

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. VIII. WILMINGTON, N. C., MONDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1884. NO. 250

THIS PAPER is published every evening, Sundays excepted by JOSH T. JAMES, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. SUBSCRIPTIONS POSTAGE PAID: One year $4.00. Six months, $2.00. Three months, $1.00. One month, 35 cents. The paper will be delivered by carriers free of charge, in any part of the city, at the above rates, or 10 cents per week. Advertisers will report any and all failures to receive their paper regularly. The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington. We have heard, but not Hurd, from Ohio. Too much free trade. The market town of Helmhards in Austria has been destroyed by fire. Frederick William, of Prussia, died on Wednesday, 15th inst., at Hamburg. Advice from Buenos Ayres states that the Papal nuncio, Mgr. Mattara, had left that city for Montevideo amidst hostile demonstrations on the part of the Liberals. The number of voters registered in New York City on Wednesday was 77,610 making a total of 152,413, against 55,632 last year, for two days, and 145,223 in 1880. There were 6,000 illegal votes polled in Cincinnati last Tuesday and it took 3,000 of these to make up the Republican majority in that State. Did you say you heard something "drap?" While visiting a dynamo machine at the Health Exhibition in London on September 27, one of the workmen inadvertently touched it with the oil can he held in his hand and was instantly killed. Mr. William Guion has sold the steamship Alaska to Mr. Pearce, a partner in the firm of Messrs. Elder, in Glasgow. By the terms of the agreement, the Alaska, will continue in the fleet of the Guion steamers. Lord Randolph Churchill, English Conservative leader, has declined to endorse any compromise with the Liberals, saying that compromise is impossible upon one line of the Redistribution bill as published. John Robinson raised a great hit in not procuring for exhibition the tattooed man as a companion piece for the "tattooed woman." Then we should have had a moral and a physical specimen of the tattooed tribe. The European and American consuls resident at Nice, Cannes and Mentone have signed a declaration, which is now being circulated, to the effect that the usual winter visitors to the South of France need have no fear of cholera, either in those towns or anywhere along the Mediterranean. The addition of architectural attaches to the German embassies in London, Paris and Washington has proved a very great success. The reports of these officials are not only of value to the ministry of public works, but are received with great interest by the profession and public at large. The Egyptian ministry have revoked the order of suspension of payments to the sinking fund, and have ordered the resumption of payment of railway and telegraph revenues to the Caisse de La Dette Publique to begin at once, and the resumption of other revenues on the 26th inst. The remains of an English traveller had been exhumed for interment in the family vault. When the coffin was opened the spectators started back in fright. "Why, these appear to be the remains of a lion," "Yes," replied a nephew of the deceased, "that's the lion that ate him up; uncle's inside of him." Mr. DeWitt J. Seligman, of New York, the eminent retired Jewish banker, who describes himself as "a life long but disgusted Republican," has addressed a letter to the Chairman of the Stock Exchange Cleveland and Hendricks Club and applies for membership in that body. In his letter he says: "In the name of pure politics it is to be hoped that the good, sound, honest sense of the American nation will prevent so indelible a disgrace as the election of Mr. Blaine from being fastened upon this country."

would carry the State and since the result has been announced we have been chided for having been so sanguine. Now, what is the real result of it all?—Ohio has gone Republican, it is true, by a majority of only 5,000 votes, instead of 10,000 and 12,000 and 15,000 on which some of our friends were willing to compromise, thereby proving that our estimate was nearer right than those of many who thought that we were "too sanguine." The following from yesterday's New York Herald gives the latest: COLUMBUS, Oct. 18, 1884.—Returns by counties complete do not change the pluralities given last night. Unexpectedly the prohibition and greenback votes increase proportionally with those of the Democrats and Republicans. The prohibition vote last year was 8,362. This year it is 9,510. The greenback vote last year was 2,937. This year it is 3,700, showing no coalition, but that party lines were closely followed. The total prohibition and greenback vote is 12,447, or 1,126 more than Robinson's plurality. The rest of the Republican State ticket has an average majority over all of over 5,000. The total vote is 780,373. Last year it was 718,168. In October, 1880, it was 716,186, and in November, 1880, it was 724,967. There is no change in Congressmen except an increase of 150 in Romer's majority over Hurd. This means from 5,000 to 10,000 majority for Cleveland next month, on a fair count and a legal vote. Let's see if we are too "sanguine" this time.

Step Ladders, all lengths, at JACOB'S Depot.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 1,761 bales.

