Personal.
Mr. Rich. E. Lloyd, of Florida, arrived here last night en route for his old home in Bladen county, near Armour. He will remain for some time in attendance on his brother, Mr. John Lloyd, who was brought home from Florida some weeks ago, very ill from a malarial attack. He is still very low but we are glad to learn that there has been a slight improvement in his condition during the past few days.

Death of Mrs. Bear.
We are sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Mina Bear, relict of the late Meyer Bear, which sad event occurred at her residence in this city to-day. Mrs. Bear was a native of Hanover, Germany, and she had resided in this city for the past thirty-five years. She was 73 years of age and leaves three sons, the gentlemen who compose the well-known firm of Morris Bear & Bros., on North Water street.

New Grocery House.
The firm of Jas. B. Huggins & Co. having been dissolved, the retiring partner, Capt. F. G. Robinson, has associated with himself Mr. Newton Robinson, and these gentlemen, under the firm name of F. G. & N. Robinson, will conduct a general grocery business at the old stand of George Myers, on South Front street. They will keep on hand an excellent stock of goods, and will receive additions every week by rail and steamer.

Criminal Court.
The Court reassembled this morning, after its recess of yesterday, and the following were the proceedings of the day up to the hour of closing our report:
State vs John A. Stubbs, assault and battery. Not guilty and defendant discharged.
State vs J. C. Hill, embezzlement. Continued for the term.
State vs Starkey W. Odus, misdemeanor. Continued for the term.
The grand jury at noon were discharged for the term, and it is probable that the business of the Court will be concluded this afternoon.

Every Farmer ought to get a "Boy Clipper Plow," greatest invention of the age. JACOB is the Agent.

Mysterious Waifs.
At Smithville, on Thursday 1st, were two children—a boy about 14 years of age and a girl about 12—who very naturally excited considerable curiosity and were the cause of much comment. They were decently and neatly clad, were quite intelligent, yet they had no protector, neither of them had any baggage further than a small paper parcel carried by the girl, and they were beggars. They stated that they left Charlotte and went to Greensboro, thence to Fayetteville and from the latter place they came to Wilmington on one of the steamers, and thence directly to Smithville on the Passport. They said that their name is Miller, and told Capt. Harper that they came originally from Virginia, but subsequently told Mr. Sublett, of the Hotel Brunswick, that they came from Memphis, Tenn., where their home was washed away by the flood. A couple of very foolish runaways, probably.

Royal Arch Masons.
The Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons held its 36th Annual Convocation at Elizabeth City, on Wednesday and Thursday. The session, we learn, was a very pleasant one. Dr. Eugene Grissom presided as Grand High Priest. He declined reelection on account of professional and official engagements.
The following are the grand officers for the ensuing masonic year:
Geo. W. Blount, of Wilson, Grand High Priest; Isaac Patterson, of Newbern, Dep. Grand High Priest; James C. Munds, of Wilmington, Grand King; J. W. Albertson, of Elizabeth City, Grand Scribe; Wm. Simpson, of Raleigh, Grand Treasurer; D. W. Bain, of Raleigh, Grand Secretary; Rev. O. F. Gregory, of Charlotte, Grand Chaplain; Augustus Strouse, of Goldsboro, Grand Captain of the Host; H. C. Prempert, of Wilmington, Grand Principal Sojourner; B. F. Briggs, of Wilson, Grand Royal Arch Captain; J. McD. French, of Wilmington, J. Slaughter, Jr., of Goldsboro, and W. M. Davis, of Windsor, Grand Masters of Vails; R. H. Bradley, of Raleigh, Grand Tiler.
The next annual convocation will be held in Farboro, in May, 1885.

There were twelve interments in Pine Forest Cemetery this week, seven of which were adults and five were children. One of the adults was brought here for interment.

The Rechabites.
High Tent, Independent Order of Rechabites of North America, which has been in session this week at Utica, N. Y., adjourned yesterday after voting to hold its next annual meeting in Wilmington, N. C. The next session will be held here sometime in the early Summer months of 1885, but we have not been informed of the precise date.
In this connection, we learn that Unity Tent, No. 60, of the same order, in this city, is in a highly prosperous and satisfactory condition.

