Andrew Carnegie is said to be negotiating for the purchase of one of the leading New York papers.

The gallows, it is said, has caused more deaths this year than during any corresponding period in the history of the United States.

The Monongahela Record, published within 14 miles of Blaine's birthplace, whose editor has heretofore been a Republican, has come out red hot for Cleveland and Hendricks.

Cardinal Newman's health lately has given considerable anxiety to his friends, but it is announced that he is thoroughly restored to his usual vigor and is quite a new man.

William Drysdale, known in both Philadelphia and New York journalism, has gone by the steamer Chenfu- que for a long tour among the West Indies and in South America.

Dr. David S. Hart, of Stonington, Conn., is the oldest school teacher in the State. He was born in 1799, began teaching in 1816, graduated in 1823, and does not use spectacles yet.

Martin Dukes a veteran who fought with Captain Lawrence in the Hornet in 1812, is still living at the age of 96 under the shade of Bunker Hill monument, regularly reads the papers and intends to vote for Cleveland.

A son of Henry Ward Beecher is captain of a steamboat plying along the beaten man, with a sun-browned straw hat and looking like a mechanic.

A model of an overhead electric rail-the inventor declares will attain a parcels at first.

In addition to ex-Governor Pound, news comes from Wisconsin that Col.
S. B. Boynton, John H. McGregor and Hans Crocker, all of whom were delegates to the Republican National Convention in 1880, have repudiated Blaine and declared for Cleveland.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VIII. WILMINGTON, N. C. SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1884. NO. 213

Some remarkable photographs of a pistol bullet in its flight—under the illumination of an electric spark—have been secured by Prof. Moch, of Prague.

Sam Small, of Atlanta, Ga., boats of having more than eighty scrap books covering the political history of men and events in Georgia for forty years past and the general opinion in the family is that Small's books are big things.

The Albany correspondent of the Boston Herald, who has been doing some figuring on the probable result of the election in New York State, gives Mr. Cleveland a plurality of 50,000.
He allows Butler 50,000 Democrit votes, while the World says he is not likely to poll 15,000.

At most of the New England resorts the season now fast drawing to a close has been a social and financial failure.
Some of the hotels have become heavily involved in debt, and others have included the local sheriff among their most recent distinguished arrivals.

The Misses Grant, Lawrence and Winslow are mentioned as being the most admired among the young American beauties who went down to Cowes in the train of Lady Landeville when Prince George of Wales was made a Knight of the Garter.

Mr. Andrew Carnegie, the Scotch-Pennsylvania millionaire manufacturer, is profoundly impressed by the belief that the people of Great Britain are almost immediately in favor of a republic, and hence his profuse investments of money in liberal newspaper ventures in England.

The Medical Record (N. Y.) states that quinine has lately sold as low as $1 an ounce. The decline is due to the removal of the tariff duty and over production among foreign manufacturers. The world produces about 4, 500,000 ounces; it is manufactured mostly in Germany and Italy. America consumes about forty per cent. of the total production. Prior to the removal of the tariff 1,500,000 ounces were made here, but raw material is now imported here from the East Indies, at the rate of 6,000,000, pounds and then sent to Europe to be manufactured.

When Noah was in the Ark young Ham was always playing tricks on the old gentleman. One day he told his sea-faring father that there was water in the cellar and they all had caught cold! Then it dawned on Noah that he had omitted to secure a supply of Dr.
Bull's Cough Syrup, which he always used.

the corresponding week last year, a decrease of 445 bales.

Dock street where she was tested and found in good working order.

Eliza Conner, colored, about 24 years of age, dropped dead last night, in her house on Wooster street, between Sixth and Seventh. Heart disease was supposed to be the cause of death. She was a widow and leaves two children.

Mr. Will West opens to-night his new saloon on North Front street where he invites everybody and his friends to call and see him. He has called it "The Gem" and the name strikes as being very appropriate. It is handsomer fitted up and will doubtless become a very popular place of resort.— Mr. James Lewis is with Mr. West.

The Winston Sentinel says: Rev.
E. S. Alderman, of Wilmington, and a talented student of the Southern Theological Seminary, preached an eloquent and effective sermon at the Baptist Church last Sunday night. Mr. Alderman is quite a young man, and is destined to become a pulpit orator of considerable note.

The Asheville Fair.

Thanks to Mr. F. N. Waddell for an invitation to attend the First Fair of the Western North Carolina Fair Association, to be held at Asheville on the 23d, 24th, 25th and 26th inst. The invitation is accompanied by a copy of the premium list, which makes a very attractive showing. It is likely that the attendance will be very large.

New Grocery.

Mr. L. G. Cherry has opened a new grocery store at Mr. Harry Loeb's old stand, corner North Water and Princess streets, which he will keep well supplied with a full line of goods. This is in addition to the business now conducted by him at the corner of Market and Second street, which will be continued by him as heretofore.

A Fine Plant.

The finest specimen of the plant known in botany as the caladium esculen- tum and to the ladies as the tannia we have ever seen was grown by Mrs.
James Alderman of this city. It is five feet two inches in height, and has leaves measuring three feet three inches in breadth and two feet three inches in width. It is situated where quantities of water is thrown upon it, and the superiority of this specimen over all others not so placed proves it to be emphatically a water plant. The caladium esculentum is one of the handsomest of the ornamental leaved plants.

