

A HOME DRUGGIST TESTIFIES.

Popularity at home is not always the best test of merit, but we point proudly to the fact that no other medicine has won for itself such universal approval in its own city, state, and country, and among all people, as Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

The following letter from one of our best-known Massachusetts Druggists should be of interest to every sufferer:—

RHEUMATISM. "Eight years ago I had an attack of Rheumatism, so severe that I could not move from the bed, or dress without help. I tried several remedies without success if any relief, until I took AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, by the use of two bottles of which I was completely cured. Have sold large quantities of your Sarsaparilla, and it still retains its wonderful popularity. The many notable cures it has effected in this vicinity convince me that it is the best blood medicine ever offered to the public." E. F. HARRIS, River St., Duxbury, Mass., May 13, 1882.

SALT RHEUM. GEORGE ANDREWS, overseer in the Lowell Carpet Corporation, was for over twenty years before his removal to Lowell afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form. Its ulcerations actually covered more than half the surface of his body and limbs. He was entirely cured by AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. See certificate in Ayer's Almanac for 1882.

PREPARED BY Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists; $1, six bottles for $5.

AYER'S Ague Cure

contains an antidote for all malarial disorders which, so far as known, is used in no other remedy. It contains no Quinine, nor any mineral nor deleterious substance whatever, and consequently produces no injurious effect upon the constitution, but leaves the system as healthy as it was before the attack.

WE WARRANT AYER'S AGUE CURE to cure every case of Fever and Ague, Intermittent or Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Bilious Fever, and Liver Complaint caused by malaria. In case of failure, after due trial, dealers are authorized, by our circular dated July 1st, 1882, to refund the money.

SATURDAY, JUNE 29, 1884 SMITHVILLE.

A Review Reporter on the Rounds—The Hotel Brunswick—Sunday Evening Concerts, &c.

SMITHVILLE, June 24th, 1884.

Mr. Editor:—The reporter for the REVIEW has been around lately interviewing the various hotels in the vicinity of the city. There is not going to be any necessity hereafter for the pleasure-loving or health-seeking portion of our population going to Saratoga or Long Beach, or even the famous springs of Virginia or North Carolina. It seems that every variety of tastes can be suited without going further than the Sound, or the Rocks, or to the Hotel Brunswick, at Smithville. To-day I dined at the latter place, and I am able to recommend it, certainly to those who are aesthetically inclined.

The menu was somewhat elaborate, consisting of five courses, each accompanied with its appropriate wine. It takes a little time to go through all this, but there is this positive advantage in it for us poor devils of reporters, that about the time we get to the last course we feel as rich as Vanderbilt. My esteemed host, Mr. Sublett, informs me that there is to be no deviation from the style in which he has reopened the Hotel Brunswick, except to make every department increase in excellence with the increase in patronage which he expects and which must surely follow his efforts to please. A hotel of this class, to be open the year round will be of great advantage to all this portion of our State, and will add much to the attractions of Wilmington, and will help to make the new hotel which is promised us in Wilmington a success. The two hotels being of the same class will work harmoniously together, and be of eventual advantage to each other. Smithville is much to be envied in the idea of your new hotel, and will do all in its power to make it a great success, but I claim to be the promoter in establishing first class hotel accommodations in this vicinity. I think we shall have to concede to that eminent town this merit. I have been much interested to learn that among its many attractions, the Sacred Concerts to be given at the pavilion of the Hotel Brunswick on every Sunday night will attract much attention from music lovers, and I give you the programme of one of them, that you may see the quality of the music performed, and its adaptation to the sacred day of rest.

- PROGRAMME: PART I. I—Romance—Sunset on the Ocean. Full Orchestra. W. Lowitz. a—Adagio—Dark clouds lower in the West. b—Allegro—The Sun shines thro' and pain's them with gold. II—March—Tandhauser. Wagner. III—Reverie—Rubenstein. a—Andanti Religioso. b—Scherzo. IV—Moonlight Sonata—Piano Solo. W. Lowitz. Beethoven. PART II. I—Overture—Tamber de garde. Full Orchestra. Title II—Inflammatis—Staba Mater. —Rossini. III—The Christian's Prayer. Spohr. IV—Romance—Beyond the Clouds. Violin Solo. Kersey. V—Hallelujah Chorus. Full Orchestra. Handel.

A large number of guests from Western North Carolina and from South Carolina are expected in the early part of next month, and after the arrival a series of fancy dress balls will be given which will cause quite a flutter of excitement among the belles and beaux.