Decoration Day.
Our report of the ceremonies in this city attendant upon the due observance of yesterday, Decoration Day, was necessarily very short and incomplete, as the procession did not move until just before we went to press.
The programme was carried out as published. The procession was a very long one, composed almost exclusively of colored people, through their various civic organizations, and J. C. Abbott Post, No. 15, G. A. R. An appreciable fact was the order which was preserved and the celerity with which the movements were made, under the direction of Chief Marshal Geo. L. Mabson and his aids. At the National Cemetery Rev. D. J. Sanders made the prayer and the oration was delivered by Rev. D. D. Dodge. An important feature was the special service held by the members of the G. A. R. and in this connection we give place, by request, to the following:
Among the other ceremonies incident to the day, at the National Cemetery, the following special ceremonies were held over the grave of the late General Jos. C. Abbott, by J. C. Abbott Post, No. 15, G. A. R. The following General special orders were read by Col. Geo. L. Mabson, Asst. Inspector General, Dept. of Va. & N. C.
H'D'RS. GRAND ARMY OF REPUBLIC, No. 1202 CHESTNUT STREET, Philadelphia, April 14th, 1884.
General Orders No. 10.
The Grand Army of the Republic observes on May 30th next, for the sixteenth time, the beautiful custom of strewing with flowers the graves of our dead comrades.
Memorial Day, first established by General Orders, then made permanent by our Rules and Regulations, and subsequently endorsed by National and State legislation, will be observed by our people so long as our flag floats over a united Nation, and it is our duty, as the survivors of the armies and navies, whose deeds of valor and patriotism shed such lustre upon the annals of our country, to see that the ceremonies appropriate to the day and the occasion are properly directed.
These ceremonies cannot revive antagonisms of the past; they should stir up in our hearts not only tender recollections of the memories of the dead, but also a more exalted patriotism and devotion to country in the future.
Each Post will, in accordance with the Rules and Regulations, in its own way arrange for the proper observance of the day, but it is suggested that wherever practicable, joint services be had by Posts in the same neighborhood.
An invitation should be extended to all children in public, private and Sunday schools, and to the people generally, to be present and participate in the ceremonies of the day.
It is recommended, as in other years, that Posts arrange for public services in places of worship on the Sabbath preceding Memorial Day.
By Command of Robert B. Beath, Commander-in-Chief.
J. M. VANDERSLICE, Adjutant General.

H'D'RS DEPT OF VIRGINIA.
GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC, RICHMOND, May 5th, 1884.
General Orders, No. 5.
In compliance with General Orders, No. 10, Headquarters Grand Army of the Republic, the Posts of this Department are again called upon to observe May 30th next in an appropriate manner.
Memorial day is fraught with sacred duties and hallowed memories, which appeal in no uncertain behests to the throbbing hearts of every comrade of the Grand Army of the Republic; for its recurrence is but one of the remedies of the swiftly waning years, that will soon lay us too, comrades, "in that low green tent whose curtain never outward swings," where the clash of sabre, the rattle of musketry, the intonation of the red mouth battery are likewise unheard and forgotten, where the grand dress parade shall be by the "green pastures and still waters" that speak of rest and eternal peace.
But duty as well as the ties of dangers shared, and the hardships braved, remind us that those who have gone before, laid down their lives a willing sacrifice upon their country's altar, should receive at the hands of those who yet survive them, a tender token that their memories are as green in our hearts, as fragrant in our recollections as the pure mementoes of nature we are wont to place above their dust on memorial day.
The rules and regulations of our organization require a recognition and observance of a mournful, and yet cheerful and patriotic testimonial from us. But for this I would not unnecessarily remind you that each and every grave of the Soldiers of the Union, in this Department, should be strewn with the choicest flowers that can be gathered from garden and field, and other appropriate ceremonies had on this occasion, which will tend to commemorate the heroism and va of our comrades who have stacked arms, unsling knapsacks, and gone into eternal camp.

In performing this beautiful service of decorating the graves of our dead, let us remember kindly in the same manner, should there be any, those who sleep the same sleep of our comrades, and who fell in the same red strife now happily ceased forever.
B. C. Cook, Dep't Commander.
Official.—H. CARLISLE, A. A. G.

