The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation, of any newspaper published, in the city of Wilmington.

Twenty-four hand dials for clocks are nothing new. A patent was issued on them 21 years ago.

Mr. Randall is said to have paid full railroad fare on his Southern trip. No railroad or sleeping car passes were accepted.

The Union Pacific Railway Company officially adopted the twenty-four hour method of computing time on January 1.

Herr Franz Simon, the wealthy merchant of Hanover, and court banker to the late King George V., has adjusted the Jewish faith and gone over to Protestantism.

It has just transpired that the children originals of "Helen's Babies" had been dead a year before their amusing pranks were written up and published for the world to laugh at.

Three Colonels—Tom Ochiltree, of Texas; Tom Bayne, of Pennsylvania; and James Barnes, of Wisconsin, are, according to the National Republican, the best billiard players in Washington.

Governor Cleveland sets much speculation at rest by saying this to the correspondent of the Brooklyn Eagle:— "No Cabinet appointment has been made; none has been offered; none has been determined on."

The building of the Georgia State Capitol, at Atlanta, develops the fact that granite can be quarried in Maine, brought to Savannah, and thence by rail to Atlanta at a less cost than it can be had at a quarry only sixteen miles away.

The Boston Post denounces John L.
Sullivan as a brute, declaring that "he has helped to crystallize and focus more crime than almost any other man of his age." That comes very badly from a Boston journal, for Boston has had, as much fuss over Sullivan as it has mental and moral qualities were as powerful as his muscle.

Rev. J. H. Vincent, of Chautauqua Lake, is out in a tersely expressed opinion that Methodism should more vigorously protest against the dance, the theatre and the card table. He says:
"We must impress upon the minds of Methodist youth that these pleasures impart no good to humanity.
No compromise can be made with amusements."

It has been decided to light the Imperial Palace, the Court Opera House, and the Burg Theatre of Vienna with electric lights. The palace will be illuminated with 5,000 lights, the Opera House with 4,000, and the Burg Theatre with 3,000. The system to be employed is the Turettini patent, and the contractors are the Vienna Gas Company.

Mr. Moody, Evangelist, declares to Dr. Hoge and other ministers in Richmond that he never in his life said anything against Lee and Jackson, but, on the contrary, always held them to be Christian heroes. He is at a sad loss to know how such harsh things could have been accredited to him. Dr. Hoge says Mr. Moody's denial is manly and Christianlike.

In the lead production of different countries Spain holds the first place, the amount reaching some 120,000 tons in one year, or one-sixth more than America, which comes next on the list.
While Germany follows with 90,000. Of Spain's total production some 67,000 tons are derived from one district, that of Linares, in which more than 800 mines are registered.

Terrible havoc, both to life and property, has been reported from the recent typhoon in Japan, and especially on the west coast. At a place called Kurashiki 500 houses were destroyed and 1,800 persons killed. At Tamashima the sea walls were carried away, 100 lives lost, and 430 houses blown down; while at Imabari, Matsuyama, and Iyo 151 houses were wrecked, 112 junks sunk, and 170 persons drowned.

Some one has calculated that $12,- 000,000 were made in commissions on the New York Stock Exchange last year, or an average of $10,000 for each member, though it is clear that all the members did not get that average.
The par value of the securities bought and sold during the year was $10,116,- 005,950. There was a decrease in stock transactions during the year of about 1,000,000 shares. The movement in State and railroad bonds was heavier than in 1893.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. IX. WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, JANUARY 8, 1895. NO. 7.

Seventy-five years ago the first tomatoes grown in this country were cultivated as a strange and showy horticultural curiosity in a garden in Salem, Mass. Forty-five years ago, or a little more, they began to be used as a vegetable in the season.

One of the Rothschilds was so delighted with the ballet of "The Swans," at the London Alhambra, that he made a present of a crown piece—that is to say, five shillings each—to every one of the ballet girls. They are now asking if there are more Rothschilds than one, and if that kind of thing runs in the family.

Columbus discovered America and Edison invented the phonograph, but it remained for Dr. Bull to invent the remedy of the age, "The Cough Syrup," the kindly cure.

There was no City Court this morning.

This is really beautiful and bracing Winter weather.

There is a plenty of foreign fruit in the market now.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 373 bales.

Eggs were retailing at 25 cents per dozen from the stores to day.

Fine spring wrist gloves are at Dyer's a handsome line; also, gents gloves in all styles.

Four white tramps were accommodated with lodgings at the guard house last night. They were all foreigners.

The streets have gotten dry and hard again, the mud of yesterday having been dried up by the wind and the warm sun.

Ger. barque Ceres, Greenberg, cleared to-day for Bowling, G. B., with 220 casks spirits turpentine and 3,300 barrels rosin, valued at $6,700, shipped by Messrs. Alex Sprunt & Son.

