of Guilford.

FOR LIEUT. GOVERNOR:
CHARLES M. STEDMAN,
of New Hanover.

FOR SECRETARY OF STATE:
WILLIAM L. SAUNDERS,
of Wake.

FOR STATE TREASURER:
DONALD W. BAIN,
of Wake.

FOR AUDITOR:
W. P. ROBERTS,
of Gates.

FOR ATTORNEY-GENERAL:
THEODORE F. DAVIDSON,
of Buncombe.

FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC IN-STRUCTION:
S. M. FINGER,
of Catawba.

ASSOCIATE JUSTICE SUPREME COURT:
A. S. MERRIMON,
of Wake.

FOR ELECTORS AT-LARGE:
W. H. KITCHEN,
JOHN N. STAPLES.

FOR CONGRESS:
R. T. BENNETT,

ELECTOR, SIXTH DISTRICT, ALFRED ROWLAND,
of Robeson.

Of the 60,000 Jews in New York city not one is a bartender.

Lord Tennyson will publish a new poem some time this autumn.

James Gordon Bennett appeared in costume as a polo player at Newport on Thursday.

The first entertainment for the season at the Opera House will be on the 25th inst., when Tony Denier's Humpty Dumpty troupe will put in an appearance.

Mr. Bennett has been enjoined from using his steam launch by the steamboat inspectors of Newport because the boilers are made of English, instead of American iron.

The restoration, now advancing, of the great north door of Westminster Abbey is said to have cost $60,000.— This gives a notion of the cost at present prices of such a fabric.

A corporation has been formed in New York, with a capital stock of $100,000, the objects of which are "to acquire patents useful in the construction of arms and ammunition, to sell the same, to work thereunder, and to manufacture and sell arms and ammunition, especially with the application of electricity thereto."

New York city is to have within two weeks an additional supply of 10,000,000 gallons of water a day by the completion of the Kensico line, which has been building for more than two years, and which will connect with the Croton water mains. The water is to come from Lake Rye, whose source arises exclusively from boiling springs.

Mr. W. W. Corcoran, the Washington philanthropist, is now upward of 84 years of age, and is yet strong and vigorous. He has grown somewhat peculiar, however, about his eating, never touching anything not prepared by his own cook, or coming from his own house. If he expects to be absent from home at lunch he carries a hearty luncheon with him, which he takes out and eats at the proper time with great relish.

Pulpit Praise.

The pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, Winston, North Carolina, Rev. A. B. Lawrence, writes, that having suffered several years with inflammatory rheumatism, he was induced to try St. Jacobs Oil, the marvelous pain-cure, which cured him.

Now is the time to give Smith's Worm Oil.

le can be found at JACOBI'S.

The storm signal was hoisted at about 10:30 o'clock this forenoon.

We have had frequent showers during the day. They were much needed.

The Young Men's Devotional Society will meet at the Second Presbyterian Church at 8 o'clock to-morrow night.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the thermometer in this office registered 84 degrees

Dyer & Son, at 34 Front street, have an elegant line of fall suitings; they are taking lots of orders.

There has been plenty of rain but great discomfort was the result. About noon to-day it was as sultry and disagreeable as we care to see it.

We invite the attention of our citizens to the fact that first quality shirts are being made to order at one dollar at the Wilmington Shirt Factory.

The New York Herald emits no uncertain sound when it says editorially that "the Democratic ticket is going to be triumphantly elected in November."

There were indications of a storm at Jacksonville, Fla., this morning, which threatened to move up the Atlantic coast. Strong Northeast winds were prevailing.

We learn from the News and Observer that Capt. G. L. Dudley, Private Secretary to the Governor, who for a week has been quite sick, is now at Round Knob hotel.

Schr. Lizzie Lane, Herriek, cleared to-day for Port-au-Prince, Hayti, with 135,000 feet lumber and 65,000 shingles, valued at $2,119.65, shipped by Messrs.
Northrop & Cumming.

The Greensboro Patriot says that there is talk of running a fast mail to this city over the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. via Shoe Heel, making the time between Greensboro and Wilmington eight hours.

We call attention to the advertisement of the sale at auction to-morrow, under the direction of Mr. W. A. French, assignee, of a valuable residence on Second street, between Market and Princess.

Dr. Charles F. Deems, of the Church of the Strangers, New York, will deliver a course of lectures in Raleigh during the Exposition, in aid of the Ladies' Aid Society of Edenton Street Methodist church.

The Young Men's Democratic Club will hold an important meeting at the City Court Room at 8:30 o'clock tonight. It is hoped that there may be a full attendance and that every ward in the city may be well represented.

