1885. Harper's Magazine. ILLUSTRATED.

With the new volume, beginning in December, HARPER'S MAGAZINE will conclude its thirty fifth year. The oldest periodical of i thirty bith year. The offest periodical of 14 type, it is yet, in each new volume, a new mag azine, not simply because it presents tre-h subjects and new pi tures, butalso, and chief ly, because it steadily advances in the method itself of magazine making. In a word, the Magazine becomes more the faithful mirror of current life and movement. I eading features in the attractive programme for 1885 are: new serial novels by Constance Fenimore Woolson and W D Howells; a new novel entitled "At the Red Glove;" descriptive illustrated papers by F D Millett, R Swaifi Gifford, E A Abbey, H Gibson, and others; Goldsmith's "She Stoops to ' onquer." illustrate t by Abbey; important papers on Art, Science, etc.
