A CARD FROM JUDGE BYNUM.

Is He Going to Vote for Scales or York? - A Card that Leaves the Reader in Doubt as to Whose Name the Judge's Ballot Will Bear.

To the Editor of the Observer: My attention has been called to an editorial in your paper of the 27th, headed: "Judge Bynum Steps Out."

1. The "nomination for Governor" was never tendered to me, and as I never sought, desired, or could have accepted it, I have no complaint against the party on that account.

2. No one of "York's managers" came to me at Charlotte or elsewhere upon the alleged or other political mission.

3. No "interview" was ever had with me to induce me to return to the Republican party, or any like purpose. I had not departed from it.

4. No such conversation with "prominent" or other men, as is attributed to me in the editorial, ever took place.

5. I never told "one of these gentlemen" that I intended to vote for Gen. Scales.

6. I never told my "partner" that I intended to vote for Gen. Scales. I have expressed to him and others my high appreciation of the character and worth of Gen. Scales.

7. I never made the "first declaration" of my views to "my brother in Winston." I have no brother there and with the only brother I have who resides in Stokes, I have not exchanged a word upon politics, that I remember, in ten years.

8. Last, but not least, I am not a "Democrat." There is a wide distinction between the disapproval of some of the nominees and methods of a party and the abandonment of its principles and organization.

Before concluding, allow me to say that I have not attended a political meeting in fifteen years, or taken any part in the deliberations and tactics of a party, but contented myself with casting a silent vote as other private citizens. As I do not seek public influence, and am content with my political principles I had hoped to be left undisturbed in my attentions to my very sick family. The obtusion of my name upon the public was, therefore, both a surprise and a deep regret to me.

Respectfully, W. P. BYNUM. Morganton, N. C., July 28, 1884.

STATE NEWS.

Danbury Reporter: We learn that the iron has been purchased, and that the track laying will begin soon on the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad between Greensboro and Walnut Cove.

—H. R. Carroll says he has a grape vine, one branch of which has grown 27 feet this year. He says he wants to cut it with the ten bunches of grapes on this shoot and send the whole of it to the State Exposition.

Asheville Advance: Tuesday night, about 11 o'clock, an affray occurred on Main Street, in front of W. F. Weavers' store, in which Mr. A. E. Gash, an innocent party, received a dangerous if not a fatal stab with a knife. An unfriendly dispute arose between Mr. Jason Cunningham and another young man by the name of Jet, in the meeting of the Sons of Temperance in session that night, which culminated in an encounter immediately after adjournment, when Cunningham stabbed Gash in the back.

Lincolnton Press: Our readers will doubtless remember that a few weeks ago we published in these columns an account of the horrible death of a young son of Moses Stroup, of Gaston county, whose death was caused by being dragged by a runaway team. Last Monday Mr. Stroup was hauling lumber with this same pair of mules.

In going with the empty wagon to the mill for the lumber, Mr. Stroup's foot was caught between the wagon axle and a stump and badly hurt. On his return with a load of lumber and in going down a hill the mules ran away. Mr. Stroup attempted to spring from the wagon, but being disabled by his wounded foot, could not jump clear of the wheels, and consequently received painful and serious injuries, the worst wound being a horrible gash on his arm and shoulder. His condition is critical.

Charlotte Observer: Maj. W. A. Moody to-day takes charge of his new office as agent of the Association Railways in Charlotte. In addition to the duties of this office, Major Moody will continue in charge of the car record office. Miss Lisette C. Bernheim has returned home after an extended visit to New Jersey. She has cancelled her engagement as teacher in the Danville (Va.) school, and comes back to teach in old Mecklenburg.

—Capt. E. E. Smith, for many years past the local train dispatcher at Greensboro, has received a deserved promotion, and will to-day enter upon the duties of dispatcher for all trains between Charlotte and Danville, and Greensboro and Goldsboro. Captain Smith's headquarters will be in Greensboro. He succeeds Capt. T. O. Troy, resigned.

The largest pieces of timber that have passed through this city in many a day came in on the Carolina Central yesterday, and were sent on to Erwin & Hilton's mills, on the Catawba. There were three pieces, each 11 inches thick, 18 inches wide and 15 feet long, and in the three pieces were 1,200 feet of lumber. The timbers were for casing for the water wheels, and came from Morse & Hilton's saw mill, in Richmond county.

—Alex. L. Jones, a veteran engineer who drew open his first throttle in the service of the Richmond & Danville Railroad thirty-one years ago, and who has since been continually in the service of that road, died night before last at his home in Greensboro. Mr. Jones had been sick but a few days, having made his last trip to Charlotte one week ago. The cause of his death was a carbuncle on the back of his neck.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN Hair Renewer.

Seldom does a popular remedy win such a strong hold upon the public confidence as has HALL'S HAIR RESEWER. The cases in which it has accomplished a complete restoration of color to the hair, and vigorous health to the scalp, are innumerable.

Old people like it for its wonderful power to restore to their whitening locks their original color and beauty. Middle-aged people like it because it prevents them from getting bald, keeps dandruff away, and makes the hair grow thick and strong. Young ladies like it as a dressing because it gives the hair a beautiful glossy lustre, and enables them to dress it in whatever form they wish. Thus it is the favorite of all, and it has become so simply because it disappoints no one.

BUCKINGHAM'S DYE FOR THE WHISKERS

Has become one of the most important popular toilet articles for gentlemen's use. When the beard is gray or naturally of an undesirable shade, BUCKINGHAM'S DYE is the remedy.

AYER'S Ague Cure

contains an antidote for all malarial disorders which, so far as known, is used in no other remedy. It contains no Quinine, nor any mineral or deleterious substance whatever, and consequently produces no injurious effect upon the constitution, but leaves the system as healthy as it was before the attack.

WE WARRANT AYER'S AGUE CURE to cure every case of Fever and Ague, Intermittent or Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Bilious Fever, and Liver Complaint caused by malaria. In case of failure, after the trial, dealers are authorized, by our circular dated July 1st, 1882, to refund the money.
