

FROM THE PRESIDENT

OF BAYLOR UNIVERSITY.

Independence, Texas, Sept. 27, 1882.

Gentlemen:

Ayer's Hair Vigor

Has been used in my household for three reasons:—

- 1st. To prevent falling out of the hair.
2d. To prevent too rapid change of color.
3d. As a dressing.

It has given entire satisfaction in every instance. Yours respectfully, Wm. Carey Crane.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR is entirely free from uncleanly, dangerous, or injurious substances. It prevents the hair from turning gray, restores gray hair to its original color, prevents baldness, preserves the hair and promotes its growth, cures dandruff and all diseases of the hair and scalp, and is, at the same time, a very superior and desirable dressing.

PREPARED BY Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists.

Small type and date information.

AYER'S Ague Cure

contains an antidote for all malarial disorders which, so far as known, is used in no other remedy. It contains no Quinine, nor any mineral nor deleterious substance whatever, and consequently produces no injurious effect upon the constitution, but leaves the system as healthy as it was before the attack.

WE WARRANT AYER'S AGUE CURE to cure every case of Fever and Ague, Intermittent or Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Bilious Fever, and Liver Complaint caused by malaria. In case of failure, after due trial, dealers are authorized, by our circular dated July 1st, 1882, to refund the money.

The Daily Review.

The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

SATURDAY, JUNE 7, 1884.

STATE NEWS.

Carriage Gazette: There is a mulberry tree near Poplar Springs church measuring 27 feet in circumference or 6 feet in diameter. This is no doubt the largest in the county and perhaps even in the State.

Newbern Journal: Ever increasing congregations attend the Baptist revival here. There have been some forty professions of religion and twenty seven additions to the Church. The meetings continue every night.

Durham Plant: Mr T. J. Riggsbee has shown us some heads of wheat finer than we have ever seen. It has five grains to the mesh and 25 awnlets. He says that he has several acres that without serious accident, will yield 40 bushels to the acre.

Rockingham Rocket: Messrs Sam and Frank Gardner and Wm Temple will arrive sometime this week from Liverpool Eng. having sailed on the 20th ult, thus adding three new citizens to the settlement of English people located in the upper end of our county.

News and Observer: It is reported that in this section many of the peaches, with which the trees are loaded, are decaying and dropping off, just as they did last summer. A tobacco planter from New river, who came in yesterday, said that good as all his crops were, his tobacco was the best on his plantation. All the reports as to the condition of Wake county tobacco are satisfactory.

Elizabeth City Falcon: A movement is on foot to organize a stock company to purchase and run the Hotel Winsor, at this place. The capital stock is to be $35,000, more than one-half of which is to be raised before operations begin. About $8,000 of the stock have been subscribed already, mostly in Elizabeth City. Mr Eldridge, of Boston, has the affair in hand, and will endeavor to place all the stock.

Asheville Advance: We are told by Mr. A. M. Luges, who lives in the neighborhood of Dryden's Mountain, that the recent hail storm was so terrible that it caused a total destruction of his entire growing crop. He asserts that in some places the hail was waist deep, and that after the storm was over, near his house he found two large copperhead snakes that had been beaten to death by the hail stones. Next!

Durham Recorder: There is not a better speaker in the State than Judge Fowle. There is not a man, except Vance, that can create more enthusiasm in the campaign than Judge Fowle. There is not a man in the State that has done more for the Democratic party in North Carolina and received less than Judge Fowle. There is not a man in the district more deserving the nomination for Congress than Judge Fowle.

Shelby Aurora: W. R. Smith's daughter Ovella, aged three years, climbed upon the fence to see the pigs, which her father was then feeding, on last Saturday at sunset. As she climbed on the fence, the child fell backwards on its head, and the fence rail or pine pole on top rolled over and fell across the child's breast. The father ran to the child's rescue, and grasped up in his arms his lifeless child. Its neck was broken by the fall and the falling rail had broken one rib.

Fayetteville Observer: We have had occasion before to commend the work of Capt. S. J. Walton, the veteran bridge builder of the C F & Y V Railway. Old residents remember him with pleasure as the head of the firm of Walton & Barry, of this town. He is probably the best builder of railroad bridges in the South, and he not only builds well, but rapidly. On the occasion of the excursion to Raft Swamp, at the Stockholder's meeting a month ago, he drove piling for 175 feet of trestle and finished the trestle as he progressed, in 8 1/2 hours.
