Register! Register!! Register!!!
Step Ladders, all lengths, at JACOBI'S Depot.
The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 1,051 bales.

There were no tramps applied for lodging at the guard house last night.

The most fashionable hats are shown by John Dyer & Son, who always keep first class goods.

Go at once and register! Do not delay, but get the job off your mind and hands at once, so as to give others a chance.

In just two weeks from to-day Grover Cleveland will be declared the President of these United States, by an immense majority.

Hon. D. K. McKee, of this city, will speak in Newbern on next Saturday night in connection with Gov. Jarvis and Gen. Scales.

To every Housekeeper a good substantial cook stove is an important necessity and our readers will find the best at Factory prices at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

There was no City Court this morning. Verily, the people are behaving themselves with remarkable decorum, and if this state of things continues there will be but little use for the police force.

Rev. A. M. Conway and others organized last night a Missionary Baptist Church on the corner of Ninth and Market streets, to be known as the Third Missionary Baptist Church of Wilmington.

The speaking to-night will be from the stand recently erected on the corner of Third and Dock streets, and preparations have been made to assure a rousing and cordial welcome to the distinguished speaker.

We publish on the third page of this issue the first part of a very interesting paper on the defenses of Wilmington contributed to the Philadelphia Times by Mr. Thos. H. Sutton, of Fayetteville. It will be concluded in to-morrow's issue.

Our Strategists.
The Haverly Comedy Company, who play "Our Strategists" at the Opera House to-night, arrived here about 11 o'clock this forenoon on the freight train from Goldsboro, where they played last night. The political speaking will probably keep some from going to witness the presentation of this intensely funny play, but there will undoubtedly be a good house to welcome the performance.

A Slight Mistake.
A theatrical agent was reported to be in the city this morning and a young gentleman was in quest of him for business purposes. The agent was described to our friend as being rather above the medium height, and the latter, seeing a gentleman who answered the description, went up and asked if he was the agent, when he replied, "my name is Staples and I am the agent of Grover Cleveland." The last we saw of our young friend he was seated upon a box waiting for the agent to come along, saying that he was not going to ask any more questions.

Democratic Rally.
There will be a grand demonstration to-night to do honor to Col. John N. Staples, Democratic candidate for Elector-at-large, who will speak at the stand recently erected on the corner of Third and Dock streets. The following Democratic organizations will meet in front of the City Hall promptly at 7 o'clock p m:
Young Men's Democratic Club.
Young Men's Progressive Democratic Club.
Central Democratic Club.
First Ward Club.
Second Ward Club.
Third Ward Club.
Fourth Ward Club.
Fifth Ward Club.

The Cornet Concert Club will report to the public on Monday night at 7:30.

New River Oysters.

Mr. S. G. Worth, State Fish Commissioner, and Lieut. Winslow, of the U. S. Navy, are in the city to-day on a return from a visit to the oyster country at New River. Lieut. Winslow went there with Mr. Worth, and at his invitation, for the express purpose of examining into the capabilities of the country and we are glad to hear that he has expressed himself as being well pleased with what he saw there. He thinks that the oyster industry of New River only needs cultivation and development and an outlet.

Good Speakers.

Our people had the pleasure of listening to Senator Vance for about 25 minutes last night; they will have Col. John N. Staples to-night and Gen. A. M. Scales to-morrow night. This makes a tolerably good list for one week. Led off by our distinguished Senator, followed by one of the electors-at-large and closing with our candidate for Governor, the people of Wilmington have no reason to find fault, but, on the contrary, have every reason to congratulate themselves on the grand political feasts which have been prepared for them.

Change the Hours.

The hours for registration, as they are now regulated, make it really inconvenient for many of our citizens to perform the necessary duty which will entitle them to vote. The books are not opened until nearly every man has gone to his daily work; they are closed during the usual dinner hour and they are closed again at night before the labors of the day are done, so that, in order to register, it becomes necessary to lose a portion of a day's work. This is a great inconvenience, aside from the loss of time, and might keep many from taking the trouble to register.

