By the Light of Day.

PAST IMPOSSIBILITIES THE FACTS OF THE PRESENT—HELP IN THE NEW ERA.

"I remember when they were putting up the poles for the first telegraph line in the State of New York, and now look there!" exclaimed a citizen of the metropolis to his friend, as the two stood on the summit of the tall Equitable Building in Broadway. "The city is strung with wires like a harp, and electric communication is the daily miracle of the world. People no longer wonder and laugh at it as they did at Morse when he first suggested its possibility."

The age marches on and prejudice must give way. Nobody has a monopoly of truth. Even the conservative guild of physicians admit that the secrets of medicine are shared by all men. "I dressed his wound and God healed him," said old Galen. Once that terrible disease, Rheumatism, was supposed to be a shifting, local ailment, now attacking the joints and now the muscles. To day it is demonstrated to be a disease of the BLOOD.

Mrs. Henry Bogert, of No. 454 Atlantic Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes to Messrs. Hiscox & Co., of New York, proprietors of PARKER'S TONIC, that "she had been completely disabled from Rheumatism and pain in the back and limbs. She was advised to take the TONIC for Kidney disease. She did so, and her Rheumatism disappeared. The reason is simple. Diseased Kidneys produce rheumatic symptoms. Cure them and you destroy Rheumatism. This is now admitted by all intelligent physicians. It is the new light thrown on their time-worn and mistaken theories.

PARKER'S TONIC which is a combination of the best remedies for the blood known to science, is universally successful in combating this terribly common complaint. Those who like Mrs. Bogert, suffer from Kidney or Liver diseases or any complaint arising from impure blood, will find the TONIC a prompt and certain remedy. Prices, 50c. and $1 per bottle. The larger size the cheaper.

The Daily Review.

ONLY GOING TO THE GATE.

Like a bell of blossom ringing,
Clear and childish, shrill and sweet,
Floating to the porch's shadow,
With the fainter fall of feet,
Comes the answer softly backward,
Bidding tender watcher wait,
While the baby queen outruns her,
"Only going to the gate."

Through the moonlight, warm and scented,
Love to beauty breathes a sigh,
Always to depart reluctant,
Loth to speak the words good by;
Then the same low echo answers,
Waiting love of older date,
And the maiden whispers softly,
"Only going to the gate."

Oh, these gates along our pathway,
What they bar outside and in!
With the vague outlook beyond them,
Over waves we have not been.
How they stand before, behind us!
Toll-gates some, with price to pay;
Spring gates some, that shut forever;
Cloud gates some, that melt away.

So we pass them going upward
On our journey, one by one,
To the distaut shining wicket
Where each traveler goes alone—
Where the friends who journey with us
Strangely falter, stop and wait;
Father, mother, child or lover,
"Only going to the gate."

Curing it of Smoking.

Jones P. Wiloughrib is a wag, who has incurred the enmity of a great many Bloomington people by the perpetration of his heartless jokes. The other day he rushed into Doctor—Coffin P. Graves's office, flushed and excited, and asked him:

"Doc, does smoking ever kill anybody?

"Often, sir, quite often." Wiloughrib turned white and bit his lips, and hastily said:

"Is it possible to cure one, who is very bad with smoking? Can you save it?"

"Why, yes."

"Well, come down to my house just as quick as you can get there. There is chronic smoker down there, which has turned black in the face and looks as if there was not a bit of life in it. Make all haste, Doc, for heaven's sake. It is lying on our kitchrn floor with its pipe, and smoking, as dumb as a log. It is impossible to rouse it, and the fumes are almost the killing family. It don't know a cussed thing. Rush up, Doctor. Lose no time." The doctor and Wiloughrib got into the doctor's buggy and were driven rapidly to the scene of the disaster. When they arrived, Wiloughrib pointed the doctor to the kitchen stove, which lay overturned upon the floor, but the joke was turned, when the doctor pulled off his coat and put up the stove, and then presented a bill for twenty-five dollars for professional services.—Through Mail.

An Early Lynching Party.

Previous to his departure for his present home in Kentucky, Captain Nicholas Frech favored the Post-Journal office with a friendly visit. He was a citizen of Memphis before, probably, any other German now living here, set foot on these bluffs, and he entertains some very interesting reminiscences of those days when the Southern boundaries of the city were at Poplar street and the county site at Raleigh. One incident especially deserves to be recalled on account of its inherent humor—a lynching—in which some of our most respected Germans, now gray-headed men, took a prominent part. At the time—about forty years ago—Memphis did not enjoy a great reputation for peace and quietness. Murders were frequent; punishments few and far between; in one word, the situation was such as to hold out every inducement to Judge Lynch.

One day another most brutal murder occurred. A Main street merchant was shot and killed in front of his own door, where he was quietly sitting beside his wife. The murderer had been caught and lodged in the county jail at Raleigh. The bloody deed caused universal indignation, especially among the Germans of that day, who soon reched the conclusion to take the law into their own hands. Accordingly, they met, procured a rope, and boldly marched to Raleigh, where nobody had an inkling of their coming. They completely surprised the jailer and could have forced him to surrender the keys, but—peaceful Germans as they were—they first tried persuasion, following the line of argument that resistance would be useless. This argument seemed to have the desired effect, for though reluctantly, the jailer threw open the doors, saying: "Well, boys, if you must have 'im, go in and get 'im."

They poured in; but no sooner had the last one crossed the threshold than the heavy iron door swung back, and displaying a sarcastic smile, the jailor turned and drew the key. At the same time the court-house bell sounded the alarm. The brave avengers were trapped, and immediately had more important business on hand than lynching their fellow prisoner, namely, to beg off. In this emergency they sent for Captain Frech, who hastened to the relief of his countrymen. He did not think it prudent to give bonds for all of them, but he succeeded in having them tried on the spot. They were convicted and fined one cent each and cost, which the captain paid for all of them. This was the first and last German lynching in Memphis.—Memphis Post-Journal.