Mr. I. Shrier, of this city, has received the sole agency here for the celebrated Diamond Shirts, manufactured by Daniel Miller & Co., of Baltimore.
These shirts have already attained a large reputation in this country.

The Survey.

Capt. Rod. McRae, engineer in charge of the experimental survey of a railroad line between this city and Fayetteville, having completed the work assigned him, returned to the city last night. He has not yet made his report, nor will he be able to do so for several days. The entire route surveyed by him is a fraction more than 82 miles although he says that a line might be adopted which would make the distance something less than 80 miles. The line through would be much better than he expected, and the people along the entire route are enthusiastic for its early completion.

Jute Culture.

At the office of Maj. W. L. Young, on Princess street, may be seen samples of jute raised by Mr. R. H. Brown on his plantation near Hallsville, Duplin county. These samples will average 12 feet in length and from 3,000 to 4,000 pounds can be raised on an acre of well prepared good land. They will form an interesting part of Maj.
Young's exhibit at the State Exposition.
The lowlands on the Northeast river are peculiarly adapted to the growth of jute where it may be cultivated as successfully as upon the noted bottoms of the Red River.

Personal.

Mr. J. D. Sublett, of Hotel Brunswick, was in the city to-day and registered at the Purcell House.

Mr. Jas. McD. French, who has been spending his Summer partly at Hendersonville and partly on the road, paid us a pleasant visit to-day. The result of his observations is that the election prospects are very good, that corn will be a large crop and that cotton will yield a good average. Mr.
French travels for his house, and by the way, we find in the Wilson Advance this pleasant notice:

Our genial friend J. McD. French, the affable representative of the excellent shoe house of G. E. French & Sons, of Wilmington, has been in town this week, where his many virtues of head and heart have made him a host of friends, who are always rejoiced to see the sunny smiles of his beaming face. He is indeed a polished gentleman, and no wonder he counts his friends by the score.

Mr. H. Brunhill and family, who have spent the Summer in Europe, are expected to return here in about two weeks. They are to leave Southampton on the 11th inst., on the steamship Eden.

"Our Great Need."

EDITOR REVIEW:—In your issue of the 5th inst., an article headed "Our Great Need—Industrial Enterprises" &c., &c., brings to my mind what I would amount to do four years ago. It was: For 50 or a 100 or more taxpayers to join together in a paper writing and state to the public that an agreement is entered into which should be legally binding and agreeing to pay over two and a half per cent upon all of their assessed taxable property in the City of Wilmington to any live manufacturing company or corporation that should invest $100,000 permanently. If it should amount to $1,000,000, two and a half per cent. would amount to $25,000. Would not that have a tendency to call attention to those embarking in the manufacturing interests to bring them to Wilmington, and would we not be benefited many fold over and above what we would give as a bonus to secure various manufactures in our town, and would it not have a sure result of increasing the present rapid prosperity of our city? F. W. F.

As will be seen the above is in response to an article which appeared in our local columns on the 5th inst., in the subject indicated, and the ideas of our correspondent are well worthy of consideration. Capital is bound to seek the most promising and most inviting localities for investment. It will not leave home unless it sees more than a possible chance of being benefited by the change. There is nothing more cautious and timid, as a general rule, than capital. It has been generally secured through patient toil, little by little, and those who are its possessors are not prone to risk it in any doubtful or hazardous enterprise. Capital is one of the great needs of Wilmington to put it securely on the road to success and every legitimate means should be used to secure such an increase of capital from the outside world as will make our prosperity assured and permanent. The plan proposed by our correspondent is a good one, and it can be carried into execution with but little risk to those immediately concerned and it would undoubtedly have the effect of bringing capital from abroad to help swell our present wealth.

Forging Ahead.

We find the following items of railroad news, interesting to the people of this city, in the Clinton Caucasian of this week's issue:

Capt. R. P. Paddison was here yesterday. He is pushing the work on his contract to build and equip 15 miles of the Point Caswell Railroad, beginning at Point Caswell. He is grading half a mile a week and proposes to continue the work to completion. He informed us that there is on foot a proposition to have the charter of the road extended from Clinton to Raleigh. There would be no trouble to get convict labor to do the grading on easy terms, and there is no reason why the project cannot be carried to a speedy consummation.— Such a road would be a big bonanza to Sampson and to the entire section through which it would pass. It would also add greatly to the commercial interests of the City of Oaks and the City by the Sea, as well as afford quick and easy transit from the one to the other.
It seems to be pretty well determined that the Wilmington extension of Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley road will follow the direct route. The survey has already been made, and it will cross Black River at Point Caswell. Thus, with this extension completed, the Pt.
C. road built to Raleigh, and the branch road built from Clinton to Warsaw, our entire people would have railroad facilities unsurpassed by those of any section of the State. These roads can all be built. Then why not?

A photograph of the interior of the new market house was taken this morning under direction of Fish Commissioner Worth, who designs it for the State Exposition.

The article yesterday in the State News column, credited to the Gold- sboro Times, should have been Wades- boro Times. We wrote it correctly but it escaped us in the proof.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 68 bales.

Another large consignment of Sash, Doors & Blinds at Factory prices. Just received at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.
