Young Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt pooch-pooches the story that he recently lost $3,000,000 in stock speculation.

The artists and picture dealers at Paris agree that this is a bad year. No one, not even Americans, is buying pictures.

Robert Bonner paid $227,060 for eight trotters: Joe Elliott, Edwin Forrest, Edward Everett, Startle, Pocahontas, Dexter, Rarus and Maud S.

M. DeLesseps declares that the real reason for excluding George Sand from the Academy was that if a woman once got in, in ten years there would be none but women in the Academy.

The audience at McKee Rankin's Theatre is now seated by lady ushers.
Mrs. Rankin herself trained these gentle creatures, and the New York papers say she has made a success of it.

English papers are sending out their best correspondents on the Gordon Re-liet Expedition, among them being Messrs Cameron, of the Telegraph, O'Kelly, of the News, and Melton Prior, of the Illustrated London News.

Munkacz, one of the greatest living artists, who painted "Christ before Pilate," has just been put in a private madhouse near Paris. He thought a passing file of soldiers about to assassinate him, shrieked wildly for aid, and was found to be hopelessly mad.

The Huntington Railway system, connecting the Atlantic and Pacific, was completed a day or two ago, when the last spike was driven on the Mississippi Valley Road linking Memphis and New Orleans. This system is more than 4,000 miles in length.

The Democratic nominee for Governor of Massachusetts is Judge Wm Endicott, a lineal descendant of that bold and energetic old Puritan, Endicott, the first Governor of Massachusetts (1644-1645), and inherits the strong ability of his colonial ancestor, without his bigotry. He is a graduate of the Boston Latin School, of Harvard, and served nine years on the bench of the Massachusetts Supreme Court—resigning in 1860.

My father, says Mr. W. M. Harrison, proprietor of the Waterloo, Iowa, Dye Works, tried a great many remedies for rheumatism, without effect and finally tried St. Jacobs Oil, the great pain-cure, and was cured.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VIII. WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1884. NO. 219

Lula Hurst, the "Georgia Wonder," is said to be a cousin of Joel Chandler Harris, the humorist.

The Cunard steamship Aurania arrived in New York on Sunday, having made the run from Queenstown in seven days, two hours and seventeen minutes. The Oregon still retains her title of "Queen of the Ocean," as her run in April last was made in six days, ten hours and nine minutes.

Carter Harrison is the most popular Democrat in Illinois. He is specially strong with the Irish, German and Polish voters, whose political strength at the ballot boxes in Chicago alone is respectively 20,000, 40,000 and 4,000.
The combined foreign vote of Chicago is more than 70,000, against 25,000 natives. Carter Harrison expects to be elected Governor in Logan's State, and if any man can perform that prodigy he is that man.

New Orleans has now six trunk railways. The freight handled both ways by rail in New Orleans the last commercial year reached a total of about 1,400,000 tons, which would fill 140,000 cars and make up 5,000 trains, or over 15 trains per day throughout the year.
During that period 826,072 bales of cotton reached New Orleans by water and 802,655 bales by rail. The tendency of the modern railway, even by the Father of Waters, is to displace river transportation.

Mrs. Belva Lockwood was asked recently whether her nomination for the Presidency would receive the support of the Woman Suffragists. She replied: "Certainly not. You must remember that women are divided up into as many factions and parties as the men. There is the Women's Christian Temperance Union, under the leadership of Miss Frances Willard; there are the Suffragists, headed by Mrs. Stanton and Miss Anthony; and there is the American party, controlled by Mrs. Livermore and Mrs. Blackwell. Now the political situation is just this: Miss Willard united the temperance women with the Prohibition party at Pittsburgh and had a plank inserted to catch the Suffragists; but the latter, finding that they were going to play second fiddle to the temperance people, came out for Blaine and Logan. The American party have also endorsed the Republican candidates. Now, I thought that women who believed in women's rights and temperance ought not to hang on to the skirts of the Republican party any longer, and I expressed these sentiments in a letter which was published recently in several of the papers for women. The nomination is the result of the expression of those sentiments."

Patti, it is said, guards herself carefully against cold. She evidently does not believe in free courcets, but does believe in the free use of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, as it has cured her several times.

Day's length 12 hours and 26 minutes.

There was no City Court this morning.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 107 bales.

Sunset to-morrow afternoon at 8 minutes past 6 o'clock.

There was one interment in Oakdale Cemetery this week, a child.

We are having pleasant weather again and many are rejoiced thereat.

There was one interment that of a child, in Bellevue Cemetery this week.

There were two interments in Pine Forest Cemetery this week; one adult and one child.

Rev. J. W. Craig, of this city, will preach at Smithville to-morrow morning and evening at the usual hours of service.

The Register of Deeds issued five marriage licences this week, three of which were for white and two for colored couples.

Now is the time to give Smith's Worm Oil.

The recent heavy rains here appear to have extended all along the Wilmington & Weldon R. R. and as far North as Jarrett's, on the Petersburg & Weldon R. R.

