THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. IX. WILMINGTON, N. C., MONDAY, JANUARY 12, 1886. NO. 10.

The Daily Review has the largest bona fide circulation, of any newspaper published, in the city of Wilmington.

Cleveland's official plurality is 65-93.

Dynamite fiends should receive no countenance from this Government.

There is a remarkable rage for clocks among the fashionable people of Philadelphia, some families having as many as fifty or sixty time-pieces, which they never wind up, but only keep to look at.

Senator Bayard made a neat and effective thrust at Senator Ingalls. If Ingalls had denied that he had ever been suspected, says the Augusta Chronicle, perhaps the record might show differently, not to speak of Mr. Vest's scrap book.

The real cause of Blaine's defeat has been discovered by the Christian Statesman. He travelled all one Sunday during his campaigning. Up to this violation of the fourth commandment his chances seemed most flattering, but afterward disasters were incessant.

Dr. Porbes, in the proceedings of the Philadelphia Medical Society, describes an operation by which the ring finger of musicians is liberated from some of the accessory tendons of its extensor muscles and thus acquires freedom of movement. Gottschalk is said to have undergone an operation of the kind.

Mr. Ruskin despises a sewing machine, and wants all the girls to make their dresses by hand. Still, it must be borne in mind that this violent reformer has all his clothes made by a tailor—and of all things under the sun, an English tailor at that. Mr. Ruskin, girls, does not make his clothes by hand himself. This, also, is like a man; just exactly like a man.

Cards are out announcing the engagement of Master Willie Scott, aged 4 years, of Gordonsville, Va., and Miss Jennie Perry, aged 6 years, of Charleston, West Va. It will be interesting to note in future years how much weight this parental contract will have with the youngsters. Cupid is an erratic fellow and makes sad havoc with the plans of men.

Although jute has now assumed such importance as an article of commerce, the first attempts to utilize its fibre were not made in Europe until 1834-5, and it was only when the Crimean war deprived England of Russian flax and hemp that jute fibre became highly valued. The centre of the trade in Great Britain is Dundee. Of late years Germany has gone largely into it.

Persian carpets are rarely large, because they are chiefly woven, says a recent consular report from Teheran, by the women and children of the peasantry in the villages. Thus, a countryman will have a rug made in his own house, and when it is done he takes it to the nearest town and sells it for what it will fetch. Of late years, however, much larger carpets have been made for the foreign market.

"San Francisco," says an exhibitant, "has not been a clean city from the day of its foundation. There is Oriental dirt and Occidental dirt. It has come to be a foreign city. Merchandise fills the sidewalks, and in many places crowds the pedestrian into the street. Official is thrown there. The six months' tradewinds of Summer and the six months' rain are the two sanitary agents which keep watch and ward over the city."

Chicago has 6,000 persons, about one in every 100 of its population, who constitute the select social circles represented in the new "Elite Directory" for 1885. The book is printed on gilt-edged paper, and is said to be entirely worthy of a place beside Shakespeare and the family album, which form the library of the marble-top table of the Chicago parlor. The leading streets in which "Society" lives are Michigan and Washington boulevards, Indiana, Wabash, Prairie, and Dearborn avenues. Some Aldermen are in the fashionable directory, and, to keep up its tone, a list is given of elite tradesmen, dentists, doctors, and churches.

"I would not live away," said the Psalmist in a moment of poetic rapture, "I would not either," says Josh Billings, irreverently. So we say—but then while we do live, let us hold on to our health and spirits. The surest way to do this, is to lay in a supply of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Try it.

 The days have grown perceptibly longer.

The receipts of cotton at this port today foot up 353 bales.

There were two tramps—one white and one colored—accommodated with lodgings at the guard house on Saturday night.

Now is the time; you save money by getting a fine suit made to order for $25; it will cost 35 a little later. Dyer's is the place.

Kate Martin, colored, was not drunk, but was very disorderly, and was hauled in by the police. This morning the Mayor fined her $5 for the offense.

Remember the meeting of the Ladies' Benevolent Society which is to be at Miss Hart's school room, on Third street, at 3:30 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

Miss E. Karrer advertises in this issue an item of interest to the ladies. For the next thirty days she will sell zephyrs, all colors, at 10 cents per ounce, for cash.

Steam tug Elhel, Olsen, from Key West, Fla., arrived here to-day where she will go to work in towing mud sews in connection with the work of dredging the river.

