The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Blaine's renting the Windom mansion still keeps him on Calamity Square.

John Kelly's campaigning ended in such bronchial troubles that he is on the sick bed.

West Virginia will no longer be an October State. An amendment to her constitution corrects that nuisance.

Now the farmer rejoices, because wet weather permits the planting of small grain. Seed time and harvest shall not fail.

A son of General Pickett, of Confederate fame, is to have the only vacancy in the United States Army.

Michigan Democrats have issued an official proclamation and claim that, under the circumstances, no man has a better right to crow over Cleveland's election.

Expert book-keepers may be in demand at Washington when the new administration comes into power. Will the Republicans burn the books to conceal fraud?

The Boston Post says: "Rev. Mr. Barchard, Mr. Blaine's friend, has two sons, both of whom voted for Cleveland. All of Judge Hoar's sons voted for Cleveland. The boys seem to be headstrong this year."

Mrs. B. Ogle Taylor, who died recently in Washington, had been a leader in a select circle of refined people there for half a century. She was noted for her hearty hospitality and great generosity and charity.

Mr. St. John was in the minority at the meeting of the Kansas State Temperance Union in Topeka a few days ago. Some resolutions endorsing the Republican party, though bitterly opposed by the defeated candidate, were passed over his head.

President-elect Cleveland, says the World, cut himself off from visitors yesterday. The Executive Mansion was closed to visitors. The turkey of the most thankful man in the Union was eaten peacefully in the family circle, with none but relatives as participants.

It is announced that Prince Albert Victor will visit this country, if Parliament grants him $50,000 a year spending money. Parliament ought not to gag at a trifle like that. It isn't every country that has so many princes to be proud of and to spend money on, as England.

An intimate friend of Senator Don Cameron says he is in no way responsible for the suggestion now going the rounds of the press that he is going to organize, or try to do so, a system of keeping Republicans in office after the 4th of March next. Senator Cameron is not that sort of a politician.

If President-elect Cleveland wishes, he may become an occupant of the White House before March 4. It is announced that, following the example set by Mr. Hayes, President Arthur has invited his successor to make the White House his home while preparing for the ceremonies of inauguration.

"The other $300,000 please find enclosed my check for," was the way Mr. Wm. H. Vanderbilt put it in his letter to the College of Physicians and Surgeons. It is most awkwardly phrased, but the physicians and surgeons of New York do not seem to have minded that much. The check was good, if the English was bad.

The doings of the French in the East have had the effect of stirring the British Government up to the necessity of putting its coal stations and ports in that quarter of the world in a better state of defence. Guns and works are to be provided at such important points as Aden and Hong Kong. For a beginning 200 tons of torpedoes have just been sent to the Chinese coast.

It is told by Tobias Lear that when General Washington first complained of his cold he advised him to take something. "No," answered Washington, "you know I never take anything for a cold; let it go as it came." But it went to his lungs, and in a few days the nation mourned the loss of its father. How significant the warning? Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup can be obtained of every druggist.

We observe quite a fine display of new Revolvers for very reasonable prices, at Jacob's Hardware Depot.

Prof. G. M. Smithdeal, whose card appeared in our columns on Wednesday evening, will deliver an address on "Business Education" at the Cape Fear Academy at 8 o'clock to-night, to which the public, and especially the ladies, are cordially invited to attend.

The Rain.

At length we have been favored with a rain "as is a rain." It began raining soon after midnight and there were frequent and copious showers during the morning, and, indeed, through the principal portion of the day. It did not come a minute too soon, as it was much needed in all the Eastern section of the State.

Killed a Fox.

Frank P. Toomer, shot a fox at about half past 6 o'clock this morning in his yard on Sixth street between Bladen and Harnett. The animal was not killed outright by the shot, so Toomer knocked him in the head with the butt of his fowling piece, in consequence of which the piece was broken. The fox had a wire around its neck, and was evidently about a year old.

The Day.

Many of our citizens went to church yesterday; some went a gunning, others played ball and quite a party gathered in the afternoon at Giblem Lodge, on the corner of Princess and Eighth streets to indulge in the exhilarating pastime of roller skating. We noticed some very fine skaters among the ladies and gentlemen and of the former there were several who moved with ease and superb grace.

Scipio Hill, colored, and an old offender, was charged with disorderly conduct and was sent below for five days.

Alice Hall, a colored damsel who has frequently figured in police circles, was charged with disorderly conduct, for which she was sent below for twenty days.

