The Daily Review.

THE SAILOR-WIFE'S LUL-LABY SONG.

Rest, loved one, rest; Thy father's barque is on the deep, Where the wild storm-clouds fiercely Thy home is on thy mother's breast-

Rest, loved one, rest; Secure from aught of vain alarms, Thou'st folded in thy mother's arms As safely, as in downy nest-Rest, loved one, rest.

Rest, loved one, rest.

Rest, loved one, rest. The wild waves break upon the sands But He who loves us, in His hands Will hold us safe, for he knows best-Rest, loved one, rest.

Rest, loved one, rest: Why start so from thy slumbers deep? Sure, angels watch aroung thee keep, Securely on thy mother's breast, Rest, loved one, rest.

Rest, loved one, rest: Our beacon-light burns brightly now The wild wind dies away, and thou Art folded in thy soft, warm nest-Rest, loved one, rest.

Rest, loved one, rest; see the morning star once more; The waves break softly on the shore; The storm is hushed-upon my breast Rest, loved one, rest.

-Lilla N. Cushman, in Chicago Sun.
