THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. IX. WILMINGTON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 7, 1885. NO. 6.

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation, of any newspaper published in the city of Wilmington.

Mrs J. W. Mackay has paid $3,000 for a tiny canvass by Gerome, the size of which is described as "almost as big as a pocket-handkerchief."

Senator Fair, of Nevada, is assessed for $4,230,000 in the city of San Francisco, and is now a defendant in a de-liquency tax suit, in which the city claims from him $93,262.

It is stated that one of the wives of a Mormon of Salt Lake City is about to come east and deliver a course of lectures in answer to the attacks of Miss Kate Field.

George Francis Train emerges from obscurity long enough to inform the American people that he can write a better "poem" than Baron Tennyson's "freedom" with one hand tied behind him.

Representative S. S. Cox, who is not only the brightest scholar but the best worker in the House, has found time, in the midst of politics, naval reorganization and social duties, to write another book.

Miss Maud Howe writes from New Orleans that men, women and children all about her, at the opening of the exhibition, "cried real tears" when the band struck up with the "Star Spangled Banner."

The London Echo means for the British taxpayer over the announced royal marriage. Another paper adds that it is the first time a bridegroom consented to take his mother-in-law as part of the bride's trousseau.

The Hammond Electric Light Company has signed a contract to light a square mile of London City, with the Royal Exchange as a center, at the price now paid for gas; also to light the Mansion House for $1,000.

Who owns a prescription, after it has once been filled—the physician, the patient or the apothecary? The question comes up in a Connecticut liquor case, wherein an order for half a pint of gin has been duplicated many times and the excise officers wish to punish somebody.

Ex-Congressman Walls, colored, of Florida, has had enough of public and political life, and devotes himself to profitable kitchen gardening on the St.
John's River, having already accumulated an estate of $25,000 by raising early vegetables for the Northern market.

The board of trustees of the Columbian University in Washington, upon the unanimous recommendation of the faculty of its medical department, has decided to admit women to the study of medicine in that institution with all the privileges of instruction now accorded male students.

A special from Saybrook, Ill., says that Sergt. Bates, the flag-carrier, has come into the possession of $13,000 by the death of a wealthy and eccentric citizen of Philadelphia. Bates has been living in abject poverty at Saybrook, with a large family, broken in health for some time past.

Virgil's birthplace, the little village of Pietole, in the Lombardy plain, about five miles from Mantua, has just begun to build a monument to the poet.
Close to the village rises a small hill, the Monbelli di Virgilio, and here, according to local tradition, stood the house in which Virgil was born.

The King-Pan is the name of the official Chinese paper. It was started in the year 911 as a semi-occasional journal. Then for some centuries it was a weekly, and at the beginning of the present century it became daily. It publishes three editions and has six editors, with a circulation of 14,000.

A young Englishman has insured his whole body against accident except his left leg, which no company will now insure, as he is subject to sudden weakness in this limb, and it has been the cause of much loss to companies. If he has a fall through this faulty member he will be unable to recover any amount from the companies in whose office his body is insured.

Mrs. F. G. Kellogg, 50 E. 86th street, says the New York Morning Journal, was partially paralyzed, and lay for seven days in convulsions. She was unable to leave her bed, and was an invalid as a child. She was induced to try St. Jacobs Oil as a last chance.
She improved from the first application, and by its continued use, she has recovered.

Prince Rowland Bonaparte has a novel idea. He proposes to have a collection of the different uncivilized races in Paris. We constantly, he argues, bring together the various products of the globe; why not bring together the producers?

The New York banks at the close of the year are in a very sound condition.
They have on hand $41,000,000 more than the law requires them to keep as a reserve; in all, $195,000,000. Here there are forty millions of dollars unemployed. It is not the fault of the banks, but of those who own the money. It ought to be invested and scattered around throughout the country.

It is amusing to see people with their face drawn as if they had swallowed a feather and it was tickling their lungs and they would be happy if they could only sneeze. Now, there is no need of "making faces." A bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup will draw your face back into a smile.

to-day foot up 326 bales.

ed with lodgings at the guard house last night.

day for being drunk and down, but he was discharged this morning without trial.

House will be on the 19th inst., when Miss Carrie Swayne, with her company, will appear.

We have a promise of a cold snap in a few days, and it is well for you to prepare for it. The fine lines of Gloves at Dyer's are in great demand.

