The Daily Review has the largest circulation of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Hon. Wade Hampton has no opposition to re-election to the United States Senate from South Carolina.

Congressman-elect McCreery, of Kentucky, is building a $100,000 mansion in Washington.

The Democratic electoral ticket carried Indiana by 6,512 plurality, but the legislative pluralities mount up in the aggregate to more than thirty thousand in the State.

Bison in the Colorado national parks are becoming plenty once more, but they are carefully protected from hunters by Government game-keepers.

The gain speculators of Baltimore are feeling a good deal of interest in the decision of a Circuit Court Judge in Maryland to the effect that a corn deal is gambling.

Pope Leo XIII will, before the close of the year, confer the order of the Golden Rose upon French ladies who have specially distinguished themselves by charitable works.

Mr. Moody, the evangelist, is reported as enjoying the most robust health, and to be verging upon corpulence, while Mr. Sankey, his companion, is in very poor health and obliged to rest at his home at New Castle, Pa.

The late Duke of Buccleuch spent money on his estates with a liberal hand and also gave freely to general charities. During a long life he had an annual income of about $1,250,000, and yet left less than $4,500,000 in personality.

A fiddler who has recently died had two remarkable circumstances connected with his life and death. In the former, although 90 years old, he was still called "Willie," and in the latter, he is to have a monument. He fiddled for Queen Victoria. It even makes a difference in this world who one fiddles for.

The publishers of the Baltimore Manufacturers Record will shortly issue a book on the South, from the pen of Col. M. B. Hillard of New Orleans. The book will be called "The New South," and will embody an accurate and impartial description of the Southern States, noting each State separately, and giving their distinctive features and characteristics.

Dr. Boynton recently related that, wishing to explain to a little girl the manner in which a lobster casts his shell when he was outgrown it, he said:
"What do you do when you have outgrown your clothes? You throw them aside, don't you?" "Oh, no," replied the little one, "we let out tucks!" The Doctor confessed she had the advantage of him.

The total number of families evicted in Ireland during the quarter ending September 30 was 1,215, representing 6,139 persons. Of these only 47 families were readmitted as tenants, and 569 as care-takers, embracing altogether 3,118 persons, which, therefore, left 599 families or 3,021 persons to face the workhouse or the charity of their neighbors.

Mr. Gorman says that President Cleveland will resign his position as Governor of New York on the 6th of January. He also says that the rumors to the effect that certain gentlemen had been offered Cabinet positions were without the slightest foundation, that nobody had yet been offered such a place, and that it was doubtful even if anybody had been determined upon yet to whom such a place would be offered.

Rev. J. E. C. Barkam, Warrenton, N. C., says: "I have used Brown's Iron Bitters with the most gratifying results. I find it to be not only a restorative in every sense, but also a most complete tonic and appetizer."

Additional hot springs are being developed at Hot Springs, Ark., by digging in the side of the mountain out of which the other hot springs issue.

Mr. W. F. Wasson, (ex-sheriff) Iredell co., N. C., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters has improved my digestion and general health."

Texas is sixth in railroad mileage and sixth in agricultural production and is adding to its assessed wealth at the rate of one hundred and twenty million a year.

Dr. G. M. Robertson, Elm Grove, N.
C., says: "I prescribe Brown's Iron Bitters and find it all it is recommended to be."

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 963 bales.

Yesterday was beautiful weather and the several churches were well filled.

The rains on Saturday last were general throughout this section of the State.

The rains of Saturday were of great benefit, and will undoubtedly make considerable of a freshet in the Cape Fear river.

Why are broken heads like a rule in arithmetic? They are vulgar fractions, which can be cured by St. Jacobs Oil.
Certain cure.

The steamer River Queen, Bagley, has been repainted and otherwise overhauled, and is now waiting for a rise in the river to resume her regular trips.

Beautiful colored bordered handkerchiefs at Dyer's attract much attention and are selling to fashionable buyers at very reasonable prices.

