CHARITY BEGINS AT HOME

No. 15,365.

New Orleans Men Win Parts of the Capital Price of $75,000

Eugene Gaudins, warehouseman for Messrs. B. Onorato & Co. for some time, is a good and true worker. He was comparatively happy at his home, No. 231 St. Peter street, and in his walks he passed a place in which the tickets of the Louisiana State Lottery Company are displayed. He had purchased tickets in partnership with his fellow-workers. During August, he saw displayed one which particularly struck his fancy—No. 15,365—whether it was the peculiar arrangement of the 5's, or the magical placing of the 3, even Gaudins is at a loss to explain. But that particular ticket haunted him; peeped out enticingly from the window, begging plainly to be bought. The day was close at hand, and still it hung in the window. Its comrades were dropping off, and when the last day, the 12th, arrived, it was almost to be pitted for its loneliness. Gaudins each day glanced hastily to see if his little friend was still in place, stated several times to walk boldly in and buy on his sole account; but the old tram of the partnership arrangement held him, until the last moment. Ten o'clock on the morning of the 12th he held safely in his sole possession one-fifth of the coveted ticket. The revolutions of the wheel at the Academy of Music brought out No. 15,365 as drawing the Capital prize. The fact was published and came soon to the ears of Gaudins, who yesterday was poor, but to-day, by the investment of a dollar, ranks among "bondholders."

He called at the office of The Louisiana State Lottery with Mr. B. Onorato, and was promptly paid in full. A reporter wanted to know what he proposed to do, and he answered that he would buy a nice home for his family, and that seeing them placed beyond the reach of want and in comfort would be as much happiness as he desired. The balance of his money he would try to invest profitably, and would himself continue to play his modest part unspoiled by prosperity. He signed his name neatly to the receipt for the money and went out of the office of the Lottery as happy and contented a man as the Crescent City now contains.—New Orleans Picayune, August 15th.

Hearing that another fortunate holder of a part of the lucky number 15,365, drawing $75,000 in the August scheme of The Louisiana State Lottery, was on hand to collect his money, a reporter interviewed him. Mr. Louis S. Young, the fortunate gentleman, was found in the office of the Lottery with two friends. He had presented his one-fifth ticket, and was awaiting the making out of the check for the amount it called for. While appreciating fully his fortune, he was perfectly cool and pleasant.

He told the reporter that he was a native of Memphis, Tenn., and served in the Confederate army in the battle of Shiloh under Gen. Albert Sidney Johnston and Beauregard. His health, impaired by army service, had grown much worse of late years, and he came here to benefit himself. As his means were limited, he went to work on the buildings of the great World's Fair to be held in New Orleans next winter. He stuck to it steadily for nearly five months, although it almost concentered the good done him by the genial climate.

He was a firm believer in luck, and never failed to purchase a ticket in the Louisiana State Lottery. His experience in purchasing No. 15,365 has confirmed him in his belief. He was pleased with the country and the people; was delighted with everything, and hoped to enjoy his good fortune. He had not formed any distinct plans for the future, but would remain at ease for some time recuperating, not forgetting always to try his luck in the lottery that had proved such a bonanza to him.—New Orleans Picayune, August 16.

STATE NEWS.

News and Observer: President Kemp P. Battle, who has been spending part of his vacation on Staten Island, New York, the guest of Mr. Kemp P. Battle, second assistant surgeon in the Marine hospital service, returned to Chapel Hill Tuesday so as to meet the incoming freshmen yesterday, the beginning of the session of the University. The Democrats of Chatham have nominated for the Senate, T. B. Womack; for the House, J. A. Alston; for Register of Deeds, Capt. L. R. Exline; for Sheriff, S. T. Brewer; for Coroner, Dr. J. B. Burns. At the Republican First Congressional Convention John B. Respass, of Beaufort county, was nominated for Congress and J. W. Albertson, of Pasquotank, for elector. The Democrats are to pass with the nomination. Yesterday the Republican and Liberal State Executive Committees placed the names of the following upon the ticket, thus making it complete: George W. Stanton, for Treasurer; W. G. Chandler, for Secretary of State; Stanton was nominated for Secretary of State, and Washington Duke for Treasurer. The latter declined the nomination. A gentleman who traveled last week from Raleigh to the Hamlet line and thence through that county, says he never saw such upland corn in his life. He says Harnett is a regular "Egypt." The cotton, however, is suffering in all this section from the drought. The weather of the past week has been particularly hurtful. The cotton farmers are drying up and falling off. There is, he says, less "fruit" on the cotton stalks than since the now-famous dry summer of 1880.

BLACKWELLS

Portrait of Mr. J. S. Carr, Pres. with testimonial text: DEAR SIR:—I take great pleasure in recommending your celebrated Smoking Tobacco as free from impurities, of excellent flavor, and should be a favorite with all tobacco smokers. Very respectfully, J. S. Carr, Senator from Illinois.

Portrait of Alfred Tennyson with testimonial text: Thackeray's gifted daughter, Anne, in her sketch of Alfred Tennyson, in Harper's Monthly, tells of her visit to the great poet. She found him smoking Blackwell's Bull Durham Tobacco, sent him by Hon. James Russell Lowell, American Minister to the Court of St. James.

Portrait of U. S. Senator, Washington, D. C., April 8, 1884, with testimonial text: DEAR SIR:—For five years past I have used constantly the Blackwell Durham Smoking Tobacco. I regard it as the best and most satisfactory smoking tobacco I have ever used, and take great pleasure in recommending it to all who, like myself, are fond of the pipe.

Portrait of Mr. J. S. Carr, Pres. with testimonial text: DEAR SIR:—I take great pleasure in recommending your celebrated Smoking Tobacco as free from impurities, of excellent flavor, and should be a favorite with all tobacco smokers. Very respectfully, J. S. Carr, Senator from South Carolina.

Portrait of Alfred Tennyson with testimonial text: I have been for over twenty years a constant smoker. I find in Blackwell's Durham "that true excellence found in no other brand—uniformity; every package being the same. I can smoke it at all times, day and night, with impunity; it acts as a mild and pleasant stimulant, always quiets my nerves, and in no way disagrees with me. It is a great comforter, a pure, sweet and mild smoke.

Portrait of U. S. Senator, Washington, D. C., April 9, 1884, with testimonial text: DEAR SIR:—In reply to your favor, it gives me pleasure to say that I have used the Blackwell Durham Smoking Tobacco, manufactured by your company, and have found it A No. 1, in quality and flavor. Yours truly, J. H. Howell, Senator from Missouri.

Portrait of Mr. J. S. Carr, Pres. with testimonial text: DEAR SIR:—I am now smoking your most excellent Durham Tobacco, and can most heartily recommend it to all smokers of the weed. It is free from all impurities, imparts a pleasant aroma, and is preferable to all other brands of tobacco that I have smoked.

Portrait of Alfred Tennyson with testimonial text: For ten or twelve years I have used Blackwell's Durham Smoking Tobacco, and find it the most satisfactory of all I have tried. I gave Thomas Carlyle a pound of it, as we often smoked together, and he warmly praised it. I have found no tobacco on either continent that compares with it.

Portrait of U. S. Senator, Washington, D. C., April 10, 1884, with testimonial text: DEAR SIR:—In answer to yours of yesterday I have to say that I have for many years used the Blackwell's Durham Smoking Tobacco and prefer it to any other that I have tried.