There are a good many strangers in the city, many of whom are from the North on their way to Florida. Hardly a train arrives from the North without bringing passengers who stop over here a day or two before proceeding further South.

Gov.-elect Seales and Lt.-Gov.-elect Stedman will be inaugurated on Wednesday, the 21st inst. It will be a big day in Raleigh and if the railroads will put the fare at captivating figures there will be big crowds present from all parts of the State.

Mr. B. F. Keith, Jr., of Pender county, has located in the city and has opened a commission house at No. 128 North Water street. His card will be found in this issue. He is a son of Mr. B. F.
Keith, formerly a resident of this city, and is a gentleman of excellent business qualifications.

Indications.

For the South Atlantic States, fair and warmer weather with winds shifting to Southerly.

Slight Fire.

There was a slight fire in a shed building near Hon. A. H. Van Bokkelen's still, at about 7 o'clock this morning, which was extinguished by the prompt application of a couple of buckets of water. The alarm was given and the fire-department turned out with their usual promptitude, but their services were not needed. Damage trifling.

Personal.

Dr. S. C. Ellis has moved into his new office, No. 324 South Fourth street, next door to Dr. Miller's drug store, and has gotten things fixed up as comfortably as need be.

Dr. A. B. Barr, of New Brunswick, N. J., is the city with his wife on a visit to his father, Col. James G. Barr.
He will remain here about two weeks.

Mr. F. P. Newton, of Harrell's Store, paid us a pleasant visit this morning.
He says the cry there, as here, is "hard times."

Maj. W. C. Emerson, of Munson, Ind., is here, accompanied by his wife and daughter, on a visit to his sons, Messrs T. M. and H. M. Emerson.
It is his first visit to Wilmington and we advise a plentiful introduction to Rock Spring water so that it may not be his last.

Step Ladders, all lengths, at JACOB'S Depot.

Intemperance and Exposure.

Yesterday afternoon Chief of Police Brock received information that Mr.
Bethazar Smith had been found dead in his store building, on the corner of Bladen and Ninth streets. Coroner Jacobs was notified of the fact, and he sent an officer to look out for the remains until a jury could be summoned and an inquest held. The following jury of inquest were summoned: viz. J.
Stierberger, foreman; W. H. Bradley, G. W. Betts, G. A. A. Poppe, John H.
Howe and J. W. Galloway. At 10 o'clock, this forenoon, the Coroner, accompanied by the jury, proceeded to the late residence of the deceased and held an inquest in due form of law.
The following was the testimony elicited:

Isaac Royster, being duly sworn, said—I and Mr. G. L. Schutte came to the store and residence of deceased about 2 o'clock p. m., January 7th, and, finding them closed and not seeing Smith anywhere around, our suspicions led us to make search for him. A neighbor then climbed up to the window of his bed chamber and said that Mr. Smith was there by his bedside in a kneeling position, apparently dead.

Mrs. Jennie Farrow, being sworn, said: As my little girl was passing Mr. Smith's store, Mr. Smith called her in and asked her to close his doors for him. She saw that he was in a helpless condition, and returned home to get me to assist him. I returned with her—this being at about 6 o'clock p. m., Jan. 6th, 1895—and found him in a very helpless way, but, apparently, not drunk, although suffering from the effects of drinking. He appeared to be very sensible while I was with him, and at the time I left him. Mr. Smith was addicted to getting on long sprees.
I don't think Mr. Smith had any malicious enemies, but recollect a boisterous quarrel between him and Sallie Kessler, alias Sallie Powell, about one month ago.

G. L. Schutte, being duly sworn, said: Mr. Smith has been on a heavy spree ever since Christmas, his store often found to be closed in his business hours, and neglecting his business.
On Monday, Jan. 5th, several of the neighbors, with myself, were alarmed by the issuing of volumes of smoke from Mr. Smith's house and, upon examination, we discovered the premises fastened up; but we effected an entrance by raising a bar on the East door, when we saw Mr. Smith, very drunk, sitting on a rocker by the hearth with the flames belching out around him and licking up over the mantel piece. We rushed to him, ejected the flames and rendered all assistance that his condition required. Evidently he had used kerosene and too much lightwood. On the 7th of January, at about 2 o'clock p. m., I was told by a colored person that Mr. Smith's store had been closed all day, and, in company with Isaac Royster and John Williams, I went to the store, to see what was the matter. We found the store closed, whereupon John Williams climbed up to his chamber window and announced to us that Mr. Smith was kneeling at his bedside and apparently dead. Williams went in and found his suspicions to be true, and then went down stairs to let Royster, myself and others into the house. We satisfied ourselves of his death and came away, after closing the house, and I sent a message by telephone to the Chief of Police, informing him of the matter.
Mr. Smith has been addicted to frequent heavy sprees. Have known him to attempt suicide once by taking lau-dum. Do not think that his death was an intentional suicide, but rather, caused from the effects of a long and severe spree.