We would suggest that the books be kept open from noon until 2 o'clock p. m. from now until the day of election, and by this means nearly all of our voting population could be accommodated.

Personal.

Capt. J. M. McGowan has gone to the State Exposition.

Mr. Leopold Brunhild left here last night on a visit to Raleigh and the State Exposition.

We regret to learn that Prof. E. Van Lear is confined to his house with an attack of fever.

We are glad to learn that Mr. John A. Corbett, who has been quite sick for the past two weeks with a malarial attack, is convalescent and hopes to be abroad in a few days.

Col. John N. Staples arrived in the city last night and registered at the Purcell House, where he has been called upon during the day by quite a number of our prominent citizens.

Senator Vance.

This distinguished son of North Carolina arrived in the city last night on the 8:35 train from Magnolia, where he spoke for about three hours yesterday. He was met at the depot, upon his arrival, by a large throng of our citizens with torches, who, preceded by the Cornet Concert Club, did escort duty to the portico in front of the Hall house where he was to speak. There was but little time for speech making as the Senator was obliged to leave for Whiteville, where he speaks to-day, on the 10 o'clock train. Added to this he was hungry, and after eating his supper there was but about 25 minutes left for speaking. This time, however, was well improved, and without going into any special line of argument, he entertained his hearers in the fine style in which he is inimitable. While his speech was short it was comprehensive and was entirely characteristic of Senator Vance. The residences of Mrs. Quince, Messrs. Lumsden and Collier and the office of Dr. Pigford were brilliantly illuminated for the occasion, and a little daughter of Mr. S. P. Collier presented the Senator with a beautiful bouquet of flowers, which was gratefully appreciated. We hope that during the campaign the Senator may be induced to come and make a regular speech here for there are some who have never heard him, while those who have heard him would be glad to hear him again.

Smokers' Articles.

Messrs. Nathan Newman & Co., the extensive cigar manufacturers, 69 Aldergate St., London, Eng., state that several of their employes and personal friends, who have been great sufferers from neuralgic affections, have been cured by St. Jacobs Oil, the great pain-reliever.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Facts Worth Knowing.

The following is from the New York Clothier & Furnisher:
A PERNICIOUS METHOD.—Every intelligent person knows, or ought to know, that the dealer who offers as a special inducement an elegant present with every sale to a certain amount, compels him to pay for his present in the value of the goods purchased. No manufacturer or dealer can afford to sell his goods or products for actual-market value and at the same time present his patrons with either a brown-stone house, steam yacht, gold watch, or other costly article, and those who do so must naturally get return INDIRECTLY, or sooner or later close up shop. Business men who do business with a view to making a legitimate profit, only introduce such goods as will command attention for genuine merit. When other inducements are necessary, something must be wrong. This pernicious method of doing business has of late been rather too freely indulged in, and it remains with the people to determine whether it is more profitable to purchase presents and inferior goods, or obtain honest goods at honest market price.

SHRIER

Endorses every word of the above, and will call the attention of his patrons to the fact that for $1.75 they can buy a nickel plated watch, and that by buying a Suit from him they will save from $5 to $10, which will more than counterbalance the useless gift. Don't be fooled by concerns that try to pull the wool over your eyes by such trashy gifts and then make you pay double the price for their goods. We know that goods at low prices require no schemes or gifts. You will admit after seeing SHRIER'S immense stock of Fall and Winter Suits and Overcoats for Men, Boys and Children. The remarkable low price at which we obtained from the late Rindskopf Bros. & Co.'s million dollars failure (all bright, new goods and of this season's make) paying for some less than half actual cost, for spot cash, enable us to give our patrons such bargains that competition is out of the question. Do not take our word for it, but call and be convinced that such is the case. We do not practice gambling, nor tolerate schemes, lotteries or gift humbugs for the purpose of enabling us to sell goods at triple the legitimate value of their cost, which is now done by other city dealers.