The writer would like to be detailed from the editorial staff of the REVIEW to stay all Summer, but alas! he fears that others' interests will cause him to be called away to other and less congenial scenes. But, after all, the cause of good and honest government to the State and Nation, which the REVIEW so ably advocates, will, if successful, console us for the loss of higher pleasures. For although good eating and dancing, and social pleasures of all kinds, are not to be lightly esteemed, still they are as nothing in the balance beside honest and economical government, which of all governments governs the best and is, consequently, the best.

Heart Pains. Palpitation, Dropsical Swelling, Dizziness, Indigestion, Headache, Sleeplessness cured by "Wells' Health Renewer."

Twenty Years of Agony. The Baltimore Evening News says that for the benefit of the public, Mr. Walter Gemmill, residing at 99 S. Gilmore street, makes the following statement:—

"Mrs. John Gemmill, the wife of my brother, living at Milroy, Milford county, Pa., was thrown from a wagon in the Spring of 1854, and sustained a most serious injury to her back, resulting in partial paralysis, and from that time until the Spring of 1883, she was a helpless cripple and unable to walk. During all these long twenty years of acute suffering—more than half of an average life time—she lay upon a lounge in her sitting room, unable to move without help. All prescriptions and applications failed to do her any good, until providentially, at the time mentioned, her daughter read the advertisement of a great remedy and bought two bottles. The first trial gave her instantaneous relief, and before the second bottle was exhausted Mrs. Gemmill was able to walk about and has been completely cured. The great remedy which she used and which cured her so miraculously, was the world-famous St. Jacobs Oil. Mrs. Gemmill recently visited her relatives at a distance for the first time since she was taken down, which she was enabled to do through the efficacy of the 'Conqueror of Pain,' which well deserves its name."

Now is the time to give Smith's Worm Oil. ly-d-w

IN CONGRESS YESTERDAY.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—On motion of Mr. Lamar, the Senate took up, read a third time, and passed without amendment the joint resolution providing for a settlement of accounts with the Mobile & Ohio Railroad Company. It authorizes the Attorney General and the Secretary of War to adjust and finally settle the accounts of the United States with the road named for property received by that road from the United States.

Mr. Dawes presented the conference report on the Invalid Pension bill. The report was agreed to.

On motion of Mr. Riddleberger, the House bill authorizing the extension of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad to a point on the military lands at Fortress Monroe, was read a third time and passed.

The unfinished business was then laid before the Senate, being the bill providing for the forfeiture of unearned lands granted to the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad Company. The bill declares forfeited all lands, excepting the right of way and lands for stations, heretofore granted the Atlantic & Pacific R. R. Co., which are adjacent to and continuous with the Union Pacific portion of the main line of the road; provides for the resumption by the United States of the title to such lands, their restoration to the public domain, and their subjection to the disposal under the general laws of the United States as though the grant had never been made. The Senate committee on Public Lands had added to the bill a provision which in effect fixes the price of lands to settlers at $2.50 per acre.

Mr. Morgan spoke at some length in advocacy of his amendment, and while still holding the floor gave way for a motion to go into executive session.

The Senate discharged the committee on Privileges and Elections from further consideration of the House bill on the Electoral count, and ordered a committee of Conference on it.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. Mr. Wilborne, of Tex., submitted the conference report on the bill granting a right of way through the Indian Territory to the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe Railroad Company, and it was agreed to.

proportion bill, and it was agreed to. Mr. Turner, of Ga., called up the election case of Thos. G. Skinner, from the second district of North Carolina. The question at issue is whether Skinner was elected from the proper district and there is no contest pending.

Mr. McMillan, of Tenn., raised the question of consideration in favor of the private calendar, and the House declined to consider the election case.

Mr. Forney, of Ala., submitted his conference report on the Army Appropriation bill. The report announces an agreement upon all the items except an amendment striking out that portion of the bill which regulates the compensation to be paid to subsidized railways for army transportation. The other sections of the bill, as agreed upon, appropriate $24,454,450; being $310,000 more than was provided by the bill as it originally passed the House. The report was agreed to. Disagreement to the amendment indicated was insisted upon, and Messrs. Forney, Townsend and Keifer were appointed as conferees.

Mr. Henly, of Cal., made an unsuccessful attempt to secure consideration for the Northern Pacific Forfeiture bill, and the House at 12:30 p. m. went into committee of the Whole (Mr. Cox, of N. Y., in the chair) on the private calendar.

At one o'clock the committee rose for the purpose of permitting the House to dispose of the "Backbone" R. R. Forfeiture bill. The speaker announced the question to be on the motion to table a motion to reconsider the vote by which the House yesterday defeated the "Backbone" Forfeiture bill. The motion to table was agreed to—ayes 124, nays 114; so the bill was lost.
