IN CONGRESS YESTERDAY.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—On motion of Mr. Allison, the Senate resumed consideration of the Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation bill.

After debate the committee's amendment was agreed to, striking out the clause directing consolidation. The Senate committee on Resolutions having proposed among other amendments one to strike out the clause permitting small distilleries to be run without storekeepers, Mr. Vance and Mr. Beck opposed the recommendation and Mr. Allison defended it.

Mr. Beck said the present condition of things in regard to the collection of the whiskey tax was bad. He, too, thought the whiskey tax a legitimate tax, as also the tobacco tax, but great crowds of men kept to collect the distillery tax harassed the people.

Mr. Allison referred to the great difficulties that had been found in the collection of this tax, especially in North Carolina, and said he would be sorry to have to say of the people what Mr. Vance had said of those of North Carolina, with regard to corrupt bargains.

Mr. Vance admitted that there were some bad men among the distillers of North Carolina, but they were not all bad by any means. He had only referred to those of them who were capable of being corrupted by the present Republican party. He supposed that so long as they could be useful to the party they would remain.

Mr. Allison said it would hardly do for this government to permit distillers to manufacture all the whiskey that they pleased without any surveillance by the Government.

Debate continued until 6 o'clock, when, without coming to a vote on the amendment, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. Hewitt, of N. Y., from the committee on Ways and Means, reported a bill to modify the existing laws relating to duties on imports and the collection of revenue. Referred to committee of the Whole.

Mr. Cook, of Iowa, called up the contested election case of Chalmers, vs. Manning, and Mr. Mills, of Texas, raised the question of consideration. The House decided to consider the case. Mr. Davis, of Mo., supported the minority resolutions, which are as follows:

Resolved, That the means and methods employed by the Federal administration in securing the election of Jas. R. Chalmers as a member of the House of Representatives of the 48th Congress are, as appears by the majority report and evidence on file, repugnant to and subversive of true representative government, and said election is therefore declared void.

Resolved, That, further, said Chalmers, having accepted the office of special assistant U. S. district attorney for the northern and southern district of the State of Mississippi since said election, and holding said office up to and beyond the first of February, 1884, is ineligible to a seat in this Congress, and a vacancy exists in the second Congressional district of the State of Mississippi.

Mr. Cook then demanded the previous question and the vote recurred on the second resolution presented by the minority. It was lost.

The first minority resolution was also lost and the majority resolution adopted without division. Mr. Chalmers then appeared at the bar of the House and took the oath of office.

The House resumed consideration of the "Backbone" Railroad Company forfeiture bills. After speeches by Mr. Lewis, of La., in support of the bill and Mr. Oates, of Ala., against it, the House, without action, at 5 o'clock, adjourned.

STATE NEWS.

Durham Recorder: The crops in Chatham are very fine. The wheat crop the best it has been for years. The tobacco corn is unusually fine. Mr. E. N. Atwater topped over 15,000 plants the first of last week.

Chadhour Times: There is a colored man in the Evergreen neighborhood calling himself a doctor and selling patent medicine. He gives his name as Charley Brown, of Wilmington. A. M. Benton, Esq., finding out that he had no license deputized D. L. Williamson, Thos Herring and Joe Baldwin to arrest him. They found him at the house of Mr. Herring, but the "doctor," seeing them, jumped over the fence and ran. The party pursued him a few hundred yards in the woods, but could not overtake him.