Br. barque Isca, Knight, cleared to-day for Hull, Eng., with 500 casks spirits turpentine, 1,257 barrels of rosin and 1,000 barrels tar, valued at $7,939, shipped by Messrs. Paterson, Downing and Co.

Winter is nearly half gone and we have had but very little cold weather thus far. It has been a season prolific with colds for the human family and there are many now suffering with the annoying disorder. We imagine that the weather will be considerably colder within a day or two.

The supper at the City Hall to-morrow night, gotten up under the auspices of the ladies of the First Baptist Church, will be an elegant affair, and the occasion will undoubtedly be graced by the presence of a large number of our citizens. There will be refreshments in abundance besides other attractions.

There was a large congregation, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, at the Second Presbyterian Church to witness the installation of Rev. John Primrose as its pastor. Rev. Dr. J. R. Wilson, of the First Presbyterian Church, of this city, and Rev. John M. Rose, of Goldsboro, officiated in the interesting and instructive ceremony.

Indications.
 For the South Atlantic States, local rains, followed by colder clearing weather, winds shifting to Northwest-erly.

Personal.
 We are very sorry to hear that Capt. F. M. James is very sick at his residence in this city. His disease is an affection of the liver.

Mr. N. Gillican, of Moss Neck, is in the city to-day.

New City Directory.
 Messrs DeRosset & Meares, have made arrangements for the completion of a new directory of the City, something which is really needed here. The last which was gotten up, two years ago, was very incomplete and very in correct and is really of little value for reference and there is therefore a demand for a good, reliable one. These gentlemen propose to supply. The work will be done carefully and elaborately and the result will be sure, we think, to prove satisfactory. Messrs. John Cutts and Thomas Muse began to-day a canvass of the city for the names and these, with the members of the residences, will be properly given.

We observe quite a fine display of new Revolvers for very reasonable prices, at Jacobi's Hardware Depot.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

The following preamble and resolutions were adopted at a meeting of the Wilmington Steam Fire Engine Company No. 1, held January 6, 1885.

"IN MEMORY LOCKED."
 When temporal cares are thrust aside, that a friendly tear may be shed over the grave of one who filled with usefulness every station of life in which his lot had been cast, the reflective genius of associates may find many virtues that are worthy of emulation, and a commendable moral life from which to carve a pattern. To earn the esteem of those with whom we are brought in daily contact, and successfully to carry it through life, even to the grave is an enviable distinction vouchsafed to but few.

To look through the vista of time into a future, whose bounds though circumscribed by a few years more than a moiety of the Hebrew Psalmist's limit, and to order our course through life that our names when we go down into silence are echoing on this side of the grave, and human voices are talking pleasantly about us, is truly to gather to our memories the pearls that sparkle from the unfathomable depths of affection, and the diamonds that glitter from the caverns of the heart.

Death has again entered into our ranks, another victim claimed and made to succumb to his relentless demand, Captain FREDERICK G. ROBINSON, who from the inception of this company has been with us, hath been called from time to eternity.

Deeply sensible of the loss which we have sustained, and cognizant of a void which is difficult to fill, we, the surviving members of the company, are desirous of making this formal and public recognition of the services which we received at his hands, in helping us through our onerous and perplexing duties as firemen. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the death of Captain Robinson, our former Foreman and Chief of the Fire Department, this Company has lost a true friend, a wise counsellor and a sagacious leader.

Resolved, That a blank page be left in the Records of this Company, upon which the official position which he filled in the Fire Department shall be inscribed, his name, and date of birth and death.

Resolved, That a copy of these proceedings be transmitted to the family of the deceased, and furnished to the newspapers of the city for publication.

JOHN L. BEATWRIGHT,
 ED. WILSON MANNING,
 JOHN COWAN,
 Committee.

Old Reliable

WE PAY CASH for every dollar's worth we buy! Our expenses are much lower, for the amount of goods we sell, than others. We have no great number of partners to divide profits with or live on our business. All we ask you is to examine our goods at your homes. Compare their quality and prices with goods from other stores and you will then see that you can save fully from 10 to 33 per cent. on your purchases.

We aim to bind fast to us every person who has ever bought in our store and there is but one way to do it and that is to deal right with them in every particular. We try our best (but sometimes we may "miss fire", but never intentionally) to give every one full value in return, and will not stoop to misrepresent any of our goods in any way, shape or manner.
