of New Hanover.

STRUCTION:

ELECTOR, SIXTH DISTRICT,
ALFRED ROWLAND,
of Robeson.

Albert Edward, of Wales, the "most popular prince of Europe," is making a round of visits through the interior of England.

Marion Crawford's forthcoming book entitled "A Heartless Politician," is believed to be a campaign biography of B. F. Butler.

Miss Lula Hurst, as candidate for Vice President on the Lockwood ticket, is suggested. She might impart more "magnetism" to the canvass.

J. W. A. Shaw, the colored orator of Fishing, I. L., who is a staunch supporter of Cleveland and Hendricks, has issued a challenge to John F. Quarles, the well-known colored lawyer, who is a pronounced Blaine and Logan man, to meet him on the stump.

Wayne McVeagh, Senator and Mrs.
Cameron and Mrs. Garfield have recently been in consultation. The purpose was to get the Senator to support Blaine, and it wretchedly failed. Cameron declines to give a dollar to the Blaine cause, and "declines with more vehementness than politeness."

Thomas B. Read, who has just been elected to Congress from Maine after an exciting contest, was a leading oarsman at Bowdoin College. He was graduated from that college in 1860.
While a student he was a participant in many a close race, and was a winner.

G. G. Symes, the Republican nominee for Congress from Colorado, is credited with property to the amount of $500-000, largely made, his enemies say, by fighting Leadville miners and ousting them from their claims, but his friends say that he is good for $100,000 worth of "slop" to secure his election.

Few young women begin married life under such terribly disheartening circumstances as Miss Louisa Alexandra Williams Wynn, daughter of Sir Watkin Williams Wynn, whose wedding was publicly celebrated in Welsh villages named Llangadfan, Llanuw-challyn, Llanrhaidr, Llangedwyn, Rhydyroessan, Pontfadog, Llanisaint-briod, Glyn Cerog, Trawsfydd, Llan-y-broad, Llangynw, Llanbrynmai and Machynlleth.

"Died of ammonia, poor fellow," said the renowned Mrs. Partington, on learning of a friend's death from pneumonia. "I believe I should have died, too, but for Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup." Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup she meant, of course.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

HEINSBERGER—School Books
DAVIS & SON—55 Bbls Apples MUNDS BROS. & DE ROSSET—By Steamer
C. W. YATES—Bring Down the Little Ones
F. C. MILLER—Friends and Fellow Citizens

Boys, Robinson's Circus is coming, and don't you forget it!

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 615 bales.

The Kazoo band was out last night and serenaded several of our citizens.

Everybody in want of Paints, White Lead, Glass &c., should go to JACOB'S

The weather is oppressively hot, notwithstanding the fact that October is near at hand.

Police officer D. Orrell is quite sick at his house on the corner of Mulberry and McRae streets.

Rev. E. S. Alderman will preach at Brooklyn Hall to-morrow night, the services to commence at 8 o'clock.

There is a scarcity of good beef in the market and a few well selected droves of cattle would find a ready market.

Railroad traffic, both freight and passenger, is very large now. This will probably continue until next Summer.

The Tony Denier Humpty Dumpty troupe, consisting of 20 persons, arrived here this morning and registered at the Purcell House.

There were frequent and quite heavy showers yesterday afternoon a few miles North of the city. They were much needed and were very refreshing.

We invite the attention of our citizens to the fact that first quality shirts are being made to order at one dollar at the Wilmington Shirt Factory.

There was no City Court this morning and the only matter claiming the Mayor's consideration was the surrender of the escaped convict from Charlotte, Isham Brown, to Chief of Police F. A. McNinch, of that city.

If there is a young white boy in this city who is not afraid of work and wants to learn a good business, commencing from sweeping the floor and bringing water, he can get employment by addressing through the P. O. to T. & H.

We understand that the railroad authorities have placed the rate for round trip tickets to Burgaw and return, on Monday next, at $1. This is reasonable enough—it being less than two cents per mile. There will probably be a large number from this city at the speaking at Burgaw on that day.

They tell a good joke that Major Stedman thrust at Judge Faircloth the other day. Faircloth twitted Major Stedman with reading nothing but the Bible and the Democratic Campaign Book. "In each of them," replied Stedman, "I find nothing but eternal perdition for Republicans and Pharisees."

Journalistic.
We have neglected to notice the Raleigh Chronicle since it came out as a daily afternoon paper for the reason that the earlier members failed to reach us. It is ably edited, neatly gotten up and we trust that it may receive the patronage its merits richly deserve.

Something Strange.
It seems curious to note that while there was but a mere sprinkling of rain on the river front yesterday forenoon there was a heavy shower within a short distance, only as far East as Eighth and Ninth streets. The cloud was from the East and broke when it reached the outskirts of the city.

Personal.
Our genial friend W. T. Bannerman, Esq., clerk of the Superior Court of Pender county, was in the city to-day.
Dr. E. Porter was in the city to-day, and he reports that the crops in the vicinity of Rocky Point are turning out quite well. The farmers are busy in harvesting their cotton and other crops, which will be considerably larger than was at one time expected.