Asheville Citizen: Mr. John Burgin, an old and much respected citizen of this county, suddenly dropped dead on Sunday at the residence of Mr. Sam Davidson, on Swannanoa. Mr. B. was probably beyond 80 years of age, but appeared to have been in good health up to his sudden death. About 1 o'clock on Saturday a violent wind storm, with heavy rain and much hail of small size, came up suddenly from the Northeast. There was some thunder and lightning, but scarcely enough to excite remark. There were, however, two or three vivid flashes with almost immediate crashing thunder. One of these fell with deadly bolt. Mr. William Stevens, son of Mr. David Stevens, of this vicinity, who had been delivering ice to customers during the morning, after conducting his rounds had gone to the house of his sister, the wife of Mr. Carter Penland, who lives on Academy Street, and reached there just previous to the storm, hitching his team near the side walk. He left the house for the purpose of protecting or removing a seat in the wagon, and while doing so the lightning struck a small tree at Mr. Penland's fence, under which the wagon had been driven. The bolt instantly killed Mr. Stevens and the team, a pair of mules. Mr. Stevens' hat was torn to pieces and his shoes burst from his feet, his hair scorched; but apart from some blistered or abraded flesh, there was no mutilation as was erroneously reported. Mr. Stevens was about 22 years old, a young man of exemplary character.

Asheville Advance: Early yesterday morning, Mr. Charlie Harkins, about six miles from the city, was dangerously if not fatally wounded by the accidental discharge of a pistol which he was handling. Mr. H. S. Harkins reported yesterday evening that there was but little if any hopes of his recovery. The ball entered his body just below the ribs and came out at his back. No one was in the room when the accident occurred, but when the report was heard, his mother ran in and he told her that the pistol went off accidentally while he was trying to unload it. Since then he has not been able to speak.

The homicide which we undertake to give an account of this morning, occurred on last Thursday, near Cape River, in Yancey county. The unfortunate victim, Marion Baird, was an ex-convict, and in company with one Abraham Proffit, visited a house of questionable character, and while there got into a dispute on the porch, when Baird drew his pistol and demanded that they both leave the house. Proffit replied that he would go as soon as he went into the house and got his boots, and walked into the house. He soon returned with a pistol also, and fired at Baird, the ball striking a rib and lodging in the hip, making a wound 13 inches long. Dr. Austin, of Burnsville, was sent for, who waited upon the wounded man until his death, Saturday morning, about daylight. A warrant was at once issued for Proffit and his arrest effected. He was taken before Esq. Lewis for a preliminary investigation of the case, but made application to have his trial removed to some other justice's court, on the ground that he did not think he could get justice before Esq. Lewis, who granted his request and ordered him taken before Esq. Ray, several miles distant. On the way the prisoner and most of guard were on foot, and the prisoner's brother and others were on horseback. The brother proposed to let the prisoner ride awhile, which was acceded to by the guard. When they arrived at a creek, that portion of the guard who were on foot necessarily separated from the others a short distance in order to cross, and the prisoner took advantage of the opportunity and made his escape from those who had him in charge, they being on mules and he having a swift horse. At last accounts he had not been recaptured. The parties to this unfortunate and deplorable affair are well connected in Yancey county, and much excitement prevails among the people who were started at the announcement of the killing, and who realize the unenviable reputation such occurrences are calculated to give them abroad.

A HOME DRUGGIST TESTIFIES. Popularity at home is not always the best test of merit, but we point proudly to the fact that no other medicine has won for itself such universal approbation in its own city, state, and country, and among all people, as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. The following letter from one of our best-known Massachusetts Druggists should be of interest to every sufferer:—

RHEUMATISM. "Eight years ago I had an attack of Rheumatism, so severe that I could not move from the bed, or dress, without help. I tried several remedies without much if any relief, until I took AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, by the use of two bottles of which I was completely cured. Have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, and it still retains its wonderful popularity. The many notable cures it has effected in this vicinity convince me that it is the best blood medicine ever offered to the public." W. F. HARRIS, River St., Beckland, Mass., May 15, 1882.

SALT RHEUM. GEORGE ANDREWS, overseer in the Lowell Carpet Corporation, was for over twenty years before his removal to Lowell afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form. His ulcerations actually covered more than half the surface of his body and limbs. He was entirely cured by AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. See certificate in Ayer's Almanac for 1883. PREPARED BY Dr. J. C.