Ger. barque Louis, Schanietter, cleared to-day for Liverpool with 2,278 bales cotton, valued at $109,500, shipped by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son.

Br. schr. Hattie Darling arrived here last evening from Harbor Island, with fruit, consigned to Messrs. Cronly & Morris. The fruit will be sold at auction to-morrow by Messrs. S. H.
Trimble & Co.

The two auction houses in this city Messrs. S. H. Trimble and A. G. Mc-Girt, have consolidated and will hereafter be conducted under one license, Mr. McGirt being the auctioneer. We wish them continued success.

The warm, wet weather of yesterday vanished during the night and to-day we have had a clear sky with a fresh Westerly breeze and a cooler atmosphere. There is a good deal of mud yet in the streets, but it is drying up rapidly under the kindly influences of the sun and the wind.

The instruments for the newly organized Howard Relief band have been ordered and were shipped from New York, via Atlantic Coast Line, on Saturday last. They were expected here to-day, but did not arrive unless they came in on the through freight train this afternoon.

To-morrow will be the seventieth anniversary of the battle of New Orleans, which was fought on January 8th, 1815.
Gen. Andrew Jackson commanded the American forces, while the British were commanded by Sir Richard Packenham, who was killed on the field of battle. The British troops were routed with terrible slaughter.

Indications.

For the South Atlantic States, fair and slightly colder weather with Westerly winds.

The Howard Relief.

At a regular meeting of the Howard Relief Fire Engine Co. No. 1, held Monday night last, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Foreman—A. Adrian.
1st Assistant—M. Rathjen.
2nd Assistant—G. M. Tienken.
President—J. G. Oldenbuttel.
Vice President—C. F. VonKampen.
Recording Secretary—J. G. L. Gieschen.
Cor. Secretary—Wm. Peterson.
Chief Engineer—T. H. Smith.
Assistant Engineer—P. Fick.
Stewart—J. G. L. Gieschen.

Personal.
Col. John M. Robinson, Maj. J. C.
Winder and Mr. W. W. Chamberlain, Treasurer of the Seaboard & Roanoke R. R., are in the city to-day.

Maj. Robert Bingham, of the Bingham School, arrived here this morning from New Orleans, where he has been to see the Exposition. He is the guest of Mr. David G. Worth, and will leave to-morrow morning for his home at Mebaneville, N. C.

Should Be Removed.

There is an ugly stump in the gutter, near the sidewalk, on the South side of Market street, near Third, which should be removed at once. It is just at the point where a transverse crossway of the street begins and several persons have fallen over it. A few nights since a gentleman was crossing there and fell over it and received painful injuries, dislocating one of the bones of the wrist.

Unfounded Rumors.

During the prevalence of the gale yesterday there were wild rumors afloat that the wind was creating serious havoc with property at Smithville; that vessels were blown ashore, buildings unroofed and that the Pavilion connected with Hotel Brunswick had been blown down. Such were entirely idle and unfounded as there was no disaster, of any kind, at Smithville yesterday. There was a heavy gale, same as there was here, and that was all. We do not know who started the rumor, but we are aware that it created for a time considerable alarm and anxiety among some of our citizens.

A New Pleasure Club.

A club was organized at Little Giant Hall last night, which adopted as its name, "The Pleasure Club of the Wilmington Steam Fire Engine Company." Its object is social intercourse, mutual pleasure, mutual improvement and recreation, and it will be exclusively for the benefit of the active and honorary members of W. S. F. E. Co. To accomplish this laudable purpose there will be a reading room, which will be supplied with some of the best current literature, a gymnasium, a pool table and other things to amuse and instruct.
The organization was affected by the election of the following officers to serve for the ensuing year: President—E. G. Parmelee.
Vice President—W. N. Jacobs.
Secretary and Treasurer—J. D. Reil-ley.

In His New Home.

Mr. J. D. Sublett, last season manager of the Hotel Brunswick, at Smithville, seems to have already gained many friends in his new home at Baten Rouge, as witness the following from a recent issue of the Capitolian Advocate, published in that city:

There was a large gathering, last Saturday night, at the Castle Hall of Capitol Lodge No. 29, it being the time for the annual election of officers. After adjournment the Knights and their invited guests repaired to the Grand Capitol Hotel, where they assembled around a sumptuous spread, arranged under the supervision of that experienced and urbane host, Col. Sublett, who on this occasion more than sustained his high repute. The table was elegantly set and the menu excellently prepared and served. It is needless to add that the gallant Knights did full justice to the good things before them, and that the affair wound up only after numerous toasts had been offered and responded to, in a manner that gave proof of the fraternal good feeling existing among the Knights.

