The Democratic Column!

- TEXAS! INDIANA! FLORIDA! GEORGIA! MISSISSIPPI! NEW JERSEY! CONNECTICUT! WEST VIRGINIA! SOUTH CAROLINA! NORTH CAROLINA!

Twenty States, with 219 votes in the Electoral College; 18 more than necessary and a majority of 37.

Red is unquestionably the color of the present.

Butler didn't sell out. He only gave himself away.

The Butler side show collapsed rapidly as soon as it was shown up.

Little bars of "scap," little bags of "sand," make a great commotion in this voting land.

The surplus in the treasury is growing at the rate of $300,000 a day—all on account of war taxes.

There are now at Rugby, Tenn., 355 persons, of whom 135 are of American and 120 of English birth.

Five hundred superfluous candidates for Congress now drop into dark obscurity "with a dull, sickening thud."

At least three new and blooming sprigs of European nobility are expected to dazzle Washington society this winter.

If you want to sleep well on a railroad train have the berth made with its head toward the engine. It will at least improve your chances.

The Prince of Wales is one of the finest lawn-tennis players in England. He is also a splendid shot, and killed seven stags out of nine a few days ago at Glenderry.

In all its relations to the other planets of the solar system the world does not appear to have experienced much change from the effects of the recent political excitement.

The New York Mail and Express discovers that a rule of fashion is "the bigger the girl the bigger the hat." True, and here is another. The bigger the woman the smaller the bonnet.

It was a wise Missouri father who did not pursue his eloping daughter, but sent a clergyman on a horse to overtake the couple, in order that the marriage ceremony might be performed properly.

An Italian admiral has invented a wharfed shell for the 100 ton guns; at thirty yards from the cannon's mouth it bursts, throwing forward seventy five smaller projectiles, which in turn burst, throwing in fan shape a thick shower of balls and fragments with terribly destructive effect.

An interesting feature of the World's Exposition at New Orleans will be a united encampment of the veterans of the war, embracing the soldiers of the Union and Confederate armies. The board of managers of the exposition have voted $10,000 for this purpose, and 1,000 tents will be constructed for the free accommodation of the veterans.

THE EYE OF THE PEOPLE IS WATCHING THE ROGUES!

LOCAL NEWS.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. C W YATES—New Goods. MRS W E MAYO—Boards. HUBBARD—Bookseller and Stationer. F C MILLER—Friends and Fellow Citizens.

Day's length 10 hours and 26 minutes.

There was no City Court this morning. The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 499 bales.

Sunset to-morrow afternoon at 57 minutes past 6 o'clock.

Our roosters are daisies and they crow lustily for Democracy.

There was but one interment in Oakdale Cemetery this week, an adult.

Chil-blaines is the fashionable disease among "our friends, the enemy."

There was but one interment in Bellevue Cemetery this week, an adult.

There were six interments in Pine Forest Cemetery this week, five adults and one child.

Mrs. Mayo, on Dock street, between Front and Second, advertises in this issue that she can accommodate a few table boarders.

The Register of Deeds issued one marriage license this week, which was for a colored couple.

We had occasion to utter a few dulcet notes yesterday afternoon in consequence of which we were a trifle hoarse this morning, but we are still in good shouting trim. Hurrah!

To every Housekeeper a good substantial cook stove is an important necessity and our readers will find the best at Factory prices at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

The New York Herald allows only 9,000 Democratic majority in North Carolina. This is a dire slander and we will not submit to it. Put the figures at 85,000, Mr. Herald man, and you will be nearer the mark.

Capt. R. H. Beery has telegraphed to Gov. Cleveland offering the services of the Wilmington Light Infantry to escort him from Buffalo to New York in March next. The telegram was sent off on Wednesday night, but no response has yet come, although one will surely be received.

Mr. Sol Bear won a barrel of molasses in the recent election and he says that when we have our grand demonstration he is going to put it on a cart and have it displayed in the procession and afterwards will turn it over for distribution among the poor, both white and colored.

The ladies, God bless 'em—the best, the truest, the loveliest, the dearest, the purest, the most beautiful and the most excellent of all creation—rejoice with joy unspeakable at the success of the Democracy, and we are proud to know they bestow warm praise upon the efforts of the REVIEW during the campaign.

ALL HUNKEY! THE OFFICIAL COUNT OF NEW YORK.

That State Gives Cleveland 1764 Plurality.

All Doubts at Rest Now.