We are requested to state that Mr.
Edwin W. Kerr and Maj. C. W. Mc-Clammy will address the citizens of Pender, Sampson and Bladen counties at Point Caswell on Wednesday next, the 17th inst. A big turnout is expected on that occasion.

There are 17 prisoners now confined in the county jail. Of this number, one is awaiting trial before the United States Court, one is held as a witness before the same tribunal, three are from Pender county, one from Pitt county and eleven from this county.

Cards of invitation have been sent out for a dinner to be given at Capt. Mayo's, at the Rocks, on Friday next, but owing to unavoidable circumstances the dinner has been postponed until Monday next. The REVIEW staff tender thanks for a cordial invitation to be present.

The News and Observer says: Frequent inquiries are made as to whether the State Board of Education is going to make an apportionment from the State treasury for the benefit of the public schools for the current year. At present, we are authoritatively informed, it is impossible to say whether the apportionment will be made or not, but it is probable that it will not.

A Bad Couple.

About 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon officer Chadwick came to police headquarters with two colored men in his charge, one of whom accused the other of committing a murder. Mayor Hall investigated the matter, when it appeared they they had joined company while walking on the railroad track and kept together until they reached Duplin Road where they both boarded a train and came to this city on Monday night. They gave their names as Lewis Wilkins and John Henry Williams. The former claimed to have been a former resident of this city, while the latter hailed from Pitt county.
After arriving Wilkins found a place in which his companion could sleep, and managed by some very smooth talk to get possession of Williams' money and a valise containing clothing and other articles, giving him in return what he claimed was a "loadstone" which possessed supernatural powers that would enable him to go where-ever he pleased without any difficulty.
Like a silly gudgeon, Williams swallowed this nonsense, and yesterday morning Wilkins took the articles he had got from Williams, telling the latter to remain where he was until the former should return. Williams soon after began to "mell a mize" and started after Wilkins in order to regain his property, but the latter, in order to get rid of Williams, turned him over to officer Chadwick, charging that he had confessed, while on the road, that he had committed a murder in Pitt county.

The fact was revealed during the investigation that Wilkins had disposed of the property, but the articles were all recovered and fully identified by Williams, the latter having minutely described them before they were exposed to view. The testimony was so conclusive that Wilkins was required to give a bond in the sum of $50 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, in default of which he was committed.

While the papers were being made out committing Wilkins to jail, he made use of certain expressions regarding Williams which justified the detention of the latter until the matter could be further investigated. With this in view Justice Hill went to the jail and took the affidavit of Wilkins, in which the latter declared that Williams had voluntarily confessed that he had killed a man in Pitt county, named Moses Berry, by knocking him in the head with an axe, in consequence of which Williams was sent to jail for safe keeping until the authorities of Pitt could be communicated with. While on the way to the jail Williams voluntarily told the officers who had him in charge that he killed a man in Pitt about ten days ago. He sailed under quite a number of aliases and told many different stories regarding himself. Irving Davis and Irving Long were among his numerous names, the latter of which is thought to be the correct one.

Both men are undoubtedly as bad and wicked as they well can be, and we have not a doubt that our community is all the more safe from pillage while they are incarcerated.

Good News.

Col. E. D. Hall received a letter this morning concerning the situation and outlook in New York for Cleveland.
The letter was in response to inquiries made by Col. Hall and was written by a member of the firm of E. Sweeney & Sons, who are large quarriers and contractors for the famous North river blue stone. We have been kindly permitted to copy the letter, which is as follows:

NEW YORK, Sept. 8th, 1884.
Hon. E. D. Hall—Dear Sir.—Your favor of the 1st inst. was duly received and I take more pleasure in replying at this date than I would have felt two weeks ago. To-day there is a certainty of the State being carried by Cleveland; two weeks ago there were grave doubts, owing to the dissatisfaction of local branches of the Democracy, especially Tammany Hall.
Two weeks ago bets were freely made against Cleveland carrying New York.
To-day the bets are reversed. Everything points to Cleveland as our next President of the United States. I believe, candidly, that he will be as much a tidal wave President as he was a "tidal wave" Governor. Hoping you are well, believe me to be.

Yours, very respectfully,
WM. A. SWEENEY.

Quarterly Conference.

We are requested to state that the next Quarterly Conference of Topsail Circuit of the Methodist E Church will be held on Wednesday, the 17th inst., at Prospect Church, on Middle Sound, in New Hanover county. The Presiding Elder of this Conference District, Rev.
Dr. Bobbitt, will preside.