Rev. A. M. Conway, of the First Baptist Church, colored, will fill his pulpit to-morrow night at 8:30 o'clock.
Subject: The Corruption of Human Nature.

Rev. Colin Shaw will conduct services to-morrow morning and evening at usual hours at Second Presbyterian church. There will be a congregational meeting at close of evening service.

As will be seen elsewhere, there will be a meeting of the third Ward Democratic Club at the City Court Room on the night of Tuesday, the 16th inst. It will be for the purpose of reorganization and we hope there may be a full attendance.

The pilots at Smithville report that there was a three-masted schooner anchored outside yesterday with the Chagres fever on board. The name of the schooner or her captain was not learned; neither was it known whence she came or whither she was bound.

The last regatta of the season of the Carolina Yacht Club was sailed over the Wrightsville course yesterday, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. We have as yet been unable to obtain a record of the sailing, which we will publish as soon as it comes to hand.

We understand that Mr. Thos. W.
Strange, of this city, has accepted an invitation extended to him and will speak at Point Caswell on Wednesday next, 17th inst., together with Major McClammy and Mr. E. W. Kerr. Our friends in that section are preparing for a big time on that day.

The Charlotte Observer says: Judge A. A. McKoy left yesterday for his home, where he will remain until Sunday. On Monday morning he will open the fall term of the Superior Court of Cabarrus county, in Concord. Judge McKoy's bearing on the bench makes him a great favorite everywhere.

le can be found at JACOB'S.

A Convenience.

The Western Union Telegraph office in this city has taken a "new department" which will add much to the convenience of the business men here. It consists in making a circuit of the city, carrying the wire to all places where it is desired. In such places "call boxes," are affixed free of cost, where the person who wants to do business with the office, by simply pressing a lever, notifies headquarters and a messenger is at once sent in response to the call. These "call boxes" are registered at the office so that when the alarm is given the manager knows exactly where to send the messenger. It is a neat, useful and cunning arrangement for the accommodation of our merchants, as well as for the expedition of business at the office.

Personal.

Rev. Dr. Carmichael is expected to return to the city to night and will conduct the services at St. John's to-morrow.

Mr. I. Shrier will leave here on Monday for the Northern markets, for the purchase of Fall and Winter goods.
He will be absent about two weeks.

Rev. Colin Shaw arrived in the city last night and is the guest of Mr. J. W.
Monroe. He will preach in the Second Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning and night, at the usual hours.

Mr. Harry Walters, of Baltimore, one of the Directors of the Wilmington & Weldon R. R., and Mr. J. R. Kenly, Superintendent of the Richmond & Petersburg R. R., were in the city today.

It gave us great pleasure to meet in our office to-day with our good friend, Mr. Jesse Wilder, formerly of this city, but now of Brunswick, Ga., who has been here for some days past on a visit to his father. He leaves to-night on his return to Brunswick.

Mr. W. P. Canaday, Sergeant-at-Arms of the United States Senate, is in the city, having recently returned from the funeral obsequies of the late Senator Anthony, of Rhode Island, the conduct of which was under Mr. Cana-day's direction, in his official capacity.
Yesterday Mr. Canaday received a letter from the members of the family of the distinguished deceased thanking him in very warm terms for his services on that sad occasion and the efficient manner in which the ceremonies were conducted.

Postponed.

On account of the tempestuous weather, the meeting of the Young Men's Democratic Club, which was announced to be held last night, was postponed until 8:30 o'clock to-night, at which time it will be held at the City Court Room.

For Smithville.

As will be seen in another column the Passport will take passengers to Smithville to witness the match game of base ball, between the Mechanics and Electrics, of this city, which will be played on the 18th inst. After the game there will be a supper at Hotel Brunswick, the whole to conclude with a ball at the Pavilion.

Sudden Death.

Mr. James Guthrie, a ship caulker, while on his way home a little before noon to-day, fell on the sidewalk on Queen street, between Front and Second, and almost instantly expired.
Health Officer Hays, who happened to be in the vicinity, had the body conveyed to his late residence, on Sixth street, between Queen and Castle. The deceased was about 56 years of age, was a widower, but leaves four children, two sons and two daughters. He had been complaining for several days of distress in his stomach, but it was not thought that his condition was at all precarious. His death is supposed to have been caused by apoplexy.

Be Generous.

The Board of Directors of the Oxford Orphan Asylum have concluded to dispense with stoves for heating purposes at that institution in the future, and heat the building by means of a furnace. They have determined upon this change as a matter of convenience, safety, comfort and economy, and ask for contributions for the purpose from the charitably disposed in different sections of the State, so that the object may be effected without using any of the regular funds of the Asylum. It is desired to raise $50 in Wilmington, and those benevolently disposed to aid in this laudable work may hand their contributions to Mr. J. McD. French, chairman of the Board of Directors, who will see they are properly expended and applied. We trust that there will be a generous response to this call, and that Wilmington will do her full share towards the comfort of the orphans.