Only two weeks to election day and you have't registered yet.

There were four funerals of colored persons in this city yesterday.

A new line of all wool under suits are shown at the store of John Dyer & Son.

Rev. Dr. Pritchard will preach at Brooklyn Hall at 8 o'clock next Friday night.

Gen. Seales will speak at Duplin Roads on Friday and a big time is looked for.

There was no City Court this morning and no tramps applied for lodgings at the guard house last night.

There were quite a number of flat loads of wood in the docks this morning, and prices asked were quite reasonable.

There are now about 1,000 pupils enrolled in the Graded Schools in this city, and they are all progressing favorably.

We learn that Dr. Tyre York will speak to the Republicans to-night from the stand on the corner of Market and Front streets.

Election day is rapidly approaching and it behooves every one to register before it becomes too late. Attend to the matter at once.

After the noise and confusion of Saturday, the city was in a cloud of dullness and dust this morning, which prevailed everywhere.

Mr. James A. Hewlett, on Saturday last, landed 1,767 bunches of skipjacks at one haul of the seine on his fishing ground at Masoboro.

The Republican majority in Ohio now pans out only about 5,000. Something "drapped," and it will "drap" harder on the 4th of next month. See if it don't!

For durable coloring the walls of rooms in beautiful tints, at little cost, nothing equals the MABLEINE sold at JACOB'S Depot.

The shocking sight of a drunken colored woman on Mulberry street this morning was anything but pleasant and her grossly profane language was an intolerable nuisance to the people of that section of the city.

Col. John N. Staples will speak to the Democrats of the city to-morrow night and we bespeak for him a cordial reception and a rousing meeting. Every Democrat ought to be present, unless prevented by sickness.

Col. S. L. Fremont, of this city, who has been assigned to duty on the government works in Gen. Ransom's department, has been placed at work some ten miles from Newbern on the Harlowe Canal, which is to be made large enough to carry steamers through from Newbern to Norfolk.

"The first step toward wealth," says an exchange, "is the choice of a good wife." The first step toward health is to use St. Jacobs Oil for aches, sprains and pains.

There is considerable sickness in the city, quite a number of children being afflicted with diphtheria. Many, both old and young, are suffering with severe colds, and a good many are troubled with sore throats, which may be attributed in a great degree to the abominable dust irritating the organs of speech.

Knights of Honor.

Carolina Lodge No. 434. Regular meeting this evening at 8 o'clock. Full attendance desired.

"Our Zeb."

Senator Vance will arrive in the city on the 8:35 train to-night and will be met at the depot by the several Ward Democratic Clubs and by citizens generally, who will escort him to the Hall House, where he will deliver an address upon the political outlook.

On Duty Again.

The little steamer Louise, Captain Woodside, having been thoroughly repaired, repainted and subjected to several important alterations in order to increase her speed, resumed her regular trips from here to Smithville today. She will carry the mail.

A Sad Affliction.

Miss Lulu Orrell, the young lady who died last night, was very much esteemed by all who knew her and her death was a sad shock to her many warm personal friends. She was of a peculiarly sweet and lovable disposition, and her untimely death will cause a sad void in her large circle of friends and acquaintances, who have our earnest sympathy in this their hour of bereavement.

New Grocery Store.

Messrs. Craig & Thomas have opened at No. 113 South Front street, nearly opposite the New Market, with a line of nice and fresh family groceries, to which they invite the attention of the public through this issue of the REVIEW. They will be constantly in receipt of new goods and pledge themselves to keep the stock up to the standard. They invite special attention to certain brands of liquors which they are confident will prove as represented.

The Largest Yet.

The largest vessel that ever entered this port, either steam or sailing, is the Br. steamship Carn Brea, Captain Jenkin, which arrived here yesterday from London, Eng., via New York. Her gross tonnage is 1,805 tons, which makes her 27 tons larger than was the Woodside, which was here last year. The Carn Brea proceeded directly to the upper compass, where she will load cotton for Liverpool, and will probably take out the largest cargo ever shipped from this port. She is consigned to Mr. C. P. Mebane.

The King Shad.

The immense tarpin (or is it tarpu?) which was so skillfully and carefully prepared for the State Exposition, cuts but a poor figure there because so few persons seen it. It is almost hid away, being consigned to a corner of the space allotted to New Hanover, where it can be found by those who look for it, but not readily by others. This king shad is one of the most wonderful things on exhibition, and the agent who has charge of our county exhibit should be instructed to give it a more prominent position, even if some of the articles exhibited for sale should have to make room for it.

