The Daily Review.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 7, 1885. IN CONGRESS YESTERDAY.

SENATE. WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The chair laid before the Senate a communication from the Attorney General, urging that a sufficient appropriation be made to enable the government to properly defend the suits against the United States in the Court of Claims.

Mr. Morgan moved to amend by adding to the bill the substance of provisions which on his motion had been added to the Atlantic and Pacific Forfeiture bill, providing a method of judicial procedure for ascertainment of the rights of any parties claiming under the grant.

After debate, the amendment of Mr. Morgan was brought to a vote and was rejected—yeas 15, nays 28. The bill was then read a third time and passed without division.

Before the announcement of the vote on his amendment, Mr. Morgan changed his vote from yea to nay, and on the passage of the bill gave immediate notice of a motion to reconsider.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. The House at 12:35 went into committee of the Whole on the Pension Appropriation bill.

Mr. Hancock, of Texas, explained the provisions of the bill, which appropriates $59,976,000 or $24,000 less than the estimates. There was some new legislation in the bill.

The bill having been read for amendments, Mr. Everhart, of Pa., offered a proviso that all applicants for pensions shall be presumed to have had no disability at the time of entitment, and that such presumption may be rebutted.

An amendment was adopted providing that attorneys' fees shall not be paid until the claim is allowed, and shall be paid by the government pension agent; limiting fees to ten dollars except in cases where a special contract for a fee of twenty five dollars is filed, and restricting such special contracts to agents and claimants residing in the same State.

On motion of Mr. O'Hara, of N. C., an amendment was adopted providing that the mode and manner provided for regulations for the payment of white pensioners shall apply to all pensioners.

The committee then rose and the bill was passed.

A MASCOTTE. Mr. J. H. Kuttner, of Georgetown, Plays in that Role with Great Success.

He Draws $30,000 in The Louisiana State Lottery, and has Received Every Dollar of the Money.

In order to verify the rumor that Mr. J. H. Kuttner, of Georgetown, Ky., had drawn $30,000 in the Louisiana State Lottery Company, held December 16th, a Press representative went to Georgetown on Monday, to see Mr. Kuttner and get the facts in the case from his own lips.

Mr. Kuttner was found in his score, and extended the Press reporter a smiling welcome. He is a Polander, having migrated to this country about thirty years ago.

When the war of the Rebellion came up he joined the Confederate army and was seriously wounded at the battle of Fordouche, Louisiana. After the war he engaged in the dry goods business at Shelbyville, Ky., and for a while did a flourishing business.

He failed, however, about two years ago and went to Georgetown, where he established himself in the dry goods business on a small scale. About a year ago it occurred to Mr. Kuttner that he would try his luck in the Louisiana State Lottery.

For seventeen months he invested a dollar each month, firm in the belief that his time would finally come. With his faith in the fairness of the management of the Louisiana State Lottery undiminished, he invested in a one-fifth ticket for the drawing which came off on the 16th of December, 1884.

He took in with him two partners, Mr. Dock Laws and Mr. C. C. Barbee, both of Georgetown. Mr. Laws was a barkeeper and Mr. Barbee a saddler. On the afternoon of December 17th Mr. Kuttner received a telegram from New Orleans announcing that his ticket had drawn one-fifth of the capital prize of $150,000.

The news was too good to believe without a little investigation. Accordingly, Mr. Kuttner deposited his ticket in the Second National Bank of Georgetown, and went at once to Cincinnati to find out the truthfulness of the report. At Cincinnati the report was fully confirmed, and Mr. Kuttner at once ordered the Second National Bank of Georgetown to collect the $30,000 for him through the Canal Bank of New Orleans.

The money was promptly paid by the Canal Bank in full, not a cent being deducted for commissions. The money was brought to Georgetown by the Adams Express Company and deposited in the Second National Bank to the credit of Messrs. Kuttner, Laws & Barbee, each owning a third interest in it.

Mr. Kuttner will invest his money in a tobacco manufactory at Georgetown. Mr. Laws intends buying a Bluegrass farm with his, while Mr. Barbee has already invested in a hotel at Georgetown, and will engage actively in the hotel business.

Mr. Kuttner says that there has been a remarkably heavy demand for tickets in Scott county since his success.—Lexington (Ky.) Weekly Press, Dec. 31.
