If the Blaine Managers are not careful Rhode Island will vote for Cleveland.
New York is cock sure for Cleveland by a routing majority, and "don't you forget it."
According to Dana's idea, he and Butler are the only real live, dyed-in-the-wool Democrats in the country.
There seems to be a sort of Democratic cyclone breezing along through the land, and there is nothing can stop it we say, let her breeze!
The machinery of the New York Sun has had a new eccentric, and it fails to work as it should do. Dana has always been a victim of eccentrics.
We hear it whispered that our friend, F. H. Darby, is going to run for Congress. He might as well take it easy and walk for he will get there just as quick.
Dr. York says, put the colored men in it, but as he will have no control of the matter, Plutus dominions will not be materially increased by them at present.
The Republican party ought to come right out of the front barn door with four horses to the pole and fly the woman suffrage banner, out of compliment to the literary ability of Mrs. Logan and Abigail.
Dana says that the Sun is Democratic, which will be important information to those who read its editorial columns. He also says that Butler is a better Democrat than Cleveland, but he will have hard work to make the people believe it.
Fusion Greenbackers and Democrats in Michigan may mean Republican defeat in November. Gov. Begole's plurality, in 1882, when the same fusion took place, was 4,572. The vote stood Fusion 154,269, Republican 149,697, Prohibition 5,844, straight Greenback 2,006, and scattering 1,594—a total of 312,420. The Boston Herald reasons clearly enough, by analogy, the Cleveland may get eight electoral votes in Michigan, Butler four and Blaine one; and that this will indubitably be the case if the Fusion vote of 1884 is the same as that of 1882. Michigan is a doubtful State, and the Republicans know it.
Now is the time to give Smith's Worm Oil.

Between wind and water—the Independent voter condemned to choose between Butler and St. John.

Vermont is conceded to the Republicans, with Rhode Island and several of the Northern States as doubtful.

"Will Cleveland withdraw?" is a question we have seen propounded in Republican papers recently. Of course he will! He will withdraw about a dozen States from Republican control!

It is feared by the anxious Republicans that the frequent recurrence of cyclones in the great Northwest will tend to a political hurricane this Fall and blow the Grand old Party to smithereens.

Among the close States in 1880, California went Democratic by 78; Connecticut went Republican by 2,656; Indiana went Republican by 6,642; New Jersey went Democratic by 2,010, and New York went Republican by 21,033. In 1882 these States went Democratic by the following pluralities: California, 23,519; Connecticut, 4,161; Indiana, 10,416; New Jersey, 2,113, and New York, 192,854. Kansas, Massachusetts and Michigan also went Democratic in 1882.

Backache is banished by St. Jacobs Oil, the most remarkable medicine ever discovered.

With excellent crops throughout the South there are abundant reasons for predicting a large and prosperous Fall trade.

Arkansas, Vermont and Maine elect State officers next month, the first two on the 1st and 2nd respectively and the last on the 8th.

Guy Wright's band was out last night as usual, and we have heard considerable complaint regarding the noise they made at such unseasonable hours.

Mr. C. H. Wessell, corner of North Water and Mulberry streets, had the misfortune to lose a very fine horse from sickness yesterday morning.

The cotton dealers are beginning to look out for the arrival of the new crop. A few bales have already been received and more will be apt to follow in a few days.

There has been a delightful breeze blowing from the Southwest all day, in consequence of which the day has not been so insufferably hot as it otherwise would have been.

About this time 22 years ago General John Pope was the worst whipped and the most bewildered man in the United States. It was the time of the second battle of Manassas.

The celebrated "Garote" or dude collars are selling for 10c each at Dyer's. The former price was 25 cents each, but Dyer is making a run on this popular collar at a popular price.

By an oversight the State of Virginia, with its electoral 12 votes, was omitted in our table on the editorial page yesterday. It will be seen by footing up the columns that the 12 votes of that State were needed to make the aggregate of 277.

Another large consignment of Sash, Doors & Blinds at Factory prices, just received at JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

There was a meeting of the lower division of the First Ward last night at which F. H. Darby was endorsed for Congress, E. Hewlett for Sheriff, W. H. Chagbourn for the State Senate, F. W. Foster, and C. P. Guyer for the House, J. H. Whiteman for County Treasurer, and G. A. Hicks for Township Constable.

Personal.
Dr. James E. Shepherd, of whom we made mention some days ago achieving pronounced success at the Louisville, Ky., Medical College, is in the city on a short vacation which he will pass with his father, Mr. W. W. Shepherd. Both of these gentlemen gave us the pleasure of a call this morning.