Gen. Bob Ransom Married.

Gen Robert Ransom, a gallant tar-heel left over from the late "unpleasantness," who was formerly a resident of this city and who is well known all over the States of North Carolina and Virginia, was married recently to his second wife, a widow lady of Columbus, Ga. He passed through Charlotte on Thursday with his bride, as we learn from the following in yesterday's Observer:

Capt. J. J. Ransom, an Air Line conductor, brought in a bridal train yesterday morning, there being comfortably quartered aboard three couples that he was certain of, and four or five who looked like bridal couples, but about whom he had his doubts. Among the three mentioned couples, was Gen.
Robt. Ransom, of Newton, brother to Senator Matt W. Ransom. Gen. Ransom was accompanied by his bride, who was Mrs. Wildox, to whom he was married in Columbus, Ga., and was on his way North. Mrs. Ransom is a pleasant, charming and attractive lady, and we can assure her that she has captured a tar heel of whom she may well be proud.

A Word of Warning.

Some of the young white boys in the Eastern section of the city have provided themselves with Chinese lanterns and during the pleasant nights of the latter part of last week paraded around two or three squares in procession, occasionally halting to give three cheers for their candidates, which were Democratic, of course. These parades were conducted in the early part of the evening and were always closed before 9 o'clock. On two or three of the last nights in which they appeared some bad tempered colored boys attempted to spoil their fun by throwing rocks and breaking their lanterns, and on the last night of their appearance succeeded in dispersing them by the destruction of two lights, besides striking one of the boys in the breast with a rock, hurting him severely.
Now, this will not do! Colored boys are not interfered with in their pleasures and we are assured that the white boys will be protected in their amusement, and that farther interference will cause trouble.

We were surprised to see what an elegant pair of Suspenders can be bought from Dyer & Son for 25c.

Columbus Court.

Col. Wm. A. Guthrie, of Fayetteville, is in the city on this return from Columbus Court. He will leave tonight on the boat for Fayetteville.
From him we learn that the Court has adjourned, after a rather uneventful session. There were no capital cases and the civil docket has occupied all of the time and attention of the Court.

In Jail.

Mayor Hall is in receipt of a telegram from Goldsboro stating that Pompey Sneed has been captured and is now in jail there. The dispatch gives no further particulars and it is not known here whether the report yesterday of his being shot, is correct or not.

Since the above was written we learn that the outlaw will be sent here from Goldsboro as soon as possible. He is wounded severely, having been struck by a number of buckshot, but he is not considered as dangerously wounded.
He will be jailed here and held for trial.

Speaking To-Night.

Col. John N. Staples arrived in the city last night and was met at the depot by several members of the Young Men's Democratic Club, by whom he was escorted to the Parcell House. He left for Smithville this morning, where he will speak to the Democracy of Brunswick to-day. He will return to Wilmington this evening in season to be present and address the Young Men's Democratic Club at the City Court Room to-night. Col. Staples is an eloquent speaker, and we hope that a large assemblage to-night will welcome his presence and be pleased with his speech.

From Desk to Footlights.

Many of our readers will remember the appearance here some years ago of a charming young woman, Miss Eva Britton, who appeared as the canvasser for the Hurricane, a paper published by her at Charleston. Her pleasant manners and still more pleasant appearance secured for her a shower of shakels during her stay here, but, if we remember correctly, the papers were not delivered as promptly as promised, some of them not having as yet arrived.— Well, Miss Eva has turned from the desk to the stage, as witness the following from the Cleveland (Ohio) Leader:

Not a few of the visitors at the White Elephant this week have had their attention irresistibly drawn toward the face and form of one of the singers upon the stage. Something in her appearance seems familiar, but as yet, it is believed, none have recognized the rather pretty young girl who handles her part so well that she generally secures a recall. It will unquestion-ably be something of a surprise to some of the young men about town to know that she is none other than Eva Britton, the young editress who two years and a half ago buttonholed and begged them to subscribe for her paper, the Charleston, S. C., Hurricane, at fifty cents a year, but she it is. Her visit to the city has been accomplished very quietly, and it is doubtful if a dozen persons are aware of her presence here. Her first advent into Cleveland will be recalled by hundreds.
It was in January, 1882. She registered her name on the Kennard House blotter and remained at that hotel for four or five weeks. In the meantime she made her face a familiar one. Of slight, delicate form, a cheerful countenance and beautiful black eyes, she had little difficulty in securing an audience with whoever she approached.
She carried with her a bundle of *Hurricane*s, a little paper published at Charleston, S. C., and of which she said she was the editress.

We invite the attention of our citizens to the fact that first quality shirts are being made to order at one dollar at the Wilmington Shirt Factory.

DIED.

GUTHRIE—At 11:30 o'clock, Sept. 13th, 1884, of heart disease, Mr. JAMES GUTHRIE, aged 56 years.
Funeral at 4 o'clock, p. m., to-morrow (Sunday) at his late residence on Sixth street, between Castle and Queen.
