Joaquin Miller has temporarily left his log cabin in Washington and is casting his lines in pleasant places in Boston.

The Springfield Republican nominates President Arthur as successor to Mr.
Blaine in case the latter withdraws from the canvass.

Dr. Samuel H. Moore, a popular physician of Buffalo, N. Y., who died a few days ago, left directions in his will that his body should be cremated.

The high license law of Illinois has reduced the number of saloons from 13,000 to 9,000, while the revenue, from licenses has increased from $700,000 to $1,500,000.

"I have placed you in positions whereby you have received very large sums of money without one dollar of expense to you, and you ought not to forget the acc on my part."—Fisher to Blaine.

Mgr. Capel attributes the serenity which sweetens his life to the fact that he has not been inside of a theatre for 24 years and never has been compelled to see a single one of the modern sensational plays.

Since the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher pronounced against Blaine the Tribune calls him "Mr. Beecher," and says that "a reopening of the scandal" concerning him "appears inevitable in case he speaks for Governor Cleveland."

The international baby show to be held shortly in Paris has already upon its books the names of 1,800 infants of all nationalities. An immense outpouring of ladies is expected to gaze at this collection of nearly 2,000 babies.

It looks as if the Blaine libel suit was not helping Blaine in Indiana, when Judge Scott, of Indianapolis, brother, in-law of Senator Harrison, Blaine's attorney, bolts the Republican candidate for the first time and declares for Cleveland.

A. J. Blithen, a briefless young barrister in Maine, went West about five years ago and by hard work got an interest in the Kansas City Journal. The other day he sold his interest for $75,- 000, and now, in partnership with William E. Haskell, has bought the Minneapolis Tribune. Young Haskell is a son of E. B. Haskell, editor of the Boston Herald.

The medical miracle is what the people now call St. Jacobs Oil, the great pain-conqueror.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VIII. WILMINGTON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1884. NO. 228

If Ohio goes Democratic next week Blaine will retire from the contest.—
Mark the prediction.

Ayer's Newspaper Annual for 1884, just issued, classes our neighbor, the Star, as an Independent Democrat.
Isn't that a mistake?

Maj. Stedman, Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor, will speak in Lumberton next Saturday. Gen. Matt.
Ransom will speak at Shoe Heel on Monday, and Col. Rowland, Presidential Elector, will speak at Sterling's Mill on the Tuesday following.

A Western newspaper says that the latest sensation is a horse that chews tobacco; but the greatest sensation is Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, now used by every sensible person.

le can be found at JACOBI'S.

Rev. Dr. Pritchard will preach at Point Caswell next Friday and at Moore's Creek on the Sunday following.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the thermometer in this office registered 84 degrees with the wind from the Southeast.

We have been blessed with a few light showers during the day, which had the effect of laying the dust in the streets for a very short time only.

We are glad to hear that the two gentlemen who were injured so painfully at Burgaw on Monday last, by the falling of a scaffold, were improving at the last accounts.

Capt. J. M. McGowan has recently made some notable alterations and improvements to his place of business. The Old North State Saloon. A first-class restaurant will be conducted there and oysters will be served in every style desired.

We invite the attention of our citizens to the fact that first quality shirts are being made to order at one dollar at the Wilmington Shirt Factory.

It is easier to fit a man's form than to fit his mind; but Dyer & Son have gained the confidence of men's minds and their ability shows on the backs of their customers.

We learn that a party of musically inclined young men of this city have organized a minstrel club to give entertainments in the surrounding country during the present season.

Mr. L. P. Thomas, while out hunting yesterday, on the Col. Roger Moore place, about three miles from the city, had the good fortune to kill a fine buck besides wounding another deer. He also caught a fox.

A party of excursionists from Greensboro and other points along the line of C. F. & Y. V. R. R., arrived in the city last night on the Carolina Central train. They were in the city during the day and will leave on their return on to-night's train over the same road.

An Old Acquaintance.

The steamship Gulf Stream, Captain Kimball, after a long absence, appeared in the waters of the Cape Fear today. Capt. Kimball has never been here before, having taken charge of the steamer since she was here last. The Gulf Stream takes the place of the Benefactor, which has been hauled off the line for a short time while undergoing some necessary repairs.

Judge Fowle to Speak Here.

We understand that Hon. D. G.
Fowle, of Raleigh, the "silver-tongued orator" as he has been so often and so fully described, has accepted an invitation tendered him to speak in Wilmington and has signified this acceptance to Mr. Thos. W. Strange, President of the Young Men's Democratic Club of New Hanover county. He will speak under the auspices of two Young Men's Democratic Clubs, at the City Hall, on next Monday night in accordance with the notice published in this issue by Mr.
James W. King, Chairman of the County Executive Committee.

The disgusting spectacle of three de-based and degraded white women riding up Mulberry street last evening in a mandlin state of intoxication, trying to sing "Peek-a-Boo," was not pleasant to the refined ladies and gentlemen who dwell there or whose business or pleasure called them to that thoroughfare.

An Old Citizen Dead.

We are sorry to learn of the death of Mr. John Costin, a venerable and esteemed citizen of Columbia township, Pender county. He died at his residence on Moore's Creek, last Sunday.
He was 75 years of age and leaves a widow and ten children.

Quick Work.

The Superior Court of Brunswick county, Judge Shepherd presiding, convened at Smithville on Monday, the 22nd inst. On Monday night the jury were discharged, and last night the Court, having transacted all the business which came before it, adjourned sine die. This is a good showing for Brunswick.

