JUSH T. JAMES, Editor & Prop. WILMINGTON. N. C THURSDAY, JANUARY 8, 1865.

Spiered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N. as second-class matter.

The London Pall Matl Gazette devotes part of a leader to home rule. It prophesies that some form of home rule during the new year will be accepted as the ultimate outcome of the enfranchisement of the Irish Democracy. thinks the Crimes Act will be allowed to lapse, but that the bill to reform the jury law for change of venue and trial by special jurors will become a statute. It admits that the full harvest is no ready to be reaped at Westminster, for the seed must be sown in the provinces before being garnered in Parliament It concludes that the duty of all who aspire to sway the English sceptre is to educate by agitation on the platform and in the press the vast but inert forces of the new Democracy. Inasmuch as three Cabinet ministers are very close to the editorial room of the Pall Mall

There are fifteen Senators to be elect ed in the next thirty days, with two changes coming in favor of the Repub licans and one doubtful case, that of Illinois, where they may lose. Farley, of California, and Slater, of Oregon, will be succeeded by Republicans; the former probably by ex-Minister Sargent and the latter by John II. Mitchell or George H. Williams. Jones, of Nevada, will try to get another term, and so will Hill, of Colora lo, but in the latter case the opposing candidates are many and the issue is doubtful. Ingalls, of Kansas, will probably be elected, as will Cameron, of Pennsyi-Wisconsin will have a contest with Angus Cameron refusing to run. New On the Democratic side Walker, of Alkansas, Call, of Florida, Voorhees of Indiana Vest, of Missouri, and Vance, of North Carolina, all expect re-election. Of the twenty-five vacancies which occur in the Senate next March nine have already been filled without change as to politics, and New Hampshire will re-elect Father Blair or send some other Republican when the Legislature meets next June.

The Age of Steel publishes over two so. hundred letters from prominent manufacturers in all parts of the country, in cluding furnacemen, dealers in iron working machinery, steam engine builders, and editors of trade papers, on the state of trade during the past year, and the prospects for the next six months. Taking the whole country together, the volume of sales in 1984 does not differ materially from 1883. There was, however, a depreciation of values in the neighborhood of 15 per cent., so that the margin of profits and the aggregate amount realized from sales were smaller than in 1883. The extensions of plant and improvement of facilities for manufactur ing were also less than for the previous year. Manufacturers generally take a year. Manufacturers generally take a John Banyan, author of 'The Pilgrim's der a hopeful view of the inture, for the fol- Progress." There appears to be only lician. lowing reasons: The values of raw materials and of manufactured products are now at the lowest point, a further depreciation being impossible. The stocks in the country are unusu ally light and inquiries for the spring delivery are numerous. The production of pig iron in the United States during the past year has been about 10 per cent less than in 1883. The coke and charcoal furnaces in the Sonth. having an annual productive capacity of 900,000 tons per annum, are not now mpking above 8,000 tons a week.

About the time of the State and Congressional eletions of 1882, which resulted so disastrously to the Republiin 1884 unless they should experience a "change of heart," a concerted effort, the colored inhabitants of the Southern States with fears of personal insecurity to result from the Democratic victory. Emissaries, some of whom were tracked to the State of Indiana, where Republican politicians are specially unscrupulous, went South and organized an exlous, went South and organized an exlous administration. Remonstrances were fruitless,-Their white guides told them that they could not trust Democratic assurances that their fears were groundless. They believed blindly what they thus were told. They had to learn by a bitter experience that in emigrating they were dupes of a coldblooded political plot to play on the feelings of Northern voters by the reports of their distress. the recent Presidential election cast the largest Democratic majority of any State in the Union. The spectacle of their return after an unhappy and unsuccessful struggle for a foothold among strangers is an instructive commentary upon Mr. Blaine's malignant speech at Augusta Me., two weeks after that election, in which he sought to stir up again the same kind of apprehensions among the colored people of the South.

The office seekers of Utica are making a practical application of Mr. Cleve. land's letter to the position of postmaster in that city. It appears that the present incumbent is a good officer, and that, so far from being an "offensive tesments."

He would seem, therefore, to have come fairly within the category of those whom the President-elect will not remove for political reasons or to make room for applicants from his own party.

This is indeed a most astonishing stride in the direction of cheap ocean telegraph, and it gives good ground to expect that much o the commercial business between this country and Europe will at no distant day be transacted by telegraph. It takes about three weeks to write to London and get back a letter in answer; three hours will in many cases be a sufficient allowance of time for a message and reply by wire,

It is a notable and well-nigh incredible fact that President. Arthur has never visited he State, war and pavy vauia, and Platt, of Connecticut, while department building.