Rev. W. M. Kennedy, of Warsaw, gave us the pleasure of a call this afternoon. He states that a revival meeting is now in progress at Riley's Creek Church in Pender county, of which Mr. Kennedy is the pastor. He is assisted in the meeting by Rev. R.
T. Bryan, who is a young clergyman of great promise for future usefulness.

Another large consignment of Sash, Doors & Blinds at Factory prices, just received at JACOB'S Hardware Depot.

Fine Work.

Through the courtesy of President Charles Platt, of the Insurance Co., of North America, Philadelphia, we have received a colored lithograph of the New York Cotton Exchange, which is the finest cotton exchange building in the world. The lithograph is in the highest degree artistic and is published by George W. Moore & Co., 115 Nassau Street, New York.

The Cornet Concert Club.

The Wilmington Light Infantry are very anxious for the Cornet Concert Club to accompany them to Raleigh and it is now thought that they will be successful as nearly all the members of the club have signified their willingness to attend. We hope that the business of the members of the club may be so arranged that they may turn out with a full complement of instruments, as their music would excite much attention and would prove an attractive feature of the opening exercises.

A Phenomenon.

Last night, at 11 o'clock, there was a smart sprinkling of rain from a clear sky. It was one of the strangest things we ever witnessed. Overhead there was not a cloud and the stars were shining as bright and clear as we have ever seen them. To the North and to the West there were a few light clouds but they were well removed from the zenith. There was no wind, the atmosphere having been calm and still.
And yet, without clouds overhead and without wind, there was a shower of rain.

Chicken Thieves.

One of these midnight marauders visited the premises of Mr. John Dyer last night and found the key to the hen coop and coolly unlocked the door and took from the roost five nice hens, leaving nothing but a rooster. The thief must have been well acquainted with the premises and knew just where the key was kept. If this sort of work is continued much longer we shall insist that there ought to be a reduction in the price of poultry. As chickens cost nothing but the slight trouble of catching them the present prices are altogether exorbitant.

Fine Fruits.

In the room over Briggs' Pharmacy Capt. S. W. Nobles and his assistants were busily employed this morning in packing for shipment to the State Exposition, jars of fruit of various descriptions among which, we noticed, were plums, apples, pears, peaches and grapes. These had been preserved in alcohol several days ago, the action of which had turned the fruits of an uniform almost black color, which made them look anything but pretty. Sulphuric acid had been substituted within the last few days, which had restored them to nearly their original freshness and beauty and they presented a fine appearance. They will be shipped today.

Attempted Burglary.

At about half past 3 o'clock this morning, Mr. J. G. Voss, who lives in Blount's alley, between Market and Princess streets, was aroused by the screams of his daughter from an adjoining room, who said that there was a man trying to get into the house. Mr.
Voss ran hastily out, but the burglar had fled. The daughter said that she was awoke by some noise and the first thing she saw was a man in the window, who she immediately gave the alarm. She had retired, leaving the window up, but with the blinds closed and fastened.
These latter the scamp had forced open.
To facilitate his entrance, the burglar had found a tub from which he had emptied the water and placed it bottom up to stand on while forcing the blinds.

On the same night, either before or after the raid upon Mr. Voss' house, the same or some other burglar attempted to enter the house of Mrs.
George, in the same alley, where he succeeded also in forcing the blinds, but failed to gain an entrance, although he broke a pane of glass in making the attempt.

And the burglar also made an attempt to enter the house of Captain Lemmerman, in the same alley, and so far succeeded as to raise a window and take a small satchel which hung conveniently near. It is supposed that the thief was sure that he had captured a prize, as many ladies carry money and valuables in satchels of the description he had gotten, and went off to be disappointed, as there was nothing of value in it, and the thief threw it in disgust into the grass, where it was found this morning.

The Young Democracy.

The Young Men's Progressive Democratic Club met at the City Court Room last night, pursuant to previous announcement. The President, Mr.
W. H. Strauss, was in the chair and called the meeting to order, and the Secretary, Mr. E. F. Johnson, made a record of the proceedings. The meeting was of an entirely business character, and from the enthusiasm manifested it was apparent that the Club, which has already enrolled 125 members, will do good and faithful service in the campaign. The committee appointed for the purpose reported that they had secured sufficient funds with which to supply the Club with helmets and torches and that the same had been ordered and would be here in season for the parade next Monday night.
The Committee on Invitations was instructed to co-operate with the County Executive Committee in making arrangements for the Monday night's parade.

The Club will hold their next meeting some time next week, and probably in the Fifth Ward. Several speakers of note have been invited to address the Club, among whom is Gen. Moise, of South Carolina.

Try Peppermint.

The cultivation of peppermint in the United States is not carried on to any great extent except in Western New York and in Michigan. It is an enterprise in which there is more money than many imagine. When dried ready for market it is worth $3 a pound. An acre will yield from eight to fifteen pounds, according to the fertility of the soil. It thrives best on low, swampy lands, and requires very little cultivation. Almost any of the low, swamp lands of the Eastern portion of this State would produce it in abundance.
We hope some of our farmers will give the enterprise a trial next year.