An Important Case.

There was a case brought before U.
S. Commissioner T. M. Gardner yesterday afternoon which was of considerable importance to the shipping interests of the port, and caused considerable excitement among the ship captains here. The action was brought against the schooner Ruth Darling, as a test case, and the charge was a violation of Section 4519 of the United States Revised Statutes, requiring a copy of the shipping articles to be posted in the fore-castle or some other conspicuous place on board the vessel, where they might be accessible to the crew. The action was brought for the penalty for non observance of the law, which is $100. U. S. District Attorney Robinson appeared for the prosecution and Mr. M. Bellamy appeared for the defendant. In rendering his opinion, Commissioner Gardner held that the penalty did not apply to vessels unless the crew were shipped by or before a U. S. Shipping Commissioner, that in vessels engaged in coastwise trade it was not necessary to ship the crew before such Commissioner, and that the schooner Ruth Darling, being a coastwise vessel, did not come within the statute as a violator of the law, and the defendant was discharged.

Legislature Organized.

A special to the REVIEW from Raleigh, for which we kindly thank Senator Chadbourne, tells us that the Legislature organized to-day by the election of Mr. E. T. Boyken, Senator from Sampson county, as President pro tempore of that body, and the House by the election of Col. Thos. M.
Holt, of Alamance, as Speaker. The elections were the result of party caucuses and were made unanimous.

Masonic.

The Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of North Carolina will convene in its 98th Annual Communication at Raleigh, on Tuesday evening, the 13th day of January, 1885, at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. C. H. Robinson, Senior Grand Warden of the State, Messrs J. I. Macks and E. S.
Martin, of St. John's Lodge, No. 1, and Mr. J. C. Munds, of Orient Lodge, will attend from this city. It is probable that representatives from Wilmington Lodge, No. 319, will also be present, but they have not yet been named.

Changes in the Postal Laws.

Postmaster Frank Hatton has notified all Postmasters that certain sections of the postal laws and regulations have been amended, and prepaid letters can now be forwarded from one postoffice to another at the request of the party addressed, without additional charge for postage. Letters and all matter prepaid at first class rates of postage, may be returned to the sender without additional charge for returning. All registered matter may be forwarded upon the written request of the party addressed without additional charge for registry fee.

Installation of Officers.

The following were installed last night as officers of Cape Fear Lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., for the ensuing term:

V. G.—L. A. Bilbro.

Trinity College.

Through the courtesy of Rev. Dr.
Yates, pastor of the Front Street M. E.
Church, we have received a copy of "An Address to the Methodists of North Carolina," by the committee of management, appointed during the recent session of the Annual Conference in this city, to look after the affairs of Trinity College. The work of this Committee is to try and place the college upon a firm financial basis, and the "address" is in the form of an appeal to the Methodists of the State for their hearty, earnest and active cooperation in the important work. The time intervening between the closing of Conference and the opening of the Spring term of the College was so short that the Committee were forced to organize the Faculty with a Chairman at its head, instead of a President.
The Faculty as at present organized is as follows:

J. F. Heitman, Professor of Metaphysics and Theology, Chairman and Treasurer of the Faculty; W. T.
Gannaway, Professor of Latin and French; W. H. Pegram, Professor of Natural Sciences, Secretary of the Faculty; J. M. Bandy, Professor of Mathematics; H. H. Williams, Professor of Greek and German; A. W. Long, Professor of English Literature and History, N. C. English, Principally of the Preparatory Department and Business Course. The Spring term commenced to-day (Jan. 7th) and will close on the 11th of June next, and with the above Faculty, "composed of men learned, aggressive and fully abreast with the progressive education of the time," the Methodists of North Carolina have in Trinity College an institution well worthy their patronage. The committee of management, consisting of Messrs. J. W. Alsbaugh, J. S. Carr, and Jas. A. Gray, are men of influence, integrity and well established business character, and we feel confident that their efforts in behalf of the College will be crowned with complete success.