Good materials properly proportioned which are the essential requisites in Ready mixed Paints can be best attained by using the N. Y. Enamel Paint sold at JACOB'S Depot.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Facts Worth Knowing.

The following is from the New York Clothier & Furnisher:

A PERNICIOUS METHOD.—Every intelligent person knows, or ought to know, that the dealer who offers as a special inducement an elegant present with every sale to a certain amount, compels him to pay for his present in the value of the goods purchased. No manufacturer or dealer can afford to sell his goods or products for actual market value and at the same time present his patrons with either a brown stone house, steam yacht, gold watch, or other costly article, and those who do so must naturally get return INDIRECTLY, or sooner or later close up shop. Business men who do business with a view to making a legitimate profit, only introduce such goods as will command attention for genuine merit. When other inducements are necessary, something must be wrong. This pernicious method of doing business has of late been rather too freely indulged in, and it remains with the people to determine whether it is more profitable to purchase presents and inferior goods, or obtain honest goods at honest market price.

SHRIER

Endorses every word of the above, and will call the attention of his patrons to the fact that for $1.75 they can buy a nickel plated watch, and that by buying a Suit from him they will save from $5 to $10, which will more than counterbalance the useless gift. Don't be fooled by concerns that try to pull the wool over your eyes by such trashy gifts and then make you pay double the price for their goods. We know that goods at low prices require no schemes or gifts. You will admit after seeing SHRIER'S immense stock of Fall and Winter Suits and Overcoats for Men, Boys and Children. The remarkable low prices at which we obtained from the late Rindskopf Bros. & Co.'s million dollars failure (all bright, new goods and of this season's make) paying for some less than half actual cost, for spot cash, enable us to give our patrons such bargains that competition is out of the question. Do not take our word for it, but call and be convinced that such is the case. We do not practice gambling, nor tolerate schemes, lotteries or gift humbugs for the purpose of enabling us to sell goods at triple the legitimate value of their cost, which is now done by other city dealers.

SHRIER,

THE OLD RELIABLE CLOTHIER.

114 MARKET ST.,

DIED.

ORRELL—Miss LULA S. ORRELL, daughter of the late Mr. John Orrell, died at 13 o'clock last night, 19th inst., at the residence of Mr. David Pratt, on Eighth street, between Market and Dock, aged 19 years and 5 days.

Farwell Lulu, thou hast left us,
Here thy loss we deeply feel,
But 'tis God that hath bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.

The obsequies will be held at Masonboro Church, at 10 a. m., to-morrow (Tuesday) the procession leaving the late residence at 9 a. m. Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend.

TERROR AMONG MERCHANT TAILORS AND THE COMPETITIVE CLOTHIERS!

ENDOWED WITH VIM AND VIGOR, OTTERBOURG, WILMINGTON'S ROYAL CLOTHIER, STILL CONTINUES TO CLEAVE THE SCEPTER!

THE OLD SAYING, "stray Straws Show which way the wind blows," is especially adapted to this season. The unwearied tide of public patronage which has been flowing into our Mammoth Establishment ever since the recognition of OTTERBOURG'S J. K. satisfies us beyond doubt that both wind and tide are in our favor, and that as a successful caterer to the wants of the Clothing buying public, WE ARE A SUCCESS. On account of some little confusion, we are driven, for the sake of our veneration, to state through these columns that OURS IS NOT A BANKRUPT STEW. K. nor does it contain any of the short-comings applicable to a line of goods which carried failure and unhappiness in its van. When in the market we never search for such Bargains. To be candid, we're afraid of them. We are not prone to place much weight on an auction sale, especially of Clothing—garments that must have been lacking in style and finish to such an extent as to cause such business, hence accumulation and low buyers; hence disaster to the house manufacturing and selling them. We appreciate OUR trade and the people appreciate OUR make of Clothing as is shown by SCORES of new customers buying from us daily, who for the past ten or twenty years paid HIGH prices for TAPE MEASURE IMAGINATION. We have especially drafted for OUR trade, the very latest designs and shapes, and ONLY TAKE ADVANTAGE OF BANKRUPT SALES SO FAR AS SUCH FAILURES ARE CALCULATED TO AFFECT PRICES OF SUCH LEGITIMATE FINE CLOTHING MANUFACTURERS WITH WHOM WE EXCLUSIVELY DEAL.