Mary Harrow being sworn, said—I came by Mr. Smith's store Tuesday evening and he called me in to help him. I went back and got my mother to come with me to help him. We helped all we could. We put him in his bed and then went home.

Louisa Thompson, being duly sworn, said—I saw Mr. Smith on Sunday night, about half past 7 o'clock, at his store. He was calling for assistance, and I went over and waited on him till he seemed satisfied, when I went back home. He was very drunk.
Have not seen him since.

Upon the testimony adduced the verdict of the jury was that, "The deceased came to his death from the frequent and excessive use of alcoholic spirits and exposure."

The deceased was a German by birth, about 36 years of age, and it is said that he had no relatives living in this country. His wife died several years ago, and left no children.

Election of Officers.

The following officers for Stedman Bucket Co., No. 1, were elected last night:

President—J. P. O'Sullivan
Vice President—R. A. Biddle.
Secretary—Jas. Moore.
Foreman—E. S. Griffith.
First Asst. Foreman—Geo. Grotjen.
Second Asst. Foreman—J. G. Swain.
Axemen—Wm. Sheehan, Jas. Mead-dows, J. P. Quinn, W. F. Melton, T.
G. Canaday.

Found Dead.

George E. Berden, colored, who kept a sailor's boarding house, on North Water street, between Chestnut and Mulberry, was found dead in his room this morning. He had been in feeble health for a considerable time, but was not considered in a dangerous condition and his death was a surprise to all his friends. He was a member of J. C. Abbott Post, No. 15, G. A. R. and was installed as Quartermaster of the Post last night. His remains will be interred in the National Cemetery.
The deceased was about 42 years of age and leaves a wife but no children.

Installed.

The officers elected by Jos. C. Abbott Post, No. 15, G. A. R., were duly installed last night at Minnie Hall, by P.
C., J. S. W. Eagles. They are as follows:

Commander—Geo. L. Mabson.
S. V. Commander—Reuben Carter.
J. V. Commander—Robert Nixon.
Officer of the Day—Nelson Davis.
Officer of the Guard—Elias Council.
Quartermaster—Geo. E. Berden.
Adjutant—Lewis Nixon.
Quartermaster's Sergeant—Wm. Taylor.
Sergeant Major—Isham Smith.
Surgeon—James Jones.
Chaplain—J. S. W. Eagles.

Who Can Tell?

We have been asked, "When are we to have a repetition of the Art. Literary and Musical Entertainment which was recently given for the benefit of the Library Association?" We learn that a petition, signed by many prominent citizens, was sent to the managers some time since, asking that the entertainment be repeated for the benefit of the Ladies Benevolent Society. This is a most worthy object and one which will appeal to all so strongly that an entertainment gotten up for the benefit of the Society would meet with a prompt, hearty and generous response from our people.

Have Arrived.

The instruments for the Germania Cornet Band, which is the name adopted by the new musical organization, arrived this morning. They were ordered through Mr. C. W. Yates, from the house of J. Howard Forte, of New York, and were placed on exhibition in the window of the former, on Market street, to-day. The instruments are of German silver, of elegant workmanship and consist of two E-flat cornets, two B-flat cornets, two altos, two tenors, two baritone, one B-flat base, one E-flat base, snare drum, base drum and cymbals. There will be a meeting of the band to night at which members of the Cornet Concert Club will be present to test the several instruments.

Worthy and Unworthy Poor.

There is no doubt that there is a good deal of destitution in the city, but we are aware that there are cases where the poverty is the result of absolute laziness. We have been informed by a gentleman who is in a position to know the condition of the really indigent of the city that, while there are many who are worthy and are really needy from circumstances over which they have no control, there are others—and the number is entirely too great—who are in absolute want, and dependent upon charity, simply because they are too lazy to try and obtain employment. The former class are worthy of every benevolent sympathy and assistance, while the latter deserve nothing, and we hope that our kindly disposed and benevolent citizens will take pains to ascertain, whether these asking alms are worthy of assistance or not before they bestow their charity.

Among the high, low, rich and poor, on the farm, in the stable, on the turf, in the household, St. Jacobs Oil has no equal for bodily pains and aches.

For durable coloring the walls of rooms in beautiful tints, at little cost, nothing equals the MARLENE sold at JACOB'S Depot.

OR, COMMON SENSE FOR MARRIED WIFE AND MOTHER. By MARIAN HAR-LAND; $1.00.

"The author of 'Common Sense in the Household' has written a volume of wiser sort, which will interest a much larger class of readers. It is a book for women of all ages and classes, and such as only the accomplished wife of a city gentleman could write. It is a volume full of valuable hints and practical suggestions as to food, clothing, care of children, girlhood, study, worry, housekeeping and home making, marriage, gossip, and indeed almost every subject that enters into woman's lot and life."
