There was no City Court this morning.

No arrests were made by the police last night.

Suits made to order upon the most reasonable terms. The latest fashion always prevails at Dyer's.

To every Housekeeper a good substantial cook stove is an important necessity and our readers will find the best at Factory prices at JACOBI'S Hardware Depot.

Indications.

For the South Atlantic States, generally fair weather, North to East winds and a slight change in temperature.

There were frequent flashes of lightning in the Eastern heavens last night, while all the sky overhead was jeweled with stars. The weather grew cooler as the night advanced, and this morning the atmosphere was cool and bracing. If such weather continues, it will be a good time for the farmers to kill such hogs as have not already been killed by the cholera.

Personal.

Rev. G. S. Jones, of Hendersonville, Agent for the Baptist Sunday School Union, is in the city for the holidays, the guest of his father-in-law, Mr. Geo. R. French.

Mr. Frederick W. Nostrand, of the publishing house of Harper & Brothers, of Franklin Square, New York, gave us the pleasure of a call this morning, and we found him to be a very agreeable gentleman. He is, in our house he represents and will "take in" the New Orleans Exposition, thus combining pleasure with business in his trip.

Audit and Finance.

The Board of Audit and Finance held a meeting yesterday afternoon, at which several bills were approved, $2,235 worth of coupons which had been paid and cancelled were burned, and the lease by the Board of Aldermen, to G. P. Rourk and J. E. Sampson, of the lot Fourth street, near Campbell, upon which they wished to erect a building, was concurred in, provided enough was added to the rental to cover any additional costs of insurance arising on property of the city in that vicinity, in consequence of the erection of said building.

A Pretty Arrangement.

The dining-room at the Front Street depot, which has recently been remodelled and greatly enlarged, has also been highly beautified by a number of fine large pictures, which have been hung upon the walls. Among these are representations of Italian scenery and buildings, such as the Coliseum and St. Peter's Church, at Rome; Palace of Marc, and other views of Venice, besides pictures of a more home-like and domestic character. These pictures, which are exquisite in workmanship, give an air of beauty and comfort to the place which is really refreshing.

Knights of Honor.

At the annual meeting of Carolina Lodge No. 434, K. of H., held last night, the following officers were elected for the ensuing twelve months, viz:
S. P. D.—George A. Peck.
Dictator—J. A. Fore.
Vice Dictator—John W. Perdew.
Assistant Dictator—T. F. Bagley.
Reporter—H. B. Willis.
Financial Reporter—John L. Dudley.
Treasurer—W. A. Willson.
Chaplain—Rev. D. H. Tuttle.
Garde—J. W. Fleet.
Guardian—James Quinn.
Sentinel—James M. McGowan.
Trustees—Owen Feanel, Jr., John D. Taylor, Alex. Johnson, Jr.
Medical Examiner—Dr. F. W. Potter.
Representative to Grand Lodge—Clayton Giles; alternate, Walter Smallbones.

Mrs. A. L. Walker, Milton, N. C., says: "I look Brown's Iron Bitters while suffering intensely with dyspepsia. An entirely free from it now and attribute my recovery mainly to the use of this valuable medicine."

Foot-bath is becoming a fashion again. Foot-bath can never reach popularity until the American skin-disease is set farther back, or when St. Jacobs Oil is carried in every pocket.

There are nearly 500,000 members of the African Methodist Church in this country.

Mr. J. D. Suttonfield, Reidsville, N. C., says: "My wife's mother was in feeble health for twenty years, skilled physicians failed to relieve. Row's Iron Bitters benefited her wonderfully and she recommends it to others for complication of diseases."

Sale of Valuable Lands in Pender County.

BY VIRTUE AND IN PURSUANCE OF A decree of the Superior Court of Pender County, made at my suit in a Special Proceeding against the heirs at law of my intestate the late Dawson P. Durham, I will, on Thursday, 13th January 1885, at 12 o'clock, at Rocky Point Depot, sell to the highest bidder at public auction, for 1-3 cash, and the balance on a credit of 6 and 12 months, with note and good security, drawing 6 per cent interest, two valuable tracts of land in Rocky Point Township, containing each about 150 acres. The first, lying between Clayton Creek and the Lane's Ferry Road, and fronting on the Northeast River—nearly all cleared land. The second, near the manville Road, between Rocky Point Road on the North, the widow's residence and four tracts on the South, and on the West by the dwellings and improved portions of Rocky Point Depot—partly cleared. Apply to undersigned for further particulars.
