LOCAL NEWS.

Off For Raleigh.

The Wilmington Light Infantry will leave here to-morrow morning for Raleigh, for attendance on the Exposition.

The following companies will appear in the parade October 1: First Regiment, Col. J. W. Cotten; Pasquotank Rifles (Elizabeth City); Washington Light Infantry; Edgecombe Guards (Tarboro); Greenville Guards; Goldsboro Rifles.

Second Regiment, Col. A. H. Worth: Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry, LaFayette Light Infantry (Fayetteville), Shoe Heel Rifles; Wilmington Light Infantry; Sampson Light Infantry (Clinton).

Third Regiment, Col. J. D. Glenn; Durham Light Infantry; Reidsville Light Infantry; Forsyth Rifles (Winston); Asheville Light Infantry; Haywood Grays (Waynesville).

Fourth Regiment, Col. W. H. Fitzgerald: Monroe Light Infantry (Monroe); Polk Rifles (Pineville); Dallas Light Infantry (Dallas); Hornet's Nest Rifles (Charlotte); Southern Stars (Lincolnton); Iredell Blues (Statesville).

Each battalion will be accompanied by a first-class uniformed band, of not less than 13 pieces.

Historical.

The October Magazine of American History is a strong and notable number. Its articles are all readable, and of timely and varied interest.

Its articles are all readable, and of timely and varied interest. An exquisitely engraved steel portrait of one of its earliest contributors, the late Orsamus H. Marshall, of Buffalo, forms the frontispiece.

The opening article, "Curiosities of Invention—a Chapter of American Industrial History," will be read with interest.

The second article, "Monroe and the Rhea Letter," and "A Bit of Secret Service History," are each fresh and brilliant.

"The Nation's First Rebellion" (in 1794), throws new light upon a singular episode in our national history.

"Tribute to the Late Orsamus H. Marshall," and "Did the Romans Colonize America?" complete the list of the most important contributions for the current month.

Military Matters.

We learn from the News and Observer the following items of interest relative to the appearance of the State Guard at the Exposition:

The soldiers arrive Tuesday. Some may come to-morrow evening.

Col. Eugene Morehead, of Durham, is the new Quartermaster General, North Carolina State Guard.

The entire State Guard, with the exception of the Smithville Guards, will be in camp here.

It is understood that the Raleigh Light Infantry will be disbanded, in general orders, next Tuesday.

The arrangements for the troops here are complete. At the request of the Adjutant General, Capt. E. W. Haynes U. S. A., Lt. Joseph B. Batchelor, U. S. A., and Capt. A. J. Davis, of the Davis school, La Grange, have consented to act as judges at the grand competitive drill at the exposition grounds Wednesday, October 1st.

The band of the First Regiment will be that of the Pasquotank Rifles, Elizabeth City; of the Second Regiment, the Cornet Concert Club, of Wilmington; of the Third the band of the Asheville Light Infantry; of the Fourth, the Charlotte Cornet band. The Salem band will probably be designated as the "headquarters band."

It is understood that the fine band from Monroe will accompany the troops and be assigned a position. The well known Durham band will also be here.

Yesterday the State Ordnance Officer, who has been in charge of Camp Russell, made an inspection of it, after its thorough renovation and preparation for the troops.

Everything is as neat as can be; the quarters in good shape, the parade grounds and avenues cleared, the lawn trimmed. The old camp never presented so attractive an appearance, not even in the days of its occupancy by the regular army.

Hall gave a particularly brilliant presentation of the drama, "Lady Clare and the Ironmaster." The audience was small; a thing to be regretted, since the acting was so good as to merit special commendation.

Miss Welby, who is a genuine artiste, was handsomely supported by Mr. H. A. D'Arcy's company, which is one of the best yet seen here.

Mr. Hazelrig's acting was effective in the "Ironmaster." The costumes were handsome and very effectively displayed by the ladies.

Such a performance deserves appreciation. And the Visitor gives them the following endorsement:

The drama entitled "Lady Clare," was rendered last night at Tucker Hall, with particularly fine effect, and the audience well appreciated the play.

The audience was not as large as it should have been, but was composed of our best and most intelligent citizens.

The play dragged a little in the first act, but in the second and other acts it was much enlivened, and many of the parts were received with the most rapturous and deafening applause.

Other parts, and particularly the duel part, created deep sensation. Miss Bertha Welby presents a most handsome appearance on the stage, and her acting was easy, and at the same time dashing and brilliant.

