For the Needy.

We have been informed by a valued subscriber to the REVIEW that several cases of extreme destitution have been called to his notice within the past day or two. If any of our readers can fur n.sh us with authentic instances of parties in destitute and needy circumstances they would confer a favor by leaving the name and residence at this office, and steps will be taken to secure prompt relief for the sufferers.

We Hope He Will Come. It is said that Hon. Samuel J. Rans dall will pay a visit to this section the South during the holiday recess of Congress and we learn that an effort aged to keep some degree of warmth will be made to induce him to stop one while the other suffered extremely from day in Wilmington. Our people, and the intense cold of the night. really the people of the entire South. #### For Christmas.

The attention of the ladies is invited to the new advertisement of Miss E. Karrer in this issue. She has many beautiful things for the holiday trade and the prettiest thing of all is that her goods are useful as well as ornamental. Her stock is large and varied and the assortment is very handsome and there are articles there adapted for the young folks as well as for their elders.

The Herald.

Elsewhere will be found the advertisement of the New York Weekly Herald, a paper which presents in one sheet the news of the week, the world over. The weekly is worthy of the daily and the value of the latter and its position in journalism is known of all men, in all civilized lands. As it is useless for us to attempt to paint the rose or to whitewash the lily so must content ourselves with merely inviting the attention of our readers to the advertisement as it appears in this

A Fearful Experience.

On Thursday last two boys, aged about 13 years, living at Masonboro Sound, named respectively Clinton Hewlett and George Costin, went out on a gunning expedition with a boat. They went up the Sound about 4 miles and ran the boat into a creek, where they landed and went ashore. They succeeded in capturing a coon and when they returned to the boat the tide had receded and they found it impossible to get her afloat. Their clothing was wet as were also the matches which they had carried with 'them, so that they were unable to start a fire a finally they were compelled to lie down beside a log for the night. They had two dogs with them and through the warmth of these one of the boys manboys did not return their parents became naturally very much alarmed and James Walton, hunted for them nearly all night and discovered them yesterday morning as they were trying to launch their boat. He assisted them

White Shad.

The Newbern Journal of the 16th inst. brags because there were three white shad in that market on the day 838, shipped by Messrs. D. R. Murchi- before, and in mentioning the matter mas Presents in the city, consisting in part of goes on to state that they have been pentine, valued at $20,728, shipped by caught as early in the season as the 26th of November. This was in the year 1875. It is undoubtedly quite early in the season for Newbern people to have white shad, but here in Wilmington we had them on the 2nd of November, 1883. They were caught at the fishery of Messrs W. E. Davis & Son, and were noticed at the time and no great fuss was made about it either.

Our Advice.

No, young man; the best and safest way to obtain a fortune is not by speculating in stocks in Wall street. You might make a fortune, and you mightn't, with the chances strongly in faver of the latter. The best way to make a fortune is to work for it. Good, faithful, sturdy work, well laid on, is only the surest, but it is the very best mental and physicial ailments of which you may be possessed. Six days of good labor every week for fitty two weeks in the year, with the practice of reasonable economy, will not only keep the wolf from the door, but you will find yourself with some money in your purse with which to begin the next year. Follow this through the week and go to church regularly on Sunday, be just to yourself and all the rest of creation, keep your tace and hands clean. love your wife, take the DAILY REVIEW, read it carefully and pay for it promptly like a man and you will live long, be respected, and die happy in the glorious thought that you have been a good and useful citizen.
