A Sad Accident. Our community was startled and grieved this morning to hear of the sad ending last night of a merry-making. Capt. Bremers, of the German .barque Lydia Peşchau, lying at Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son's whart, having completed loading, expected to sail to-day, and so last night, some of his friends visited the barque to spend the last evening with him and his officers .received at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot. † The kind farewells were all said and the party stepped ashore about 12 o'clock. To get out to the street, as the gates of the yard were all locked, the party found it necessary to skirt along the edge of the dock. on the car track, which runs from Mr. Alex. Oldham's mill to the wharf. In doing this Mr. H. H. F, Martens, who was of the party, being unfamiliar with the premises, must have mistaken the dock for the wharf and stepped overboard and was drowned. It is probable that in falling his head must have struck in some way against some obstruction, as no cry was heard to issue from him. The splash was heard, however, and the others Dr. Thos. F. It is evident that Mr. Martens was when he fell overboard and was drowned there.

As soon as they were recovered the Martens resided, and were prepared for services has not at this writing been designated but it is thought that they will be field to-morrow morning.

Mr. Martens was a native of Lamstedt, Hanover, Germany, and was but 37 years of age. He has resided in this city for fifteen years and during the past eight years he has been a driver not conscientiously accept. of the Adrian's horses. He was a married man and leaves a widow and two small children, both girls, mourn his untimely death.

The sad and unfortunate affair has cast a deep gloom on all of the German residents in this city and many others as by his family. He was a veteran Germania Lodge No. 4, K. of P., of duties that on the occasion of an alarm he could himself, unaided, run the steamer. Peace to his ashes.

Base Ball at Goldsboro.

The match game of base ball between the Seaside Park Club, of this Kenzie, Wm. Maxwell. city, and the National Club, of Goldsboro, will take place to-morrow in Goldsboro. The event will be a very interesting one, and as the two clubs appeared pretty equally matched in the game at Wrightsville on the Fourth, the contest to-morrow promises to be hotly contested. The Seasides will leave here on the 9 o'clock train tomorrow morning and return on the tast mail to-morrow night. They will be accompanied by a number of young D. C. men from this city, and they will be pleased to have all go who will. Those who do go up will also have the opportunity of attending the Fruit Fair, which opens in Goldsboro to-morrow, and there will probably be a large attendance from this city.

While we are sortment ever seen in this city. glad to welcome Mr. Brown among us once more, yet we will part with Mr. Sterling with a great deal of regret, as will all of our people, for in all of our intercourse with him we have ever found him to be a clever gentleman and a courteous official.

A Seceding Minister.

The following is from the St. Louis Republican. The gentleman alluded to therein is a native of this city, where he resided until nearly grown to man's estate. His father, Mr. Hiram Foy, was hastened to his rescue. They quickly at one time Deputy Sheriff under Sheriff Fennell, and he will be rememnered by some of our readers. Dr. Foy removed from Wilmington to Wilson and from Wilson to St. Louis:

Rev. J. H. Foy, D. D., LL. She drawn by the suction under the lighter tirely. This item of news is the more surprising in view of the fact that Dr. Foy had always been considered the representative of that sect here, as is indicated by the titles he has received at their hands and the number of official positions he has occupied. His apadmission for plication the Episcopal church was not less unexpected. owing to the vast difference between the two creeds. The doctor's reason for taking this step is that for some time past he has been gradually drifting toward a more liberal view of things than is taught by the Christian Church, and with all due regard for the grace of consistency felt it his bounden duty to withdraw from a denomination
