TheDaily Review. BELOVED OF THE SILKEN TRESSES.

At the Town of the Isle my dear Abides this long, long year, Than the Summer sun more brightly sbining; Where'r her footsteps go Fair honey-flowers will grow.

Even though 'twere Winter's dark declining

If to my teet they sped. 'Twould ease my heart and head, Where cruel love his burning brand

Impresses: For all that living be, I'll choose no mate but thee, Beloyed of the flaxen tresses!

III.

At the bridge of the Avonmore I saw my bosom's store, The maiden of the ringlets yellow-More sweet her kisses be Than honey from the tree. Or festive Spanish wine, of flavor mellow! Her bosom, globes of white, Sweet, fragrant, perfect, bright, ike drifted snow the mountain's breast that presses: The cuckoo's notes resound, In Winter, where thou'rt found, Beloved of the golden tresses!

III.

Oh! if the boon were mine From beauty's ranks divine To choose for aye the fairest maiden, 'Twere her to whom sweet lays Consign the palm of praise. For whom a thousand hearts with love are laden. Such maid did once inspire The Hebrew monarch's lyre; But, oh! thine eye more dignity expresses. Relieve my woe, I crave,

Oh! snatch me from the grave, Beloved of the flaxen tresses!
