Mr. Arthur is said to be arranging his affairs for a trip to Europe after March 1.

Benjamin H. Bristol is now talked of as the Mugwump representative in the Cabinet.

Senator Teller appears to have the inside track in the Senatorial race in Colorado.

Ex-Senator McDonald declines to be a candidate in Indiana for the United States Senate.

Irreverent freshmen of Harvard recently painted red the statue of the venerable founder of that institution.

The four Republican members of Congress from Minnesota who voted for the Mormon bill have been re-elected.

"Some people," says the Boston Herald, Independent, "think that it was not Rum, Romanism and Rebellion, but Blaine, Ball and Blackguardism which defeated the Republican party."

Mr. Gladstone has written a Latin version of the hymn, "Rock of Ages," and Dr. Bridges, organist of Westminster Abbey, has set it to music. The work will be included at the next performance of the Birmingham Musical Festival.

Mr. Conkling, when asked by a friend the other day whether he was a candidate for the Senate, replied: "I thank you for your solicitude, but I know of no inducement that could draw me nearer to politics than my profession calls me."

Sir John Macdonald, the Premier of Canada, is receiving many attentions in England. He is to be the guest of the Prince of Wales, and while at Sandringham the Queen will confer upon the Canadian visitor the cross of the Order of the Bath.

Capt. Chetwynd, of the British navy, who has been pouring oil on troubled waters, concludes that although the oil thus used may be of great use to ships in an open sea, it is of no practical advantage to lifeboats having to pass through large breakers.

Hon. Barclay Henley, of California, one of the two Democrats of that State who stood by his party in support of the Morrison bill, is re-elected to the next Congress, while the four members who voted with the Republicans against the bill are defeated.

"Two goods things" have happened," says the Sunday Union and Catholic Times: "Mr. Blaine has been driven out of American public life, and religious ideas have been driven out of American politics. Both are for America's honor and glory. Let us rejoice!"

Mr. Astor gave as a wedding present to his daughter Carrie, now Mrs. Wilson, $100,000 in the form of a five per cent. water loan certificate of the City of Boston. The certificate was issued in favor of the United States Trust Company of New York, the trustee for Mrs. Wilson.

The combined pluralities of the solid Democratic Congressional Delegation from New York city is 66,472, while the electoral ticket got only 43,130 plurality, a falling off of 23,342 votes which may be taken as indicative of the extent of the trading done in the local candidates on the one side and the Republican electoral ticket on the other.

A heavy wheat train, pulled into Fargo by one engine, a few days ago, on the Northern Pacific railroad, consisted of 110 cars, loaded with wheat. This would make, allowing 550 bushels to the car, a weight of 3,630,000 pounds, while the cars weigh 9,729,000 pounds, making 6,380,000 pounds pulled by one locomotive, or over 3,190 tons. The train was over three-quarters of a mile in length.

High Praise. One of the editorial writers of the London Daily Sportsman, in an interview with the Australian cricketers, cricketers, athletes and gymnasts, states as the confirmed opinion of all that St. Jacobs Oil, for the cure of pain, aches and all bodily ailments, has no equal and its reputation as such is recognized wherever it is known.

VOL. VIII. WILMINGTON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1884. NO. 282

A prominent dentist calls attention to an interesting fact suggested by the possible adoption of cremation. False teeth, as now made, are entirely unaffected by the most intense heat, so that if the body of a person who had used false teeth should be incinerated, the teeth would come out of the retort uninjured and pearly white, although nothing of the body might remain but a small residuum as ashes.

The Supreme Court of Indiana recently rendered a decision in a divorce case in these words: "You voluntarily chose a drunkard for a husband, and you should discharge the duties of a drunkard's wife. His failure to keep a pledge of reformation made before marriage does not justify you in deserting him. Having knowingly married a drunkard, you must make yourself content with the sacred relationship."

The Mahdi is a radical total abstinence man, even to coffee and tobacco, which he won't even allow in his camp. In fact, he lately gave a refugee 150 lashes for smoking a cigarette. But he makes up for this by having thirty-nine wives, and keeps within the letter of the Mohometan law, which allows only four wives, at a time by an ingenious system of divorce, by which he always has thirty-five spare wives in waiting.

"How can Mrs. Smith wear such a handsome velvet coat?" My dear child don't you know her husband used to pay all his money to doctors, but since he took to using Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup he gives it all to her to spend.

Another Robbery. At an early hour this morning, the wife of Capt. Wm. Kinion, of the steaming Easton, was awoke by a noise which proved to be occasioned by a thief who had raised the window of the sleeping room and was just with drawing a cane upon which he had some of her husband's clothing. She aroused Capt. Kinion and the latter immediately started for the thief, who fled as soon as he saw that he was discovered, and after a lively chase succeeded in securing his coat and trousers, which the scamp had dropped in his flight. The thief, who was a colored man, managed to escape capture, in consequence of which Capt. Kinion lost his vest and watch. This occurred at the house of Mrs. Annie Burch, on the corner of Front and Orange streets, where Capt. Kinion and his wife are boarding.

The city is overrun with these midnight marauders who live by stealing whatever they can lay their hand upon. If they cannot find a chicken coop or a hen roost they do not hesitate to break into the houses, and they will continue the business until a few of them have been made acquainted with the merits of cold lead.