We call attention to the notice in this issue of the meeting of the Y. M. D. C. of New Hanover county, and we express our pleasure at the announcement that it is about to recommence its work. We well recollect how effective its service was in the last campaign, and we bespeak for it the earnest support of all young Democrats, whom we hope will attend the meeting and enroll their names as members.

Major McClammy.

Major C. W. McClammy will speak at Wadesboro at Saturday next, the 13th inst., and at Kenansville on Tuesday next, the 16th. He will then go to Onslow and will speak at various points in that county during the remainder of the week. Major McClammy is doing some splendid work in this campaign.

Personal.

Maj. J. C. Winder, General Manager of the Carolina Central R. R., was in the city to-day.

Our esteemed friend, Mr. J. D.
Smithdeal, was again in the city yesterday and gave us the pleasure of a call. He was on his return from a flying visit to New York and left for his home in South Carolina last night.

Miss Lula Reeves, of Caldwell, Tex., is in the city and is the guest of Miss Mittie Monroe. Miss Reeves is on her way to Montgomery College, at Christianburg, Va.

The Deadly Lamp.

The wife of Jack Nixon, colored, at the Walker place, near Rocky Point, was fatally burned on last Saturday night, from the careless handling of a lighted lamp containing kerosene oil.
It had no chimney or shade. The woman was sitting near a door of her house, with the lamp on her lap, and the wind blowing in upon the lighted lamp caused an explosion. The oil caught on fire and the flames spread with the oil over her body so extensively and severely as to cause her death in a few hours. Lamps containing kerosene oil cannot be used too carefully when lighted and ought never to be used so that the wind blows upon them.

Items from Burgaw.

A note from a friend at Burgaw contains some matters of general interest.
It is very dry in that locality, and the people are wishing and hoping for rain, as it is sorely needed. The crops are very good, but the crops of late corn, potatoes and upland rice will be cut off considerably unless copious showers fall very soon.

A very interesting series of meetings which have been held in the Presbyterian church for some days past, conducted by that devout and earnest divine, Rev. Mr. Phillips, have met with good results. The meetings closed on Monday night with six conversions, and thirteen added by letters from other churches. This gives an addition of nineteen new members to the already flourishing congregation at Burgaw.

We are sorry to hear that the health of the town is not good just at present.
As usual at this season of the year, there is more or less suffering from malarial attacks, and the physicians who practice at Burgaw are all kept busy.

The Lawn Party.

Willing hands of loving women were busily employed yesterday in preparing for the Lawn party, on the corner of Dock and Third streets, given by the ladies of St. Thomas' Catholic Church last night, and when the hour for assembling had arrived the grounds presented an almost enchanting appearance. The beauty of the scene was heightened by the presence of the many guests, who, as they sauntered about or gathered in groups, reminded one of some fairy tale. Refreshments were there in plenty; the music was good; the dancing, which was kept up until a late hour, was graceful and the hours glided by on rapid wings. The great feature of the occasion, however, and one in which there was a lively interest, was centered in who should be the recipient of the gold headed cane which was to be presented to the most popular physician, as determined by vote. When the vote was taken Dr. E. S. Pigford was declared "elected" by a fair majority.

The doctor was not present at the time and there is no doubt that he was agreeably surprised when the returns were all in and the votes had been counted to find that he was the lucky man. We congratulate the doctor on his success, of which he has just reason to be proud, as the physicians of Wilmington are all popular.

Another large consignment of Sash, Doors & Blinds at Factory prices, just received at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

PLEASE NOTICE.
We will be glad to receive communication from our friends on any and all subjects, general interest but The name of the writer must always be attached to the Editor.
Communications must be written on one side of the paper.
Personalities must be avoided.
And it is especially and particularly respected that the Editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents unless so state in the editorial column.

Last of the Season.

Talking about balls, there is to be a grand affair at Stokley Bros' pavilion, on Wrightsville Sound, to-morrow night. As it is to be the last of the season, great preparations will be made for it. The proprietors want to wind up with a grand flourish, and they promise not only some excellent music for dancing, but they propose the best pig fish supper of the season, and these delicious fish, it is said, are nicer in September than during any other month of the year.

City Court.

This morning was the time appointed for the examination of Mr. Sol.
Robbins for the shooting of policeman Latham. The accused was brought before the Mayor and, through Mr.
Marsden Bellamy, who appeared as his counsel, waived an examination.
The witnesses were recognized for their appearance to testify in the case at the next term of the Criminal Court, and the accused was remanded until the opinion of Dr. F. W. Potter, the city physician, could be ascertained, to see whether he might be admitted to bail or not.
