

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

IT LEADS ALL.

No other blood-purifying medicine is made, or has ever been made, so completely meets the wants of physicians and the general public as Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

It leads the list as a truly scientific preparation for all blood diseases. If there is a lurking taint of Scrofula about you, SCRIFULA AYER'S SARSAPARILLA will dislodge it and expel it from your system.

For constitutional or hereditary Catarrh, CATARRH AYER'S SARSAPARILLA is the true remedy. It has cured numerous cases. It will stop the nauseous catarrhal discharges, and remove the sickening odor of the breath, which are indications of scrofulous origin.

Ulcerous. "Hutto, Tex., Sept. 28, 1882." "At the age of two years one of my children was terribly afflicted with ulcers running down the face and neck. At the same time his eyes were swollen, much inflamed, and very sore. Physicians told us that a powerful cathartic was needed to recommend AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. A few doses produced a perceptible improvement, which, by a judicious use, resulted in a complete and permanent cure. No evidence has since appeared of the existence of the ulcers, and no treatment of any kind has since been attended by more prompt or effectual results.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists; $1, six bottles for $5.

AYER'S AGUE CURE

contains an antidote for all malarial disorders which, so far as known, is used in no other remedy. It contains no Quinine, nor any other deleterious substance whatever, and consequently produces no injurious effect upon the constitution, but leaves the system as healthy as it was before the attack.

WE WARRANT AYER'S AGUE CURE to cure every case of Fever and Ague, Intermittent or Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Bilious Fever, and Liver Complaint caused by malarial. In case of failure, after due trial, dealers are authorized, by our circular dated July 1st, 1882, to refund the money.

Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists.

Harper's Magazine.

ILLUSTRATED.

With the new volume, beginning in December, HARPER'S MAGAZINE will conclude its thirty-fifth year. The oldest periodical of its type, it is, in each new volume, a new magazine, not simply because it presents fresh subjects and new illustrations, but because it steadily advances in the method of magazine making. In a word, the Magazine becomes more the faithful mirror of current life and movement. Each of its features in the attractive programme for 1885 are: serial novels by Constance Fenimore Woolson and W. D. Howells; a new novel entitled "At the Red Glove," descriptive illustrated papers by F. D. Millet, E. Swan Gifford, E. A. Abbey, H. Gibson, and others; Goldsmith's "The Stoops to Conquer," illustrated by Abbey; important papers on Art, Science, etc.

Harper's Bazar.

ILLUSTRATED. HARPER'S BAZAR is the only paper in the world that combines the choicest literature and the finest art. Each volume with the latest fashions and methods of household adornment. Its weekly illustrations and descriptions of the newest Paris and New York styles, with its useful and artistic supplements and cut patterns, by enabling ladies to be their own dressmakers, save many times the cost of subscription. Its papers on cooking, the management of servants, and housekeeping in its various details are eminently practical. Much attention is given to the interesting topic of social etiquette, and its illustrations of art, needle work and other subjects, are of the highest excellence, and the unique character of its humorous pictures has won for it the name of the American Punch.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1884

IN CONGRESS YESTERDAY.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Mr. Vest's resolution of yesterday, calling for an investigation into the lease made by the Indian tribes of land in the Indian Territory, was taken up and the amendment offered by Mr. Conger was agreed to, including within the scope of investigation the lease of lands in the Indian Territory.

The resolution was then agreed to. Several Senators were, at their own request, relieved from present committee assignment.

Mr. Slater gave notice that on Monday next he would move to take up and press to a passage the bill declaring forfeited unearned lands granted to aid in the construction of the Oregon Central Railroad.

The select committee of the Senate in existence on July 7, 1884, were continued and the presiding officer of the Senate was given power to fill existing vacancies, or such as may occur this week. The Senate then, at 12:55, went into executive session and when, at 1:45 p. m., the doors were reopened, adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

On motion of Mr. Cable, of Ind., Senate amendments to House bill, for letting the unearned land grant to the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad Company was non-concurred in.

The House went into Committee of the Whole (Mr. Cox, of New York, in the chair) on the bill making temporary provision for the naval service. No amendments were offered to the bill, and no discussion was had upon it. Mr. Randall merely making a brief statement to show that the total appropriation for the support of the Navy for the current fiscal year was $15,636,167, a reduction of $258,268 from the appropriation for the previous year.

The committee then rose, and the bill was passed, and the House resumed consideration of the Inter State Commerce bill.

Messrs. Seymour, of Conn., Long, of Mass., and Peters, of Ky., argued the importance of the subject before the House and supported with certain limitations the bill reported by the committee. The subject matter went over until to-morrow.

On motion of Mr. Morrison it was ordered that when the House adjourns to-morrow, it be to meet Monday next. The House then adjourned.

STATE NEWS.

Raleigh Visitor: Little Annie, the six-year-old daughter of Mr. S. V. House, of this city had, the misfortune to get both bones of the right forearm broken this afternoon by falling from a wagon.