H'D'RS J. C. ABBOTT POST, No. 15, G. A. R. DEPT OF VA. & N. C. WILMINGTON, N. C., May 27, '84.
In compliance with General Order No. 10, Headquarters G. A. R., the members of J. C. Abbott Post, No. 15, are hereby ordered to assemble at their headquarters at 3 o'clock on Friday, May 30th, in uniform, to take part in attending the Memorial Ceremonies of the day.
By order
J. S. W. EAGLES, Commander.

After the reading, ritualistic ceremonies were read by Col. J. S. W. Eagles, Commander of the Post, the ceremony of decorating the grave with beautiful flowers was then proceeded with the same being literally covered. "My Country, 'Tis of Thee" was then sung by the choir of the Post, the procession reformed and marched back to Headquarters where the closing ceremonies were performed, and the Post dismissed.

Tileston Normal School.
The closing exercises of this educational institution were held last night at the Tileston Upper Room, and a large and cultivated audience were assembled, filling the commodious hall to its utmost capacity, to witness the proceedings. The room was appropriately decorated for the occasion, and the stage was ornamented with beautiful plants and fragrant flowers, whose delightful odors filled the atmosphere with their rich perfume.
The programme for the evening consisted of ten exercises, which were rendered in the following order:
"Duet" for piano and organ, in which Prof. Van Laer presided at the former and Master Ulrich and Miss Eliza Adrian at the latter. It was a charming piece of music and was rendered in excellent taste and with real musical expression.
"Salutatory," by Mr. Harry Bacon, Jr., which was very happily conceived and spoken with grace and distinctness.
"Spring Blossoms," an essay by Miss Sallie McLaurin, which was a sweet literary morceau.
"Solo and Chorus," vocal, rendered by Messrs. Allen Hallett, B. F. Mitchell, Joseph R. Wilson, Jr., and Harry Bacon, Jr., in exquisite style and voice and was rapturously applauded.
"Sowing and Reaping," an earnest and thoughtful essay, by Miss Kate S. Gause.
"Duet," for violin and piano, with Miss H. A. Higgins at the latter and Mr. J. R. Wilson, Jr., at the former instrument. This was rendered with much expression, in excellent tune and time and was loudly applauded.
"Genius," an essay of much literary merit, by Miss Mary A. Bernard.
"So Merrily Over the Spray," vocal quartette, by the Tileston Glee Club.
"Valedictory," the "History of Poetry," by Miss Mollie J. Hawee. This was a carefully studied and happily conceived effort, whose merits were recognized by the audience by presenting the fair valedictorian with a magnificent display of flowers.
"Duet," by Prof. Van Laer and Miss Eliza Adrian. It is hardly necessary to speak of the playing of Prof. Van Laer as every one in the city who has any appreciation of musical taste and skill knows that he is a thorough musician, an accomplished pianist and a conscientious interpreter of musical themes. Miss Adrian is a young pianiste of much promise and bids fair to become one of the best.
Miss Bradley then presented the diplomas to the graduating class, which consisted of Misses Mary A. Bernard, Mary J. Hawee, Kate S. Gause, Sarah A. McLaurin, and Mr. Harry Bacon, Jr., accompanying the presentation with timely and appropriate remarks, after which the class sang a parting song to the tune of "Auld Lang Syne" This closed the evening's entertainment and the exercises of the Tileston School for the scholastic year of 1884.
In speaking upon the subject, a lady who was present told us that it was one of the most interesting entertainments of the kind which she ever witnessed, which is saying a good deal as she has had abundant opportunities for witnessing such exhibitions and in some of the best schools in the country. The total attendance of pupils during the scholastic year was 240; the average attendance 225.

The corps of teachers are, Miss Amy M. Bradley, principal; Mrs. M. E. Russell, Misses A. L. Nutter, Josephine Folger, Helen A. Higgins, Mary L. Alderman, Kate L. Alderman, Alice Thorburn and Minnie Bogert.
Everybody in want of Paints, White Lead, Glass &c. should go to JACOB'S to get best qualities and lowest prices.
