The prospects in this section for a large crop this year of watermelons and cantaloupes seem very fine just at this time, but too much rain now would play the wild with them.

Mr. Geo. M. Crapon has also had some fine peaches from his garden in this city, on Fifth street, between Ann and Nun. They were from young trees, only a few years in the ground.

The Congressional Executive Committee of the Sixth Congressional District will meet at Lumberton, Robeson county, on the 2nd day of June next. The meeting is called by Mr. Paul B. Means, Chairman of the Congressional Executive Committee of the old Sixth Congressional District.

Personal.
We are glad to see that Mr. Eugene Wiggins has so far recovered from his recent severe injuries as to be able to walk on the street again, unaided. He is on crutches yet, of course, but hopes to dispense with them in a few days.

Carolina Yacht Club.
At a meeting of the Governing Board of the Carolina Yacht Club, held last night, the following committees were appointed:
Regatta Committee—Jno. J. Fowler, G. Herbert Smith, A. H. Greene.
On Membership—A. R. Campbell, Albert Gore, E. G. Barker.
Resolutions were adopted looking to improvements of the new Banks house, which is to be securely fenced in, with a man placed in charge who will be ready at all times to serve members of the club.

If you need a real good first class cooking stove, don't fail to see the Excelsior Penn., Zeb. Vance and New Emerald, besides others. They are to be found at factory prices at JACOBI'S, who is the manufacturers' agent.

Pleasure Expected.
It will be seen by advertisement that the Organ Fund Association of the Front Street M. E. Church have one of their entertainmen's to-morrow (Thursday) night at the residence of Col. C. L. Grafflin, Third and Walnut streets. They will have both vocal and instrumental music in their selection, choice; also cream and strawberries to tempt the palate, which will be served on the lawn, which is such a thing of beauty upon the premises. There will be in connection with what is already noted, a new feature which can only be appreciated by witnessing it. This may be the last one of the season.

The largest and best stock of Windows, Doors, Blinds &c., and at Factory prices is at N. Jacobi's Hardware Depot.

Auction Sales.

At the sale of real estate and bank stock at auction to-day, by Messrs. Cronly & Morris, the lot on Gwynn street brought $115, and 10 shares of the stock of the Bank of New Hanover were sold for $112 per share. The rest of the real estate and the balance of the bank stock were withdrawn.

Hail Storm.

There was quite a severe hail storm yesterday afternoon in some portions of Pender county. At Mr. Jesse Bowden's place, about six miles from Rocky Point depot, the hail was very severe and did great damage to his young and growing crops. His corn, which was looking and growing finely previous to the storm, was stripped of its leaves and almost ruined by the violence of the hail. Other planters suffered more or less, but Mr. Bowden seems to have been the greatest loser.

Joint Meeting.

Capt. John Cowan, Secretary of the Board of Justices of the Peace for New Hanover county, gives notice in this issue that a meeting of the Board will be held on Monday next, in conjunction with the Board of County Commissioners, for the purpose of levying taxes for the current year and for the election of a Board of County Commissioners. They will also meet with the Board of Education for the election of a Superintendent of Public Instruction for the County.

Southern Historical Papers.

The May number of this magazine is before us. Its contents are as follows: "Reconstruction in S. C.," by Prof. F. A. Porcher; "Story of the Arkansas," (concluded) by George W. Gift; "Letters from Fort Sumter," by Lt. Iredell Jones; "Diary of Rev. J. G. Law;" "Chickamauga," a reply to Maj. Sykes, by James A. Goggin, A. A. General McLaws' Division; "Report of Gen. E. W. Pettus of Operations at Lookout Mountain;" "Battle of Drewry's Bluff, May 16, 1864," Reports of Gens. R. F. Hoke and Johnson Hagood; "Wolsley's tribute to Lee and Jackson;" "The Burning of Columbia," affidavit of Mrs. Agnes Law; "The Blue and the Grey," a poem by Rev. J. G. Walker, and "The Electric History"—a Review, by Col. Mm. Allan.

Vegetables and Berries.

