

An Old Soldier's EXPERIENCE.

"Calvert, Texas, May 3, 1882.

"I wish to express my appreciation of the valuable qualities of

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

as a cough remedy.
"While with Churchill's army, just before the battle of Vicksburg, I contracted a severe cold, which terminated in a dangerous cough. I found no relief till on our march we came to a country store, where, on asking for some remedy, I was urged to try AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.
"I did so, and was rapidly cured. Since then I have kept the PECTORAL constantly by me, for family use, and I have found it to be an invaluable remedy for throat and lung diseases."
J. W. WHITLEY."

Thousands of testimonials certify to the prompt cure of all bronchial and lung affections, by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. Being very palatable, the young and children take it readily.

AYER'S Ague Cure

contains an antidote for all malarial disorders which, so far as known, is used in no other remedy. It contains no Quinine, nor any mineral nor deleterious substance whatever, and consequently produces no injurious effect upon the constitution, but leaves the system as healthy as it was before the attack.

WE WARRANT AYER'S AGUE CURE

to cure every case of Fever and Ague, Intermittent or Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Bilious Fever, and Liver Complaint caused by malaria. In case of failure, after due trial, dealers are authorized, by our circular dated July 1st, 1882, to refund the money.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1884

STATE NEWS.

Danbury Reporter: Tremendous forest fires have been sweeping through the woods near the Cascade and Pepper's Alam Springs for nearly a week. Although it has been surrounded and again, everything is so dry it has as often broken over; and but for the fact that most of the time little air has been stirring, no doubt several plantations would have been left without fences.

Newbern Journal: Rev. Dr. Burkhead left yesterday morning for Wilmington to attend the Annual Conference of the M. E. Church, South, of North Carolina, which convenes to-morrow. Dr. Burkhead has labored for three years at this station very acceptably to his congregation and the people of Newbern generally, and it would no doubt please the people of the community to have him returned.

Durham Reporter: Mr. R. A. T. Robertson, of Virginia, and Mr. Frank Tilly, of this city, were out riding yesterday evening, and attempting to cross the bridge at Guess mill a few miles from Durham, the horse began to back. Mr. Robertson jumped out of the buggy and caught the horse by the bridle, but his attempt to stop him was a failure, and in a moment Mr. Tilly, the buggy and horse had all tumbled off the bridge into Eno river a distance of twenty feet. The sudden jerk of the horse as he fell over threw Mr. Robertson off, and they were piled down on the bed of the river. Mr. Tilly, at the bottom, then the buggy, horse and Mr. Robertson on top. Stranger to say no one was seriously hurt, but these gentlemen cannot possibly grow any for the next year, because of the scare they received.

Raleigh Visitor: At a meeting of the congregation of Harnett Street Baptist church held in the Sunday School room of that church last night, the resignation of the Rev. W. R. Gwaltney was accepted and the Rev. C. Durham, of Durham was unanimously called to fill the pastorate. It is not known whether he will accept or not. He is said to be a very able divine, and we congratulate the congregation on their selection of a man so eminently fitted to take the place of their late beloved pastor. Mr. Gwaltney, during his pastorate for that church, has been the instrument in building up a large congregation and the good he has accomplished will only be known in the day of final accounts. May his future life be one of peace and happiness. The many friends of Mr. A. B. Stranahan in this city will be pleased to hear that his little son Aleck, who was so badly hurt by falling from his pony yesterday morning, is greatly improved and hopes are now entertained for his speedy recovery.

Charlotte Observer: At the Trade street depot yesterday morning, two wagons loaded with trunks arrived and were shortly followed by the arrival of five wagons loaded with people representing five families. A reporter learned that they were all bound for the supposed happy land of Texas, under the hope of bettering their fortunes. They appeared to be respectable people and were above the ordinary run of emigrants, all being well dressed and apparently possessed of ample means. They were from Mecklenburg county, and were destined to the following places in Texas: Palestine, Bonham and Dallas. Sheriff Alexander has received an official document from Raleigh, signed by Governor Jarvis, and bearing the great seal of the State, the same being a commutation of Ernest Williams' death sentence to imprisonment in the penitentiary for life. Williams is the negro who burglarized Mr. McLendon's house in Matthews Station, and for which offence he was found guilty and was sentenced to be hanged on October 3rd. Before that day he was reprieved to December 5th, and now follows his commutation. There is still another burglar in jail under sentence of death and his name is Squire Thomas, the negro who burglarized the Frankenthal House in this city. He was sentenced to be hanged this month, but received a reprieve until next February, and it is likely that in the end his sentence will be commuted to imprisonment for life. The law providing the death penalty for burglary seems to be a dead letter, especially as applied to Charlotte.

