. Gause, colored, saw a boy sitting down by his pig pen near the corner of Princess and Eleventh streets and asked who it was, but received an evasive reply. Gause then struck a match and attempted to scan the boy's features when the latter threw sand in his eyes. Upon this Gause knocked the boy down and began to beat him when another boy interfered and tried to separate them. In the struggle the first boy, named Marcus Hampton, colored, drew a pistol and fired at Gause, but missed his aim and hit the other, named Henry Lane, also colored, in the shoulder. Hampton then drew a knife and cut Gause in the ear, nearly severing that member from the head. Gause then ran, followed by three shots from Hampton's pistol.

Fruit and Vegetables.

The importance of this industry is hardly realized by the general public and more especially as it relates to the supply of the Northern markets through the railroad facilities which are offered for the rapid and cheap conveyance of our products. The business of transporting what is commonly known as "truck" over our railroads for the Northern markets was begun years ago, in 1868. The annual report of the then Superintendent of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, dated October 1868, in speaking of this business, says: "The work of inaugurating this new business was commenced in April last by our regular day passenger train, and by that train alone it has been carried successfully through to the 15th of October. It was not supposed that there could be much done the first year beyond making a beginning. We have, however, transported more than twelve thousand (12,000) barrels (in bulk) of vegetables and fruit to market, which have brought back to the State not less than $100,000. If this is to be the full morning—what is to be the full noon-day of this traffic? There should be ten times as many barrels sent off the coming season—say 120,000 barrels—and ten times as much money returned for them, or $1,000,000; and all this with a comparatively small outlay. The receipts from this transportation, this year, were about $6,000, and if ten times as large next season it will reach $60,000. The receipt of $1,000,000 by people along the line for garden truck, peaches, apples, strawberries &c. &c. will greatly relieve their present depression and enable them to do much more on their plantations, at large, as well as increase this production from year to year. The cultivation of truck and fruit along our line is destined, at no distant day, to give this railroad a very large amount of transportation at very profitable rates."

The above extract gives an account of the beginning of an industry which in 16 years has reached immense proportions. The amount of this sort of traffic on our railroads has increased with each succeeding year, and it will continue to increase for many years to come and the growth of fruit and vegetable for Northern markets will be stimulated and strengthened as our people become better acquainted with the business and the best modes of preparing their products for shipment and sale. It has not reached its "noonday" yet, nor is there any probability that it will within the next 20 years.

Card of Thanks.

THE OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF THE Howard Bellot Steam Fire Engine Company, beg leave to tender to the Fire Department of Charlotte, the Chief and his Assistants, and to the former Fire Company, at whose hall they were quartered during their stay in the city, their sincere and hearty thanks for the many courtesies and kindnesses experienced at their hands during the late Celebration. The pleasant memories engendered by their kind and considerate treatment will ever be cherished in our heart of hearts. To the citizens generally we also feel deeply indebted for their efforts to make our visit a pleasant one.