Farmer and Mechanic: The commonest of "dirt" is located along the leading streets of Raleigh is first cousin to a gold mine. Two acres of the "White" estate, one square east of the Capitol, sold on Monday for $13,370; the sale being conducted by Col. Walter Clark, Commissioner. The lots were 10 in number—the majority having a frontage of 70 feet. Mr. W. C. Holman bought the largest lot, 140x163, containing the old mansion, for $2,375. Mr. Ernest Hayward, a 70 foot corner, for $900. Mr. Julius Lewis another lot for $1,100. Fifteen years or so ago, one of the finest properties on Hillsboro street, 2 1/2 acres with handsome residence and buildings, etc., sold for only $6,000—about one-third the price paid for the two acres sold this week, and we have faith to believe the prices just paid will be deemed "dirt cheap" ten years hence.

News and Observer: The entry-book for the race for the postmastership at Chapel Hill contains fourteen names. All the blanks are not full and all the names have not been entered.

Col. Jas. D. Glenn, who so efficiently commands the Third Regiment, N. C. S. G., says that command will go to C. S. Glenn's inauguration with full ranks.

The gin house, twenty bales of cotton and 1,700 bushels of cotton, seed belonging to Mr. Joseph S. Stator, of Bethel, Pitt county, were all destroyed by fire yesterday morning.

Information was brought here yesterday, by a gentleman who came from Tarboro, that the Republican sheriff, Taylor, failed to give his bond Monday and that the county commissioners chose Mr. John R. Stator, the present incumbent, as sheriff.

The "Centennial Legion" is again to be assembled, and attend Cleveland's inauguration. This corps was organized to attend the Philadelphia Centennial, where it paraded July 4th, 1876. It was then composed of the following picked companies from the "Old Thirteen" States: New Hampshire, "Andover Blues"; Massachusetts, Boston Light Infantry; Connecticut, Governor's Foot Guard; Rhode Island, Providence Light Infantry; New York, Old Guard; New Jersey, Phil Kearney Guard; Pennsylvania, State Fencibles; Delaware, Dover Rifles; Maryland, picked men of Fifth Regiment; Virginia, Norfolk Light Artillery Blues; North Carolina, Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry; South Carolina, Washington Light Infantry; Georgia, Clinch Rifles. It is probable that each of these companies will attend the inauguration. There will be 1,300 men in the "Legion." The Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry is the third in point of age in the United States. It was organized in 1793.

Charlotte Observer: N. R. Harris, an industrious colored man of this city, who says he was "raised" by Mr. W. Shaw, has just completed a set of fine harness which he will have on exhibition at the New Orleans World's Exposition. The very highest skill and excellence is displayed in the finishing of the harness and the set will undoubtedly find many admirers at the Exposition. Last fall Harris was awarded the first prize for a set of harness which he exhibited at the colored people's fair at Raleigh. If he is a colored man, Charlotte will have no cause to feel ashamed of his exhibit. About 11 o'clock Monday night fire broke out in the engine room of Miller Brothers planing mills, in Winston, and a serious destruction of property ensued. The planing mills and lumber yards were burned, when the fire communicated to the building occupied by the Little Queen Manufacturing company, which, with its contents, was soon in ashes. The latter company manufactured a machine for separating grain, and had a valuable stock on hand, all of which was destroyed. The total insurance on the burned property was but $7,000. The loss will be much greater. Both buildings were large two story frame structures and burned rapidly. Nothing was saved from either building.

John Dulin, a young man of Morning Star township, this county, was reported to be dying yesterday afternoon from the effects of a blow he received on the head with a piece of plank in the hands of his companion, Rufus Mullis. As Dulin's skull was split open and a portion of his brains were spilled through the fracture, it is more than probable that he is yet this time dead. The affray occurred last Monday afternoon but up to yesterday Mullis had not been captured. The scene of the fight was at or near the store of Joel W. W. W. in Morning Star township, where the two young men met and both to make friendly over a bottle. Both were told, were under the influence of whiskey. About the time they had drained their bottle, a quarrel sprang up between them, and with his blood aroused young Dulin jerked up the bottle and dealt Mullis a stinging blow over the head with it. The blow somewhat staggered Mullis, but quickly recovering himself, he picked up a piece of plank which he found convenient and with which he attacked Dulin. He struck Dulin only one time. No second blow was needed. The plank came crashing upon Dulin's skull with terrible effect, and as it dropped to the ground from Mullis' hand its sharp edge was spattered with blood and brains. The blow had laid Dulin's skull open, and the unfortunate man fell as if he had been shot, with blood pouring from his head and a portion of his brains slowly oozing out. He was carried to a neighboring house where medical aid was procured as soon as possible, but his injuries were pronounced fatal. What became of Mullis our informant could not say, but it is believed that he is still in the neighborhood.

Now is the time to give Smith's Worm Steep Ladders, all lengths, at JACOB'S Depot.
