WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1884.

IN CONGRESS YESTERDAY

SENATE. WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—Mr. Hale called up the Naval Appropriation bill...

A large number of petitions were presented, urging a constitutional prohibition of the liquor traffic.

On motion, it was decided by a party vote—yeas 34, nays 25—to take up the bill for the admission of Dakota...

The Dakota bill having thus secured the right of way for 2 o'clock, the Senate proceeded in the interim to the consideration of bills on the five-minute calendar...

On motion of Mr. Morgan, of Texas, the Pacific Railroad land grant for the future was made the special order for Tuesday of next week.

On motion of Mr. Logan, the joint resolution to amend article one, section seven, clause two, of the Constitution...

The bill to provide for the sale of the Cherokee reservation in Arkansas, was read a third time and passed.

A bill to amend sections of the Revised Statutes, which prohibit the delivery of registered letters and the payment of money orders to lottery companies...

Mr. Jackson, who reported the bill from the Committee on Postoffices, did not think the bill open to these objections.

The Senate then took up, without debate, the bill reported last session by Mr. Hoar from the Committee on Claims...

Some derisive laughter from the Democratic side greeted the reading of the title of this bill.

There was an absence of reasons, Mr. Barksdale said, why Congress should not exercise that right.

The consideration of the Inter-State Commerce bill having been resumed, Mr. Barksdale, of Mississippi, addressed the House in a constitutional argument...

Miss G. F. Kearns, Durham, N. C., says: "I have used Brown's Iron Bitters, with most satisfactory results and find my health greatly improved."

Better a lean agreement than a fat lawsuit.

Mr. G. C. Patterson, Oxford, N. C., says: "Brown's Iron Bitters cured me of nervous headache with which I was afflicted one day out of every week, I consider it a valuable medicine."

A single penny fairly got is worth a thousand that are not.

Mr. Kent Buier, Monroe, N. C., says: "I have used and am still using Brown's Iron Bitters for indigestion and feeble health, and am almost sound and well. I highly recommend it."

Jealousy is a pain which eagerly seeks what causes pain.

Mr. R. M. Terry Raleigh, N. C., says: "I suffered with chills and dysentery. Doctors afforded no relief; took Brown's Iron Bitters and regained health and strength. I heartily endorse it as the best medicine for such cases."

There is no virtue in promise unless it is kept.

Mrs. L. T. Carter, Lilesville, N. C., says: "I have been using Brown's Iron Bitters for five years and can truthfully say its virtues exceed the recommendations for impurities of the blood."

As every thread of gold is valuable, so is every minute of time.

Mr. Wm. Brewer, Smithville, N. C., says: "I had chills and fever, Brown's Iron Bitters was just the medicine I needed. I highly recommend it."

The best backing a young man can have is a good backbone of his own.

Rev. G. W. Odley, New Berne, N. C., says: "I have taken Brown's Iron Bitters and consider it one of the best medicines known."

Any man may do a casual act of good nature, but a continuation of them shows it is a part of one's temperament.

Mrs. A. L. Walker, Milton, N. C., says: "I took Brown's Iron Bitters while suffering intensely with dyspepsia and entirely free from it now and attribute my recovery mainly to the use of this valuable medicine."

Pike county, Ga., claims the largest grape vine in the world. It is eighteen years old, thirty four inches in circumference at the base, and is a quarter of a mile long.

Mr. J. D. Suttonfield, Reidsville, N. C., says: "My wife's mother was in feeble health for twenty years, skilled physicians failed to relieve. Brown's Iron Bitters benefited her wonderfully and she recommends it to others for complication of diseases."

Sorrow itself is not hard to bear as the thought of sorrow coming. Airy ghosts that work no harm do terrify us more than men in steel with bloody purposes.

Mrs. L. W. Rolfe, Murfreesboro, N. C., says: "To all who are in need of a good tonic I recommend Brown's Iron Bitters. I took three bottles of it and derived great benefit therefrom."

The assessment tolls of the State of Texas for 1884 show the number of cattle in the state to be about 8,000,000, an increase over 1883 of about 500,000.

Mr. E. S. Parker, Graham, N. C., says: "I have used Brown's Iron Bitters in my family for several years whenever a tonic was needed."

You may take the greatest trouble, and by turning it around find joys on the other side.

Mr. S. B. Swan, Greensboro, N. C., says: "I have used Brown's Iron Bitters and consider it my duty to state that it cured me of disease of the kidneys when every other medicine failed to relieve me."

The numerous lynchings in Arkansas are ruining the sheriff's business. Every time a man is hanged by a mob they lose a few of $30, and very naturally they are opposed to this sort of competition.

Miss Lizzie Hughes, South Mills, N. C., says: "I consider Brown's Iron Bitters an excellent tonic."

He that is good will infallibly become better, and he that is bad will as certainly become worse.

Mr. J. R. Whitehead, Halifax, N. C., says: "I have used Brown's Iron Bitters for indigestion, loss of appetite and nervousness. Am satisfied that it is a good medicine and take pleasure in recommending it."

While the United States is paying off its war debt at the rate of $100,000,000 a year, the other nations of the world with great public debts, such as Great Britain, Russia, Spain and Italy, collect barely sufficient revenue to meet the interest and current expenses of the government, leaving but little or nothing with which to pay off the principal.

Mr. S. C. McLaughlin, Wolfesville, N. C., says: "I suffered eighteen months with vertigo and constipation, tried every thing without avail until I used Brown's Iron Bitters, one bottle of which made me feel like a new man."

"Don't you think you have a good mamma, to spread such nice, large slices of bread and jam for you?" said an old lady to a little boy, who was enjoying his tea. "Yes," was the reply; "but she would be still better if she'd let me spread the jam on myself."

COULD NOT HAVE PLAYED GREATER HAVOC WITH OUR STOCK than have hundreds of customers who have thronged our store during the last two weeks. The immense stock we placed upon our counters at the opening of the season has melted away and with those goods have also gone Thousands of Dollar's Worth Bought to Replenish the Original Stock.

We certainly have no occasion to talk of "dull times", "slow trade" or anything of the kind. It is a great comfort to the Clothing buyers to have a house to deal with that they can rely on first, last and all the time. SHRIER'S is reaping the benefit of this fact. Our great trade is certainly the most successful in its line in Wilmington to-day. We will cheerfully send goods for approval to your homes where you can compare them with the goods from other houses. You will be actually astounded at the great saving we will make for you.