A Breakfast Table Barometer.

M. Sauvageon, of Valence, has studied the different phenomena which are produced in a cup of coffee when the sugar is put into it, and the results of his observations transform it into a barometer. "If, in sweetening your coffee," says M. Sauvageon, "you allow the sugar to dissolve without stirring the liquid, the globules of air contained in the sugar will rise to the surface of the liquid. If these globules form a frothy mass, remaining in the centre of the cup, it is an indication of the duration of the weather; if, on the contrary, the froth forms a ring round the sides the cup, it is a sign of heavy rain; variable weather is implied by the froth remaining stationary, but not exactly in the centre."

MISCELLANEOUS.

Advertising Cheats!!!

"It has become so common to begin an article in an elegant interesting style.

"Then run it into some advertisement that we avoid all such,

"And simply call attention to the merits of Hop Bitters in as plain, honest terms as possible,

"To induce people

"To give them one trial, which so proves their value that they will never use anything else."

"THE REMEDY so favorably noticed in all the papers,
Religious and secular, is
"Having a large sale, and is supplanting all other medicines.
"There is no denying the virtues of the Hop plant, and the proprietors of Hop Bitters have shown great shrewdness and ability * * *
"In compounding a medicine whose virtues are so palpable to every one's observation."

Did She Die?

"No!

"She lingered and suffered along, pining away all the time for years,"

"The doctors doing her no good;"

"And at last was cured by this Hop Bitters the papers say so much about."

"Indeed! Indeed!"

"How thankful we should be for that medicine.

A Daughter's Misery.

"Eleven years our daughter suffered on a bed of misery,

"From a complication of kidney, liver, rheumatic trouble and Nervous debility,

"Under the care of the best physicians,

"Who gave her disease various names,

"But no relief,

"And now she is restored to us in good health by as simple a remedy as Hop Bitters, that we had shunned for years before using it.—THE PARENTS.

Father is Getting Well.

"My daughters say:

"How much better father is since he used Hop Bitters."

"He is getting well after his long suffering from a disease declared incurable."—A LADY of Utica, N. Y.

For the Campaign.

—o—

THE POLITICAL CAMPAIGN UPON which the people of North Carolina are just preparing to enter will, beyond all question, be one of great excitement as well as one of vital importance to them. It will be no child's play.

All that is needed to insure Democratic success and continued prosperity to the State is a plain, truthful statement of what are now the facts of history, or are daily becoming so. The reasons for Democratic victory, and the even stronger reasons for Republican defeat, are abundant, and it is the purpose of

to do its full part in laying them before the people.

As the best means in its power to this end, and in answer to appeals, the REGISTER will be furnished at such low rates as to put it in the reach of every one during the present State and Presidential campaigns.

If we all do our full duty, victory will surely be with us; but that duty will leave us no idle time. There must be early work, late work, work all the time. If good government and a people's prosperity are worth working for, let us all go to work, and at once.

CAMPAIGN RATES.

THE REGISTER will be furnished to Clubs, until November 15, at the following rates:

One copy, 50c; five copies, $2; ten copies, $3 75; twenty copies, $7; fifty copies, $15; one hundred copies, $28.

In every case the paper will be sent until the returns of the election shall be received and published, and we invite the attention of Executive Committees of Counties and Townships, and of all others interested, to the Campaign REGISTER as a sure and cheap means of furnishing information to the people.

DOCUMENT NO 1.—1884.

DEMOCRACY vs. REPUBLICANISM.

HANDBOOK OF NORTH CAROLINA POLITICS FOR 1884

The Platforms, The Parties, and The Issues Thoroughly Discussed.

The influence of "Document No. 1," issued by the Democratic State Executive Committee in 1882, was generally recognized as decisive in that year's campaign.

A similar Handbook has been prepared for this year's use, and will be issued immediately after the session of the Chicago Democratic Convention.

The Handbook will be a well printed pamphlet of about 150 pages, 8vo., and will contain the fullest information on matters involved in this year's elections.

Document No 1, for 1884, will be supplied at

TEN DOLLARS PER HUNDRED,

the actual cash cost of type-setting, paper and press work.

In order that the size of the edition may be determined, prompt orders are requested.

Address, RALEIGH REGISTER,

THE SUN.

—o—

NEW YORK, 1884.

About sixty million copies of THE SUN have one out of our establishment during the past twelve months.

If you were to paste end to end all the columns of all THE SUNS printed and sold last year you would get a continuous strip of interesting information, common sense wisdom, sound doctrine, and sane wit, long enough to reach from Printing House square to the top of Mount Copernicus in the moon, then back to Printing House square, and then three-quarters of the way back to the moon again.

But THE SUN is written for the inhabitants of the earth; this same strip of intelligence would girdle the globe twenty seven or twenty-eight times.

If every buyer of a copy of THE SUN during the past year has spent only one hour over it, and if his wife or his grandfather has spent another hour, this newspaper in 1883 has afforded the human race thirteen thousand years of steady reading, night and day.

It is only by little calculations like these that you can form any idea of the circulation of the most popular of American newspapers, or of its influence on the opinions and actions of American men and women.

THE SUN is, and will continue to be, a newspaper which tells the truth without fear of consequences, which gets at the facts no matter how much the process costs, which presents the news of all the world without waste of words and in the most readable shape, which is working with all its heart for the cause of honest government, and which therefore believes that the Republican party must go, and must go in this coming year of our Lord, 1884.

If you know THE SUN, you like it already, and you will read it with accustomed diligence and profit during what is sure to be the most interesting year in its history. If you do not yet know THE SUN, it is high time to get into the sunshine.