The "Dudine"
The little steam yacht recently built by Capt. Bowdoin, mention of which we made a day or two since, has been completed and was taken to Wrightsville and successfully launched yesterday afternoon. She has been named Dudine, and will be used in conveying passengers from Wrightsville to the beach, for which she is specially and admirably adapted. As she draws but about eight inches of water it would seem that she might be able to make the passage across at almost any time. Success to the Dudine, say we!

Bound Over.
Eliza Devane, colored, mention of whom we made yesterday, was brought up again this morning for further examination relative to her presence in the house of Mrs. Martin a time when the family were absent. As a result of this morning's investigations several articles of wearing apparel belonging to Mrs. Martin were found in the possession of Eliza, for which she could give no satisfactory account, and she was required to give a bond in the sum of $200 for her appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court. Failing in this she was committed to jail.

The Lawn Party.
The Lawn Party given at the City Hall Park last night by the Ladies' Memorial Association, in aid of the North Carolina Confederate Home, was a splendid affair. The grounds were brilliantly illuminated by the aid of Chinese lanterns, the night was delightful and all that could be desired, the tables scattered about the yard were well filled with delicacies to tempt the appetite and the throng in attendance were in the very best of humor, so that it was a season of enjoyment to all. The scene presented to the passer-by was one of picturesque beauty, and when the object of the gathering was taken into consideration, it became doubly interesting.

Victorious Rosa.
In the race between the yachts Rosa, and Mascotte, over the Wrightsville course yesterday, the former was victorious. There was a steady breeze from E. N. E. which gave an excellent opportunity for the display of the sailing qualities of the yachts. The Rosa was sailed by Commodore Pembroke Jones and the Mascotte by Capt. Geo. D. Parsley and both yachts were handled with consummate skill. Mr. John J. Fowler was referee and Messrs. J. M. Cronly and Richard Cameron were the judges. The race was witnessed by a large number of ladies and gentlemen, who were much interested with the rapid movements of the boats through the water and the evolutions which became necessary in the contest. The race was sailed under the rules and regulations of the Carolina Yacht Club, was intensely exciting and no accident happened to either craft to mar the pleasure of the occasion.

The Magazines.
The September Magazine of American History will interest a wide audience. The frontispiece is an engraving of the portrait of Murillo, from the painting by himself. The leading article, by Mrs. Lamb, furnishes a truthful "Glimpse of the Valley of Many Waters," its settlement and development. The second article illustrates the career of the South American scientist, Francisco Jose de Caldas, and is written by Mr. John Dimitry. Among other contributions we find a chapter on the "Early Connecticut Claims in Pennsylvania," by T. J. Chapman, A. M.; "The Medical Department of the Revolutionary Army," by General John Cochrane; "One Phase in the Early History of Virginia," from the pen of Rev. J. C. Stockbridge; "Something About Monhegan," an acceptable morsel, by Mr. E. H. Goss; and a few unpublished letters, two of which are from John Adams to Elbridge Gerry in 1784 and 1785. The Notes, Queries, Replies, etc., contain much that is important. Publication rooms, 30 Lafayette Place, New York City.

We invite the attention of our citizens to the fact that first quality shirts are being made to order at one dollar at the Wilmington Shirt Factory.

Pender Items.
LONG CREEK, N. C., Aug. 25.
EDITOR REVIEW:—Our little town has been quickened into new life this week by the presence of people attending the colored Methodist camp meeting at St. Mark's church, which is just out of town. There were two steamers running from Wilmington to this place to bring persons who wished to attend. The John Dawson, with her polite and clever Capt. Paddison were employed to run here on Saturday and Sunday, which brought a large crowd each day. Rev. George McGee, the pastor in charge and the members of the camp meeting desire to return their grateful thanks to Capt. Paddison for favors received at his hands.

The weather is very hot and dry giving the farmers a good time to gather their fodder which they are commencing in dead earnest. The crops generally in this section are promising a fair harvest. Politics is more than dull, to the satisfaction of those who have something else to do. MC.

