QUARANTINE FOR THE PORT OF Wilmington will be enforced from May 1st to November 1st, as follows:

Pilots will bring all vessels from Ports south of Cape Fear to the Quarantine anchorage; also, all vessels which have had any kind of sickness on board during the passage, or on arrival, and will cause a signal to be set in the main rigging on the port side, as soon as possible after crossing the Bar.

Applications for permits to visit vessels in Quarantine must be made to Dr. Thomas F. Wood or Dr. Geo. G. Thomas, and permits so obtained will be endorsed by the Quarantine Physician, if, in his opinion, it is proper and safe to allow communication with such vessels.

A penalty of $2.00 for each and every violation will be enforced against any person violating any of the Quarantine Regulations of the Port.

Dr. J. M. Moring, of Chatham county, an ex-Speaker of the House of Commons, has deserted his party and has gone over to the enemy, horse, foot and dragons.

He has certainly chosen a queer time to go over to the opposition, just when the Democratic party in this State is on the eve of the most glorious victory it has ever attained, and when the Republicans present the aspect of a disheartened, disorganized and discomfited rabble.

However, it is a good time for the party to get rid of all such people. The News and Observer says of Mr. Moring's new departure:

The defection of ex-Speaker Moring is to be regretted. He has been an active member of our party, and like Mr. Price, was honored above his deserts when he was called upon to preside over the House of Representatives. It was a compliment beyond their merit,

The Daily Review.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1884.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., as second-class matter.

Warren Fisher did not surrender Blaine's letters to the Democrats. They came into the possession of others by bankruptcy proceedings. He is about fifty-five years of age and lives on a Vermont farm in retirement.

It is interesting to learn that the problem of subterranean telegraphs has been successfully solved in Europe. Germany has been led to construct an underground system, not merely from considerations of business convenience, but because military movements, which are largely directed by electric messages, would be hampered by accidents to overhead wires.

The people of Georgia do not know at this time what Republican opposition is, but there is quite a different condition of affairs in North Carolina. In the Pine Tree State there is a well organized Republican faction which contains many thousands of white men, not a few of whom are ex-Confederate soldiers.

Softerly, softerly, good friend. North Carolina is not the "Pine Tree State," for Maine claims that honor; there is not a "well organized faction" in this State for the demoralization among the Republicans is a notorious fact—they have a State ticket, it is true, but there are but two or three districts in which they have ventured a nomination for Congress, and lastly, we are glad to be able to say, for the honor of a dead and sacred cause, there are but few, very few ex-Confederates to be found in the Republican ranks.

Col. J. Ross Thompson, of Pennsylvania, says: "I met Admiral Porter at Long Branch last week, and found him deeply interested in current political affairs. That distinguished naval hero looks with undisguised alarm at the possibility of electing James G. Blaine to the presidency."

What would be the consequence of such a result? Take England, for example. She could put in our waters in a month's time no less than fifteen hundred ships of war, while our country could not muster more than fifteen.

and the effect we fear has been to turn their heads, and while flustering their pride, to inflame their ambition beyond measure. At any rate, because they saw no opening for a higher place inside our ranks, they have abandoned their principles, and gone over to the enemy.

The Plumed Knave.

From Mr. Blaine's Speech before the House, April 24, 1876. "I never had any transaction of any kind with Thomas A. Scott concerning bonds of the Little Rock and Fort Smith Road, or the bonds of any other railroad, or any bond, in any way connected with railroads, directly or indirectly, on any date or on any day."

Fisher to Blaine, Nov. 8, 1874. I have placed you in positions whereby you have received very large sums of money without any consideration on your part, and you ought not to regret to see him fall. We cannot but regret to see one whose standing in his community was once so fair take a step which in other similar cases has led to humiliation and heart burning.

Blaine's letter to Fisher, April 16, 1876. I do not wish to seem importunate and troublesome; but if you knew the agonies I have suffered in this matter during the past six months you would pity me, I am sure, and make great effort to relieve me. Pray let me know what I am to expect.

Blaine's letter to Fisher, Oct. 5, 1869. I note what you say about the transaction with Mr. Seth Adams, Walworth, Wis., "took Brown's Iron Bitters for severe rheumatism, and is great improved."

Blaine's letter to Fisher, Oct. 4, 1879. "No one will ever know from me that has been open as day dollar in Maine. So there need be no embarrassment in talking with Mr. Caldwell."
