was climbing after a rosebud That grew a little too high, Though I stood on tiptoe to reach it, When I heard him passing by.

He held in his hand a lily, He stopped and gave it to me, But I thought of the rosebud hanging High up on the treilis tree.

So I only took it a moment, And pressed its petals apart, Inhaling one breath of the fragrance That lay in its olden heart.

Then I gave it back again, saying: "Look there, where my neighbor stands Waiting for just such a plaything