For the cure of pains, aches and the innumerable ailments of man and beast for which a ready remedy is needed St. Jacobs Oil is known to have no equal.

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE.

SECOND DAY.

THURSDAY, Nov. 27th, 1884.

The Conference assembled at 9 o'clock, Bishop Parker in the Chair, and was opened with religious services conducted by Rev S D Adams.

The roll was called and several responded who were not present on the first day.

On motion of Rev L W Crawford the further call of the roll after to day was dispensed with.

The journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Question 20th was again taken up, viz:

"Are all the preachers blameless in their life and character?"

H T Hudson passed the annual examination of character and his application for a supernumerary relation was referred to the Committee on Conference relations.

On motion of Rev S D Adams the application of Joseph H Wheeler for the same relation was referred to that committee.

Question 1st was resumed, viz:

"Who are admitted on trial?"

Futrell, Fifth Street Station, Wilmington District; Joseph Gillespie Nelson, Straits Mission, Newbern District; James Russell Betts, Snow Hill Circuit, Newbern District; and William A. Rose, Roanoke Circuit, Warrenton District, having been recommended by their respective Quarterly Conferences and approved by the Examining Committee, were admitted on trial.

On motion of Rev. J. E. Mann, the Presiding Elder of the Shelby District, was authorized to employ D. F. Morrow.

Rev L W Crawford presented the report of Greensboro Female College, which was, on motion of Rev W S Black, referred to the Board of Education.

Rev. M. L. Wood, D D, President of Trinity College, presented his report. Rev R O Burton moved that it be referred to the Board of Education with instruction to submit its report on or before Monday next at 10 o'clock a m, and that said report be made the special order for that hour.

Question 4 was taken up, viz:

"Who are admitted into full connection?"

Revs John H Hall, Clater W Smith, and Charles O. Durant passed the examination of character, were approved by the Examining Committee and admitted into full connection on condition of their examination by the Bishop in open Conference.

Question 2 was taken up, viz:

Who remain on trial?

Marcus D. Giles and Thomas S. Ellington passed the examination of character—not having been before—were continued on trial.

The hour for Thanksgiving services having arrived, the business of the Conference was suspended. A discourse was delivered by Bishop Parker, and a collection was taken for the Orphan Asylum at Oxford, N. C., amounting to $164.50.

Sad Death.

Mr. John H. Bradley, son of Mr. Richard Bradley, of Wrightsville Sound, died in this city, this morning in consequence of internal injuries received by a fall a little more than a week ago. The deceased was 37 years of age and unmarried.

A Fox Hunt.

A party of gentlemen of this city went out with their hounds on a fox hunt last night and succeeded in capturing two foxes. Afterwards one of the foxes was tied to a horse and dragged through our streets, chased by the hounds, who awoke the city with deep-mouthed yelping.

The Delegates.

The Conference is composed of a fine body of men. They will average considerably above the medium size, both mentally and physically, many of them being more than six feet in height. One of them facetiously and truthfully remarked last night that he was about as high as any man in Jones county, and we were not disposed to doubt him for he is very near it, not quite, six feet and a half in height.

A Generous Gift.

Miss Amy Bradley, principal of the Tileston Normal School has presented a beautiful and complete set of botanical charts to the Union and also to the Hemmenway public schools of this city. The charts were imported from London, and these two sets, in addition to those in her own school, are the only ones in the Southern States, if not in the entire country.

An Escape.

A party of young men, among whom was one of the clergymen here in attendance upon Conference, were shooting at an oyster shell target with an air rifle at Wrightsville yesterday, when by some accident one of the balls glanced and hit the minister on the lobe of one of his ears, inflicting a slight wound. It was fortunate that the wound was not serious.

Wedding Bells.

Our townsman, Mr. Pembroke Jones, was united in marriage to Miss Sadie daughter of Hon. Wharton J. Green, at Fayetteville last night. In speaking of the matter, the Charlotte Observer of the 27th inst., says:

At Fayetteville to-night will be celebrated what we are assured is to be the grandest wedding ever known in this State, when Mr. Pembroke Jones, of Wilmington, is to be united in matrimony to Miss Sadie Green, daughter of Congressman Wharton J. Green—Three thousand invitations were issued and as early as Tuesday evening guests began to arrive at Fayetteville in Pullman cars from Washington City. There will be fully one one thousand guests present. The newly wedded will go direct to Washington City, where they will reside with Col. Green.
