Desire for the Amputation of Big Toes. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 4.- Prof. Wm. I. Pancoast, of the Jefferson Medical College, has been talking to a reporter about the craze for small feet, especially among the male sex. Within a month he has had calls from three Quaker City dudes and one woman, all making the singular request to have their big toes amputated in order that they may get their teet into the smallest possible boots. Other prominent surgeons have had the same experience, and the insane desire to secure the beautiful by mutilation appears to be epidemic. "I can't account for this remarkable desire for being mutilated for the sake
