Harper's Magazine.

ILLUSTRATED.

With the new volume, beginning in Decem ber, HARPER'S MAGAZINE will conclude its thirty-fifth year. The oldest periodical of its type, it is yet, in each new volume, a new mag agine, not simply because it presents fresh subjects and new pictures, butalso, and chief-ly, because it steadily advances in the method lise'f of magazine making. In a word, the Magazine becomes more the faithful mirror of current life and movement. Leading features in the attractive programme for 1885 are: new serial novels by Constance Fenimore Woolson We are so thankful to say that our nursing baby was permanently cured of a dangerous and protracted constipation and irregularity of the bowels by the use of Hop Bitters by its by F D Millett, R Swain Gifford, E A Abbey, mother, which at the same time restored her H Gibson, and others; Goldsmith's "She to perfect health and strength.