She is decidedly an actress of much power, and of decided talent, and will be appreciated wherever she may go.

Mr. Hazelrig's acting was also remarkably well received. He acted his part well—more than well—and showed himself a master of his role.

The whole acting was very fine, and we can commend the troupe to the lovers of the dramatic art, and add that their performances are well worthy of large houses.

Personal.

Col. John W. Atkinson of this city, was in Raleigh on Saturday.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Murray Grant is quite sick at his mother's residence in this city.

We were pleased to receive a call this morning from Mr. H. A. D'Arcy, Manager of the Bertha Welby Troupe.

Sheriff Manning returned to the city last night after an extended visit to his old friends in Maine, looking much improved in health.

Mrs. Manning returned with him. Mr. I. Shrier returned to the city on Saturday night from New York. He tells us that he bought largely and at a great advantage, and will give his customers the benefit of his bargains.

See what he says for himself in another column.

Maj. Chas. M. Stedman, next Lieutenant-Governor of North Carolina, arrived from the West on Saturday night. He was at his residence on the Sound yesterday and this morning he went to Burgaw, where he spoke today.

STATE NEWS.

Asheville Advance: Mr. W. B. Moore, of Henderson county, brought twelve of his own children to the Fair with him.

The others we suppose were left at home to take care of the house.

Durham Reporter: The Radical party in Granville has split worse than it was in 1878.

Hargrove and Hester lead one faction, while Cozart, Hughes & Co. are blowing the negro horn.

Beaufort Telephone: Capt. Sam Howland was badly hurt on Monday last. He was at Capt. Fales' mill at Crab Point for lumber and had his foot run over by a loaded lumber car.

Two toes of the right foot were crushed so that he will be disabled for some little time if nothing more serious occurs.

Greensboro Workman: Rev. Mr. Baldwin, with his entire family, took his departure on the train last night for Philadelphia, from which place, after a short stay, he will sail for his mission field in Africa.

Letters have been received by relatives in Orange county from Miss Annie Cheek within the last day or two, mailed at Columbo, Ceylon.

Miss Cheek was very well when she wrote, and neither she nor her younger brother had been seasick from the time of sailing from New York.

Nowbern Journal: We learn from Mr. G. W. Richardson, of Core Creek, who was in the city yesterday, that one of the convicts, Sol Davis, colored, at work on the Core Creek Road, while the squad was being marched out to work on Thursday morning attempted to escape while passing a thicket on the road and was fired upon by the guard and killed.

Solomon had been sentenced for ten years and had served out eight; he escaped once before but was recaptured. He was fired upon by the guard as soon as he jumped the ditch, but failing to stop at the first, a second fire put a ball through his neck and killed him on the spot.

News and Observer: Some fine tobacco was sold yesterday, raised on the penitentiary farm. It was averaged $50 a hundred.

A Primitive Baptist association is in session at Sandy Grove Church, on the Fayetteville road, seventeen miles South of Raleigh. It closes to-day.

Many Raleigh people will attend and it is thought that over 10,000 persons will be present. The receipts of cotton here for the week ending last Thursday were 1,808 bales, against 784 for the corresponding week last year.

The total receipts from Sept. 1 to Thursday were 3,006 bales, against 1,393 bales to the same date last year.

Miss Mary Weldon Hall, who for quite a time resided in Raleigh, was married near Salisbury, recently, to Mr. George B. Webmore, Jr. At the residence of the bride's father, near Louisville, N. C., on the 25th inst., by the Rev. John R. Brooks.

Mr. Eugene S. Allen, of Warrenton, and Miss Florence Meade, eldest daughter of M. S. Davis, Esq., of Franklin.

How it Works in Hong Kong.

Mr. Louis Fong Sing, a representative business man of China, publishes at Hong Kong numerous testimonials for the benefit of the Chinese people, to the virtues of St. Jacobs Oil and writes that the trade in this great pain reliever is very large.

Among those who have been cured by the great remedy are Mrs. Young On Shee, seventy years of age, of rheumatism by three applications of St. Jacobs Oil; Yew Quai Fing, cured of rheumatism after suffering eighteen years; the wife of Lew Ping Nin, of a nervous and fainting attack; Chan Sam Nuen, of fearful pains in the back and head.

Numerous others add their testimony to the virtues of the sovereign pain cure.