Col. Green at Caintuck.
STILL BLUFF, Caintuck Township, August 27th, 1884.
EDITOR REVIEW:—The long-looked-for Farmers' Dinner and picnic given in honor of our highly esteemed friends, Hon. Wharton J. Green and Major C. W. McClammy, came off to-day and a grand and glorious time it was for old Caintuck. The morning broke beautifully, not a single cloud overshadowed the horizon and early in the morning large crowds of men, women and children, in carriages, buggies, wagons, carts, and some on foot, began to pour in from all parts of this and the adjoining counties. About 10 o'clock a. m., our old friend and neighbor from Kelly's Cove, Mr. R. P. Allen, in company with our noble Representative, Hon. Wharton J. Green, was seen approaching in a carriage drawn by a handsome pair of ponies. The arrival of Colonel Green was announced by frequent and hearty cheers from the crowd assembled. Shortly after their arrival the steamers Oklahoma and John Dawson arrived from Point Caswell with a very large crowd of ladies, gentlemen and children, who came down to take part in the festivities of the day, and right heartily were they welcomed by their friends from Caintuck. Shortly after the arrival of the boats the master of ceremonies, Mr. B. F. Keith, Jr., called the large crowd together under the shade of the oaks where a grand stand and a large number of very comfortable seats had been prepared, and announced the programme for the day. The meeting was then opened by an elegant prayer by the Rev. Colin Shaw, after which Capt. R. P. Paddison in a very neat and appropriate speech introduced Hon. Wharton J. Green as the orator of the day. Col. Green took the stand and for an hour and a half held his audience spell bound and delighted in one of the grandest speeches that it has ever been our good fortune to listen to in Pender county. Never was a speaker more frequently cheered, and never did a speaker more completely capture the hearts and heads of his audience than he did. To give you some idea of the power of his speech, I heard the Revs. Colin Shaw and Julian Faison say, that it was one of the grandest efforts they had ever heard, and that his truthful words seemed to fall like great sparkling diamonds from his lip. At the close of his speech, Mrs. Joel Hines accompanied Miss Meppie Paddison and Miss Annie Vollers to the stand and in a neat speech in behalf of the young ladies presented Col. Green with a handsome bouquet of flowers, which was handsomely replied to in a manner complimentary to the ladies; after which Capt. Paddison read two letters from Maj. McClammy accepting the invitation to be present and stating that he would be on hand and address his friend if the health of his family would permit. It was the unusual regret of all present that the gallant Major could not be with us. He is a great favorite with the Point Caswell and Caintuck people, as he is throughout the county and the entire district. Capt. Paddison promised the people that they should hear from the Major on more than one occasion before the campaign ended. The next thing in order was dinner, and oh! how can I describe it? A table, fully a hundred feet long, loaded lit it actually groaned under the weight of the good things, bread, beef, mutton, ham, vegetables, pies, cakes, preserves, pickles and watermelons. Well, we all took it in till we had to surrender, and I really believe there was enough left to feed as many more. Too much praise cannot be given the ladies for the manner in which the dinner was gotten up, and their efforts to make every one happy. After dinner, Mr. Pierce, the owner of the Oklahoma, gave the ladies an excursion down the river on his beautiful boat, which was highly appreciated by them. With this closed one of the most pleasant gatherings that has ever taken place in the history of Caintuck. PENDER.

A Nuisance.
There are several gangs of colored boys in the city who are an absolute nuisance. They meet together in the alleys, and on the streets on the outskirts of the city and indulge in fighting, profane and obscene language to the real annoyance of all well disposed and orderly people. We hope that some means may be discovered by which they may be suppressed.

Every Farmer ought to get a "Boy Clipper Flow," greatest invention of the age. JACOB'S is the Agent.

There has been a good breeze from the Southwest all day and the yachtsmen at the Sound have had a plenty of wind for the race. A large party went down from the city to witness the contest, which promises to be one of the most interesting and exciting ever sailed over the Wrightsville course.
The next session of Wilmington Presbytery will convene at Rock Fish (Presbyterian) church, near Duplin Roads, in Duplin county, on Thursday before the fourth Sunday in September. Ministers, delegates and visitors attending by rail will leave the cars at Duplin Roads, it being but one mile thence to the church.
Maj. C. M. Stedman and Judge Faircloth will meet in joint discussion on the political issues of the campaign at Burgaw on Monday, September 29th. It will be a high old time for Pender and it is very probable that a good many of our citizens will be on hand to see the fun. The speakers will address the people of Robeson at Lumberton, Sept. 26th, and the people of Cumberland at Fayetteville, Sept. 27th.
We learn that the bicycle club of this city is a member of the League American Wheelmen, which has a membership of between 2,000 and 3,000, all of whom are governed by the same general rules and regulations. The club here is in a prosperous condition and its members are young men of character, who take much pleasure in the exercise and much pride in the organization.