The German barque Lydia Peschau has just come off the Dry Dock, where she has been for the purpose of having her planking scraped and recaulked.

The steamer Wave is now on the marine railway, where the necessary repairs to the injury which caused her to sink a few days since are being made, after which she will resume her regular trips.

Busy men do not like to be called upon to serve on the jury, and there were quite a number this morning who had been summoned for that important duty who were very anxious to get excused.

At the morning service at the First Baptist Church yesterday four persons —three ladies and one gentleman—were admitted to membership by letter; and at last night's service the ordinance of baptism was administered to two ladies.

A party consisting of four ladies and five gentlemen went out on a fox hunt this morning and when about a mile and a half from the city started a fox, which, after a sharp chase, they succeeded in capturing. It was a pleasant party, a beautiful morning and an exciting chase which was richly enjoyed by all the participants.

Indications.
For the South Atlantic States, fair weather, Northerly winds and slightly lower temperature.

Personal.
Mr. Bruce Williams, of Pender county, was in the city yesterday. He reports fine rains on Tuesday in his vicinity.

Mortuary.
During the month ended November 30th, 1884, there were 14 interments in Oak Grove Cemetery; of this number 3 were whites and 11 were colored, and 8 were adults and 6 were children.

City Court.
Walter Lynch, a Norwegian, was brought before the Mayor this morning charged with disorderly conduct on Front street, near the Seaman's Home, on Saturday night. The evidence showed that he was very annoying and insulting to policeman Gordon, who was on duty there on the night in question, in consequence of which a fine of $5 was imposed.

Thomas Gardner, a colored boy aged about 15 years, was arraigned upon the charge of arson, but was continued for the defendant until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning on account of the absence of an important witness. See particulars under head of "Attempted Arson."

recommended by the U. S. Naval Board, Fire Insurance Co's and Heads of Fire Departments throughout the United States. They are in use in Hotels, Theatres, Factories, Depots and Private Residences of all the cities of the North and West and in a great many Southern cities. They are invaluable about Cotton Yards, Turpentine Distilleries, Lumber Yards and in all factories where the products are of a highly inflammable nature.
The public are invited to call and examine them.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

A WHIRLWIND

COULD NOT HAVE PLAYED GREATER HAVOC WITH OUR STOCK than have hundreds of customers who have thronged our store during the last two weeks. The immense stock we placed upon our counters at the opening of the season has melted away and with those goods have also gone Thousands of Dollar's Worth Bought to Replenish the Original Stock.

We certainly have no occasion to talk of "dull times," "slow trade" or anything of the kind. It is a great comfort to the Clothing buyers to have a house to deal with that they can rely on first, last and all the time. SHRIER'S is reaping the benefit of this fact. Our great trade is certainly the most successful in its line in Wilmington to-day.

We will cheerfully send goods for approval to your homes where you can compare them with the goods from other houses. You will be actually astounded at the great saving we will make for you.

The Situation As It Now Is.

Clothing that Must be Sold.

THE BUSIEST SEASON OF ALL THE year is now upon us. As Christmas approaches trade "Booms," and the brisker the business the more anxious the merchant to make a CLEAN SWEEP of all surplus stock. In our "Full Dress," "Half Dress" and Business Suit Departments we have nothing to complain of. People who desire Tasty Goods go to persons of ACKNOWLEDGED TASTE & O BUY THEM—hence it is that we control the bulk of the Clothing patronage in Wilmington, and always, invariably, without a single exception, receive the unanimous support accruing from our wide spread reputation of every stranger or body of strangers visiting our city. We started out, however, to speak of our "short deal" on OVERCOATS, and the reason why it requires at present such LONG COUNTS to hold them. To be brief, the weather is against us in this line, and we propose to sell them at unusual prices. Overcoats worth $10 for $5; Overcoats worth $12-50 for $5 and so on in like proportion.
