

A HOME DRUGGIST

TESTIFIES. Popularity at home is not always the best test of merit, but we point proudly to the fact that no other medicine has won for itself such universal approbation in its own city, state, and country, and among all people, as Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

The following letter from one of our best-known Massachusetts Druggists should be of interest to every sufferer:—

RHEUMATISM. "Eight years ago I had an attack of Rheumatism, so severe that I could not move from the bed, or dress, without help. I tried several remedies without much if any relief, until I took AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, by the use of two bottles of which I was completely cured. Have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, and it still retains its wonderful popularity. The many notable cures it has effected in this vicinity convince me that it is the best blood medicine ever offered to the public."
E. F. HARRIS,
River St., Buckland, Mass., May 13, 1882.

SALT RHEUM. GEORGE ANDREWS, overseer in the Lowell Carpet Corporation, was for over twenty years before his removal to Lowell afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form. His ulcerations actually covered more than half the surface of his body and limbs. He was entirely cured by AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. See certificate in Ayer's Almanac for 1883.

AYER'S

contains an antidote for all malarial disorders which, so far as known, is used in no other remedy. It contains no Quinine, nor any mineral nor deleterious substance whatever, and consequently produces no injurious effect upon the constitution, but leaves the system as healthy as it was before the attack.

WE WARRANT AYER'S AGUE CURE to cure every case of Fever and Ague, Intermittent or Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Bilious Fever, and Liver Complaint caused by malaria. In case of failure, after due trial, dealers are authorized, by our circular dated July 1st, 1882, to refund the money.

TUESDAY, JUNE 3, 1884.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—Bills were read a third time and passed, after debate, as follows:

House bill fixing the rate of postage on mail matter of the second class, when sent by persons other than publishers or news agents. This bill, as it came from the House, fixed one cent as the rate of postage on a newspaper weighing three ounces or less. Mr. Maxey explained that the Senate committee on Postoffices and Post Roads had found that some of the large newspapers weighed a little over three ounces, and had therefore extended the newspaper limit of weight from one cent per ounce to four ounces. The bill passed the Senate with this amendment.

A bill, introduced by Mr. Butler, providing for the return to the owners of certain jewelry, portraits, silverware, etc., captured in the South during the war.

Senate adjourned.

Twelve Democrats and thirteen Republicans took part in the proceedings of the Senate to-day. The entire proceeding were conducted under the rule providing for consideration of unobjectionable bills. Ninety-five measures were brought up; fifty of which were set aside under objection, forty were passed, and five were indefinitely postponed. In the number of bills disposed of this is the greatest day's work of the session, and very few days in past sessions show a larger record.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Under the call of States, the following bills were introduced and referred:

By Mr. Eldridge, of Mich., a resolution fixing the 23d of June as the date of final adjournment.

By Mr. Willis, of Ky., appropriating $25,000 to aid the Southern Exposition, to be held at Louisville, 1884; and admitting free of duty articles intended for exhibition thereat.

The House then proceeded to the consideration of the Legislative Appropriation bill, with the amendments reported by the committee of the Whole. The amendment exempting all distillers who make ten bushels or less from the operation of the provisions of Title 31, Revised Statutes, except as to the payment of tax, was adopted—yeas 118, nays 74. Other amendments were agreed to, and the bill passed—yeas 138, nays 46.

Mr. Hiseck moved to suspend the rules and pass the bill repealing internal revenue taxes on tobacco, allowing the use of alcohol free of tax in the arts and for manufacturing, and repealing the tax on brandy distilled from fruit.

Mr. Cargrove, of Mo., moved the House adjourn, and this was, at 2.15 p. m., carried.

The Chicago Convention.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—The Evening Star's Chicago special says: To-day, for the first time since Saturday, Arthur's supporters seen confident of success. The sentiment for Blaine has up to to-day been general that a counter-irritant of the New York style has made the situation quite lively. Friends of Blaine made a decided road on the candidacy of Senators Hawley and Sherman, parading to day their record on the Chinese immigration bill. Both spoke and voted against it, and the Pacific Coast delegations declare that the nomination of either would insure a Republican defeat in every one of the Pacific slope States. The President's vote of the twenty year Chinese bill is also being used against him somewhat, though the fact that he signed the amended bill is claimed by his friends to be a full answer of the charge that he favored Chinese cheap labor.

Both parties this evening figure up the canvass thus: That Blaine will lead on the first ballot, with about 340 votes—falling 70 short of a nomination. Arthur's strength will be about 300; Edmunds's 85 to 90; Logan's about 60, and Sherman's about 30. If Logan's strength could be cast for Blaine it would nominate the latter; and if Edmunds' following could be transferred to Arthur it would be apt to result in the President's success. Sherman, also, holds a position of great importance; it is claimed that he virtually stands in the way of Blaine's nomination. Friends of the latter claim, with much logic, that if Sherman were not in the race Ohio would give forty or fifty votes to Blaine, and so strengthen his lines as to make his final success certain. Notwithstanding the charges that have been made by Blaine's movement is an honest one. Gov. Long, Theodore Roosevelt, Geo. Wm. Curtis, and the leaders of the Edmunds forces, say they are determined to stick to their favorite until his nomination is made. Claiming an even hundred votes and the balance of power, they think their chance of success good. There is every reason to believe that for several ballots at least, the bulk of Edmunds' strength will remain firm; but it is certain the Arthur leaders are counting on accessions from this source. They argue that the Edmunds men will not long follow, if it looks like a forlorn hope, and that the Massachusetts delegates, through fear of Blaine's success, will be ready to go to the President in an emergency. The Blaine leaders claim half of Edmunds' vote in case the latter break. They say one third of the Massachusetts men will be with them, all of those from Rhode Island, and most of those from Wisconsin and Minnesota.

Maj Stedman

The old Third Congressional District, of which Carteret county formerly occupied a part, is unanimously in favor of Major Charles M. Stedman, than whom no wittier or more popular candidate has been named for Lieutenant Governor, and we trust he will be nominated by acclamation in the State convention. Carteret is well acquainted with the merits of this gentleman, and will probably give him a solid delegation.—Beaufort Telephone.

STATE NEWS.

Charlotte Observer: Travelers up the Western North Carolina Railroad were treated a day or two since to a most remarkable sight, being what they term a hail spout on a mountain side. The scene was witnessed one mile east of Marshall Station. Properly speaking, it was a water spout; at the beginning, but before it ended it turned to hail. The spout broke on the mountain above the railroad and came tearing down directly upon the track. As it swept down the mountain side, it brought trees, timbers, rocks and dirt with it, and lodged them in a confused mass on the railroad track. The hail, our informant says, could have been raked up by the basketful, the whole mountain side being as white as any snowfall could have made it. The hail storm, it appeared, confined itself to the vicinity of the mountain in question, there being heavy rains, but only slight falls of hail on the neighboring mountains. It required several hours to clear the railroad track of the debris brought down by the hail spout.

Charlotte Observer: Capt. F. S. DeWolf with his wife and three daughters, will to night bid farewell to Charlotte and leave for distant Oregon, in which State their fortunes will in the future be cast. Capt. DeWolf will locate in the growing little city of Portland. His departure from Charlotte is a matter of genuine regret by our citizens. At two o'clock yesterday morning the citizens of Lexington were aroused by the burning of Baxter Shemwell's plow works and machine shop. When first discovered, the fire had gained such headway as to make all efforts at saving the building futile. It was the fire originated we could not learn. The destruction of the work was complete, entailing a loss of about $3,500 upon which there is $1,200 insurance.