This has been a day of wild enthusiasm among the white people of Wilmington. The clouds of doubt, uncertainty, suspense and anxiety which have to a considerable extent prevailed in the minds of men ever since the election, were dispelled by the glorious news of last night, and out people bore faces wreathed in smiles this morning. As the day advanced the stores and places of business began to be covered and festooned with flags in honor of the glorious victory achieved silently at the polls on Tuesday last, and in a short time there was not a flag in the city to be purchased for love or money, so that many who were anxious to decorate their premises were reluctantly compelled to leave them unembellished. Congratulations, hearty, sincere and joyous, were freely interchanged and gallant soldiers who had done noble duty in the Gray met those who had worn the Blue with a cordial frankness which spoke volumes for a once more united, free and happy people. There was pride in the young men who had cast their first vote and there was a gratitude to God among those whose last vote for President of the entire country had been cast in 1856 for James Buchanan. Knots of people were gathered here and there throughout the city who discussed the news with a happiness and satisfaction they did not attempt to restrain or conceal. At about noon the firing of another salute was commenced at the intersection of Market and Front streets, and as each report rang cheering out it was answered by shouts from hundreds of joyous throats. Soon after the firing commenced an Associated Press dispatch was received which made assurance doubly sure by stating that the official count of New York gave that State to Cleveland by a majority of 1,764 votes. This gave the excitement and enthusiasm fresh cause for a general burrahdom, and the outbursts of joy were kept up until we were obliged to close our report.

Cotton.

The receipts of cotton at this port for the week ending with to-day foot up 5,667 bales, as against 7,369 bales for corresponding period of last November, a decrease this week of 1,682 bales. The receipts of the crop year to date foot up 51,290 bales, against 48,385 bales to November 10th of last year, an increase this year of 2,905 bales.

Our spread eagle—just look at it and be consoled—in yesterday's issue, bearing the gallant and glorious names of Scales and Stedman, and Cleveland and Hendricks, attracted much attention and elicited warm commendations last night.

It was a Methodist parson this time, and an Ohio one at that; he hinted that it would be nice to go to Europe, as his throat trouble was getting worse, but the good deacons saw through the whole scheme, sent for a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, and consequently now enjoy a good sermon, delivered in a good, clear tone.

A last farewell to poor Jim Blaine, Who's deeply buried down in Maine, He cannot burst death's icy fetters, As fastened by the Milligan letters. He cannot dodge well-earned perdition, Although he dodged on prohibition. Take this tribute from a well wisher, With kind regards to Mrs. Fisher.

(H)all Right.

Mr. S. G. Hall, the best base player in the State, had his garden on the corner of Mulberry and MacRae streets beautifully illuminated last night in honor of the Democratic triumph and he also had a fine pyrotechnic display. Printer's Hill does not propose to "get left," in either patriotism, enthusiasm or genuine, true blue Democratic zeal.

Personal.

Mr. H. T. Bauman left Wilmington this morning for Chicago, via New York, with the intention of making the former named city his home. He will remain in New York several days before starting for the West. He leaves a host of friends in this city, among whom he will be greatly missed. He is a pleasant gentleman and he has our best wishes for his success, prosperity and health in his new home.

Duplin County.

Mr. C. F. Carroll, bookkeeper for Mr. J. R. Melton, has kindly furnished us with the official vote of Duplin county. It was furnished him by Mr. H. C. Moore, Register of Deeds of that county, and is of course authentic. It is as follows: Cleveland's majority 1,181; Blaine's majority 1,066; Scales 2,239; York 1,174; Scales' majority 1,065; Green (for Congress) 2,214; Brogden 1,143; Green's majority 1,069. For sheriff, Hurst, Dem., 2,108; Kornegay, Rep., 1,099; Hurst's majority 1,011; Register of Deeds, Moore 2,353; Sprunt 825; Moore's majority 1,529.

The Opera House.

There was a fair attendance—and considering the wild political enthusiasm which claimed the attention of almost everyone—a large audience at the Opera House last night to witness the rendition of Shakespeare's celebrated play of Romeo and Juliet, by Miss Lillian Olcott and her company. The play was put upon the stage in excellent shape and the acting was in the main very good. Miss Olcott, as Juliet, and Mr. Burroughs, as Romeo, had a just conception of their respective characters and interpreted their parts with much clearness and force. The support was good, and the piece, which requires consummate skill in its proper rendition, was acted very satisfactorily. At the matinee this afternoon the company appeared in Bulwer's celebrated play, the Lady of Lyons, and to-night will present Ippolitus and Galatea. It is certainly a good company and worthy of a liberal patronage.

Those Philadelphia female base ball-ists will be here to play a match game with the Seaside Parks, of this city, on Thursday, the 13th inst. The game will be played at the Athletic Grounds, and will undoubtedly draw a large crowd to witness the novel and exciting sport.

The annual contributions for the benefit of St. James' Home will be received on Tuesday of next week (the 11th inst.). The ladies of the Home will be pleased to receive both visitors and contributions at that time.

Mr. James A. Hewlett, at his fishery on Masonboro Sound, yesterday caught 17,000 mullets. This is one of the largest hauls of fish we have ever heard of.

There will be services at the Second Presbyterian Church to-morrow at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M., conducted by the Rev. J. W. Primrose, of Oxford, N. C.

The Presidential election and losses outside does not effect the generous amount of business bestowed upon us, and we are, very grateful to our friends for this kind patronage and interest in our welfare. John Dyer & Son.
