Corrupt Use of Pensions.

In an interview with the New York Times, Mr. Carl Schurz said :

"One of the most effective contrivances on the Republican side, and one upon which, in my own opinion, the result of the election largely depended, was the activity of the agents of the Pension Bureau in Washington, of whom it was said that they were acting under the immediate direction of Mr. Dudley, the Commissioner ot Pensions. My attention was first called to this matter just one week before the election. 1 was in Sandusky when an acquaintance of mine who lived in a village near by, told me that he had discovered among his neighbors | Ocslow Circuit, Nov. 8-9. the day before two men who had previously announced their intention of voting the Democratic ticket, but who had suddenly turned completely around, and were going to vote on the Republican side. On inquiring into the cause of this sudden political conversion, my friend found that these two men had claimants for pensions in their families and that these claimants had 15 22 1 been approached by agents of the Pen-MENT" is a pleasant, sure cure.