News and Observer: D. R. Walker writes from Reidsville: "A man by the name of Abe Gorrell, colored, an outlaw of notorious character from Guilford county, was shot and killed by George Kernoodle and a dozen others, who were attempting to arrest him. The wretch has committed several outrages in this county on colored women and was enroute to kill W. S. Hopkins, when his whereabouts was betrayed by a woman on Kernoodle's place. He demanded of her food, which she gave and then she pretended to go after water, but betrayed him. Kernoodle raised a posse of men, white and black, and they shot him to death."—Last spring, as was noted at the time, some white shad were hatched at the State fish ponds near the city. Saturday the pond in which they were drawn off and thirty-three white shad eight inches in length were taken out. The fish were lively and looked well. It is a remarkable case.—Fish commissioner S. G. Wokek has drawn off four of the carp ponds near the city. He found the supply of yearling carp very fair, sufficient, in fact, to enable him to fill all applications filed in his office to date. The shipment of fish will begin soon.—The Primitive Baptist church, corner South Dawson and West Morgan streets, is at last completed, after praiseworthy efforts on the part of the small congregation. It is a neat little structure. Early next month it will be dedicated by Rev. D. P. Gold, one of the most famous Primitive Baptists in the South and editor of "Zion's Landmark," the organ of that church.

Good materials properly proportioned which are the essential requisites in Ready Mixed Paints can be best attained by mixing the N. Y. Enamel Paint sold at JACOB'S DEPOT.

LOCAL NEWS.

In Error.

We were mistaken in saying yesterday that the services of the Fire Department were not needed at the fire Monday night. The steamers A. Adrain and Cape Fear both had streams on the burning building and did efficient service in extinguishing the flames.

An Invitation.

We are requested to state that clergymen and lay delegates to the Conference are respectfully and cordially invited to visit the rooms of the Wilmington Library Association, when not otherwise employed during their stay in the city, where they may find the leading newspapers and periodicals, besides other valuable and instructive reading matter.

Personal.

Mr. J. D. Bromell, of the Shoe Heel Print, gave us the pleasure of a call this afternoon.

We were glad to meet Rev. T. Page Ricard upon our streets to-day. He is here in attendance upon Conference and is in excellent health.

Mr. Donald W. Bain, the Treasurer-elect of North Carolina, arrived in the city last night to attend Conference. He is the guest of Mr. H. H. Munson.

Criminal Court.

The following have been the proceedings before this tribunal since our last report:

State vs. Frank Scott, abusing stock. Not guilty.

State vs. King McCall, larceny. Guilty, judgment not yet pronounced.

State vs. D. O'Connor et al; nuisance. J. E. Sampson and John H. Holloway submits. Judgment suspended upon payment of costs.

State vs. J. C. Mill's, false imprisonment &c. Continued on the affidavit of the defendant.

State vs. Isaac Williamson, assault and battery. Defendant waived sending bill of indictment and submitted. Judgment, $30 and costs.

Literary.

The Magazine of American History is excellent. It has a fine portrait of Daniel Webster for its frontispiece. It is further illustrated with portraits of General John C. Fremont, Stephen A. Douglas, John C. Breckinridge, General McClellan, Charles O'Connor, Horace Greeley, Samuel J. Tilden and General Hancock. The second paper of the number is an essay from Rev. William Barrows, D. D., entitled "Significant Beginnings Out West." Following this, we have a description of "Zamba's Plot," in early New Orleans. One of the articles of this number is "Tom the Tinker in History," a thoughtful discussion, H. G. Cutler, of the tariff question. Another scholarly production is entitled "Colonial County Government in Virginia." The "Huntington Collection of Americans," recently presented to the Metropolitan Museum of Art, forms an illustrated paper on "Historic Portraits (the Washingtons), by Miss E. B. Johnston. Original Documents contain extracts from an unpublished Order Book of Col. David Waterbury, of the Revolution. Charles Ledyard Norton furnishes a chapter of "Political Americanisms." Price, $5 a year. Published at 30 Lafayette Place, New York City.

MISCELLANEOUS. THE PUBLIC HAVE CONFIDENCE

EVERY DAY BRINGS FRESH PROOF TO US OF THE GOOD WILL of all classes. The public have faith in our published statements, and we strive to deserve the full measure of confidence so freely placed in us.

Our sales each week foot up far in excess of corresponding weeks in any previous year since the establishment of the house. This effect must have its cause, and that may be found in the fact that we are giving better value for all money received than we were ever able to give before. Our advantage for buying are equal if not superior to those of any other house in America. When we desire to buy goods we ask no favors of any manufacturer or wholesale dealer on earth. We buy closely and quickly, but qualities must be up to the mark and prices our own. As we buy so do we sell; we mark our goods lower than any other house in the State can afford to. All customers in our house are treated alike, and whether young or old, experienced or inexperienced, will ever receive the very best value for their money that it is in our power to give.
