The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation, of any newspaper published, in the city of Wilmington.

Andrew Carnegie denies that he is in favor of modern Socialism.

The sensational stories about Chief Justice Waite's health are exaggerated.

The fire losses in the United States tor the last year are estimated at $125,-000,000. This is about $12 50 for every family in the country.

Count Polokoff paid $200 000 for the Basilewski collection of Limoges ware. furniture, etc , and then gave it to the Czar as a New Year's present.

The venerable General John C. Fre. mont, the first-defeated Republican Presidential candidate, is still vigorous enough to promise to head a Mexican exploring party, thus resuming his original profession of "path-finder." possibly in search of the last-defeated Republican Presidential candidate.

The number of houses erected in Philadelphia last year is placed at over 5,000, the largest number erected in one one year since 1876. Most of the house built have been sold, the class in demand generally being small, wellbuilt residences, costing from $2,000 to $3,500.

The New York Tribune publishes some interesting figures illustrating the remarkable growth of Minneapolis, was not: To-day it has a pepulation of 125,000 souls. Forty years ago its site could have been bought for $50; now land is worth in certain streets $1,500 a front foot.

During the past year only twenty miles of new railway track were built in New York. Pennsylvania constructed 252 miles. Hundreds of miles were built elsewhere by Pennsylvania capital. The policy of that great State is to develop its every nook and corner worth the effort. Hence her enormous wealth and progress.

Many examples of the uncertainty of wealth have been produced, within a year. The Astors, who founded their tortunes upon real estate, are unshaken and will remain so. In the long run, a man who holds and keeps real estate in a growing town will not suffer by it but, on the contrary, reap a noble and substantial harvest.

William Barry, a young Irishman who went to London to make his fer tune almost twenty years ago, is said to be hero of Mr. Black's story, "Shandon Bells." His solitary book was a volume of sketches entitled "Moorland and Stream," in which the young author gave brilliant promise, which was blighted by his early death.

The depression of business for some months has had quite a noticeable effect on the revenues of the Government .-The total revenues for the first half of the last fiscal year were in round num bers $175,700,000 as against $161,000,000 for the corresponding half of this fiscal year, a difference of over $14,000,000. Nearly $9,000,000 of this decrease occarred in customs receipts.

Some physicians recommend cayenne pepper for a sluggish appetite, but W. Mattieu Williams, in the Popular Science Monthly, declares that thousands of poor wretches are crawling miserably toward their graves, the victims of multitudes of maladies of both mind and body that are connected with chronic, incurable dyspepsia, al brought about by the habitual use of cayenne and its condimental cousins.

The election held in Columbia, S. C., lately, under the provisions of the local option law, to decide the question of license or no license for the next two years, resulted in the success of the license ticket by a vote of 940 to 170, the colored vote being solid in favor of license. In several of the wards the ladies appeared at the polls and worked in favor of no liceuse, but with little effect.

Senator Hoar made a speech a few days ago indorsing Blaine's Augusta post-election tirade and announcing his determination to keep the Southern question at the front, as the main issue upon which to seek a restoration of power for the Republican party. The country will be glad to sit down hard on Mr. Hoar on this subject, and this will be demonstrated when the issue is Catherine Lewis fainted one night in "Olivette," but it didn' cause a ripple in the play. "I was only a cough, and they had a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup on hand, of course.

The Local Newspaper.

An exchange says correctly: "When you hear a man sneering at the local papers because they are not as big. cheap and newsy as other papers, you can safely bet that he does not squander his wealth in assisting to make them better, and that generally the papers have done more for him than he has for them. The man who cannot see the benefit arising to a town from the newspapers hasn't the sense of an oyster The market was well supplied with and he is about as much value to a town as a delinquent tax list."

A Literary Treat.

Hon. Carl Schurz, the eminent German statesman, orator and scholar, has been engaged to lecture here under the auspices of the Wilmington Library Association. The lecture will be given at the Opera House on the night of the 20th inst., and the subject gained 20 minutes of daylight, in the will be, "The Problems of Education." The people of our city will have a rare opportunity on that occasion to listen to one of the most well-known and popular orators in the country, and we trust that there may be a good superintendent. Prayer meeting and lecture turn out to greet him and also to en Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Christian Association Tuesday evening after first and third Sabbaths, at 8 o'clock. Seats free and ices have been secured.

New Steamer.

The government steamer Gen. H. B Wright, Capt. Flowers, arrived here The Register of Deeds issued five last night from Fayetteville, where she was recently built. She is a side-wheel steamer, 75 feet long, 13 feet beam and will draw with all her machinery, coal and stores on board, 14 inches of water. She will be used in the improvement of the Cape Fear river and its tributaries, and left here to-day with the en_ gineers to survey the Black river from The annual meeting of the lot own- Moore's Creek (the burrow) to Point Caswell. The steamer is not yet entirely completed, and workmen were busily engaged to-day in pushing her to completion as rapidly as possible.

A Treat Ahead.

Miss Carrie Swayne is to play here on Monday week, the 19th inst. in the "Little Joker," a piece which has been written specially for her by Mr. Fred. G. Maeder, the manager of the entertainment. We have been at some pains to find out about the merits of this troupe and are satisfied that they will present about the best theatrical entertainment we have had here this season. Mr. Joe H. Hart is personally acquainted with Mr. Maeder and he assures us that he will present only a good bill to his audience. Mr. Hart also showed us a copy of the Dramatic News which speaks of Miss Swayne's appearance in Atlanta on the 22d ult., when, it says, "she completely captivated her audience" She played also in Columbus, Ga., on the 25th "to a large