City Court.

The only business for the Mayor's consideration this morning was the investigation of the case of Dock Leake, colored, who was arrested yesterday afternoon charged with chicken stealing. He was required to give a bond in the sum of $100 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, in default of which he was committed.

For the Exposition.

Captain T. J. Southerland started six coaches and sixteen horses, with their drivers, this morning, for Raleigh, where they will remain during the continuance of the Exposition for the purpose of accommodating the travelling public which will congregate there. The teams will travel the distance, which is 115 miles, in about four days. This will not in the least interfere with the business here, as Capt. Southerland has enough teams remaining in the city to accommodate all the ordinary demands of trade.

The Pantomime.

Humpty Dumpty will always be popular with our fun-loving people.
It will never grow old, and under the skillful management of Tony Denier will have constantly added charms. It will be presented at the Opera House to-morrow night by a fine troupe of artists under his direction, and many new and attractive features will be added to increase the interest of the entertainment. Of this troupe the New York Herald says:

Tony Denier still holds the palm as the representative manager of American pantomime. He is at the Windsor next week, and is giving a fine entertainment to unusually crowded audiences.

The Late Capt. W. H. James.

The remains and effects of the late Capt. W. H. James were taken in charge yesterday by Mr. DuBrutz Cutlar, who had for many years been the intimate friend of the deceased. Mr.
Cutlar immediately telegraphed to Mr.
W. Alden James, at Fayetteville, the sad news of his father's lamentable death and also gave the necessary instructions for having the remains properly encoffined, which being done, they were conveyed to his residence on Second street, between Walnut and Red Cross. The son reached here last night and, accompanied by Mr. Louis J.
Poisson, will leave on to-night's train with the remains for Wadesboro, where they will be interred in the family burying lot by the side of his wife.

A Fine Display.

There was on exhibition at the Produce Exchange this noon a case of rosins, embracing all the grades from "A" to "W." The different grades were elegantly and tastefully arranged in such a manner as to represent a fine piece of mosaic. The case was prepared under the the direction of Messrs. Worth & Worth, and will be forwarded by that house for exhibition at the State Exposition at Raleigh, where it will form an attractive feature. Last year the same house had prepared and forwarded to the Boston Exposition a similar exhibit, but that we saw to-day, while containing no better specimens, was far superior in the beauty of the arrangement of the several samples.

From nearly every section the complaint is that the crops are suffering from the long continued dry weather; but from a gentleman who arrived in the city to-day from Holly township, Pender county, we learn that there has been rain in abundance in that section.

R. M. MCINTIRE.

On Strike.

The longshoremen and working stevedores of this city have been on a strike since Monday last. The former have been receiving $1.25 per day and now demand $2.25, while the stevedores have been receiving $2 per day and now demand $3 and $4 per day. These demands the employees do not feel able to pay, hence the strike. Work such as has been heretofore done by these men has been performed during the week by such help as could be obtained. No disturbance has arisen and those now employed have been unmolested.

Club Meeting.

The Third Ward Democratic Club held a meeting at the City Court Room last night. Col. John D. Taylor, President of the Club, called the meeting to order and Mr. E. G. Parmelee was the Secretary. Addresses were made by Messrs. H. A. Bagg, J. W. King and W. J. Yopp on matters pertaining to the organization. Tuesday evening of each week was adopted as the regular night upon which to hold meetings.
Messrs. Isaac Bear, W. H. Montgomery and W. N. Jacobs, were appointed a committee of finance, after which the club adjourned until next Tuesday night.

An Insane Act.

At about 3 o'clock this afternoon George I. Mabson, one of the most well-known and influential colored men of this city, in a moment of great mental excitement, under which he had been laboring for the past 24 hours, made a desperate attack upon himself.
The instrument used was an ordinary case knife which was very dull, but with which he inflicted a deep wound upon the right side of his neck, two wounds in the back of the head and one on the forehead. Neither of the wounds are considered dangerous. The deed was done at his house on Harnett street, between Seventh and Love. His wife and daughter took the knife from him after a severe struggle.

Personal.

Mr. Sol. Haas, [Traffic Manager of the Associated Railways, with his son, arrived in the city last night and registered at the Purcell House.

We regret to hear that Capt. J. C.
Borden, conductor on the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, is quite sick at his house in this city.

Col. R. W. Best, of the Department of Agriculture, at Washington, is in the city and paid us a pleasant visit this forenoon. Col. Best comes to North Carolina for the purpose of getting up articles made from native woods for exhibition at the New Orleans Exposition, and bears a commission from the Department for this purpose. This will be a big thing for our State, as North Carolina is the only State which Col.
Best will visit for this purpose, and the only State from which it is proposed to make such an exhibition. He should be given every assistance and facility in the undertaking.

Capt. F. A. McNinch, Chief of Police of the city of Charlotte, arrived in the city this morning clothed with the necessary authority to take Isham Brown back to that city, from which the latter is an escaped convict. Brown was arrested here last Monday afternoon upon a request made by Capt. McNinch to Capt. Brock, and has been held since awaiting the arrival of the proper officer to whom he could be surrendered. Capt. McNinch informs us that he has never before been in Wilmington, and that he proposes, now that he is here, to remain a few days. We hope that his visit may be made agreeable and that when he returns to Charlotte he may carry with him pleasant memories of our city and people.