Vegetables are in excellent supply now and some varieties are very cheap. Green peas go begging at 10 cents per peck. They are worth but 90 cents a bushel in New York, and it doesn't pay to ship them there or to haul them here either. Some of the truckers said this morning that they would bring in no more of them but would feed them to their hogs. Beets—and beautiful beets they are—sell for 10 cents a bunch for the best; the best cabbages may be brought for 10 cents; onions are 5 cents a bunch; cauliflower brings 10 cents a head; snap beans sell for 40 cents a peck and small cucumbers, "nubbins," bring 20 cents a dozen. There is no green corn yet in market but it will probably make its first appearance in a few days. Blackberries are becoming plentiful at 5 cents a quart, strawberries sell "two quarts for a quarter," and huckleberries sell for the same price.

The Congressional Districts.

In compliance with the requests of a number of readers we publish here with the new Congressional apportionment in this State. New Hanover is now in the Sixth district, whereas she was formerly in the Third:

ONSLow RAILROAD.

Enthusiastic Meeting—Cheerful Prospects—Earnest Work.

In accordance with previous announcement, a meeting was held at the City Court room this noon to take into consideration the feasibility and importance of a railroad from this city to some point on New River, in Onslow county. The meeting was well attended, many of our most prominent business men, as well as representatives from Pender and Onslow counties, being present. Mayor E. D. Hall was called to the Chair and Messrs. C. H. Robinson and T. D. Meares were requested to act as secretaries.

Upon taking the Chair, Mayor Hall stated the object of the meeting in a speech full of pith and point. He dwelt at considerable length upon the immense resources of the country through which the proposed road would pass, and the vital importance of the enterprise to the commercial and financial prosperity of Wilmington and urged immediate and energetic action to accomplish such a desirable result.

At the conclusion of the Mayor's address, Mr. C. W. McClammy, of Pender county, addressed the meeting in a speech of considerable length. He spoke of the almost limitless resources of Pender and Onslow which were now lying dormant for want of market facilities, but which a line of railroad leading to New River would develop. He said that the distance from Wilmington to Sneed's Ferry, in Onslow county, was about 40 miles, and that by the proposed route about 15 miles of the distance would be in Pender. For this distance he pledged the right of way for the railroad free of cost and that the property owners through whose lands the road would pass in that county would subscribe to an amount of stock sufficient to grade and cross the same. The people of his section of Pender were in earnest and all they wanted to know was that Onslow and New Hanover were in earnest. His remarks were forceful and logical and had much influence with the meeting.

Col. Roger Moore then addressed the meeting and assured the people of Pender that Wilmington was in earnest—meant business—and would do her whole duty in carrying the enterprise to a successful result. He suggested that when the meeting adjourned that it should be to some day when the report of the committee on survey, which was appointed at a previous meeting, should be ready, so that action could be taken upon some tangible and real data.

Mr. B. G. Worth, in reply to a question from Major C. W. McClammy, guaranteed the money to pay for the necessary survey.

The venerable Mr. O. G. Parsley, Sr., then addressed the meeting in a speech of considerable length and of great practical value, which was listened to with profound attention and interest. He is a native of Onslow, is well acquainted with all its territory and demonstrated the value and importance of the enterprise as a means by which the boundless resources of that fertile section could be poured into the lap of Wilmington to the profit and advantage of all. He urged action—immediate and energetic action—illustrating his argument by stating that, when the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad was projected, he, as a clerk upon $300 a year salary, subscribed for more stock than all his possessions would have brought if put upon the market, yet such was the advantage of the investment that in less than three years his income was more than trebled.

Mayor Hall then made a speech, in which he paid a glowing tribute to the financial foresight of Mr. Parsley and others of that time, who, by their energy, tact and courage, had done so much for the growth and prosperity of Wilmington. He also urged prompt and decisive action, the necessity for which seemed to imbue the minds of all present. It was the most enthusiastic meeting we have seen in Wilmington upon any subject.

The meeting adjourned to meet again on Thursday, the 12th day of June next.

City Court.

One case of disorderly conduct was disposed of by the Mayor this morning by a fine of $10.
Buck Hill, colored, charged with shooting John Price, also colored, in Millis' Alley yesterday morning and whose case was continued until to-day, was brought up this morning, for a hearing. The case, however, was continued until the deposition of the wounded man could be taken, which will be done to-day.
